Alta Vista Sidewalk
Project Under WayCouncil Rejects Plea
To Save Shade Trees

The big attraction in Walton this week has been the Alta Vista sidewalk project, with hundreds of people and many cars and traffic. They are progressing nicely as of Wednesday morning, with the north side up to the center of the James Falls property. The other side is about to the Carl Connor property.

The "bone of contention" which is the trees on the north side, in front of James Falls and Stanley Vandalindgen, which had not been touched Wednesday morning. A request to by-pass these trees was again made to City Council, Monday night, but was refused by Council, due to the contract being already let and the specifications calling for their removal. There was no vote on the request, there by acting as a refusal. Council stated that if this change was made at this stage, the ordinance and contract would have to be rescinded, as advised by their attorney. The schedule, according to the contractor, will be the removal of the trees Wednesday or Thursday.

"Communism's Big Enemy" Is Sermon
Topic For Sunday

"Communism's Big Enemy," Matt 5:1-2, will be the sermon topic at the Walton Christian Church, Sunday, at 10:30 a. m. Rev. C. A. Vaughn will discuss the most effective means to refute Communistic ideologies and propaganda. He will point out the fact that Christians emphasize the worth of the individual with the state as man's servant, while Communism puts the emphasis on the state with the individual as its servant.

The Department of Christian Education, Morgan Campbell, chairman, announces the following goals for 1955-56, "Our Year of Christian Education."

1—Make a 20% gain in Sunday School enrollment; 2—Make good use of Vacation Schools, Camps and Youth Work; 3—Enlist 20% of the resident membership in some form of leadership training. The Wednesday night study of Revelations will be continued; 4—Emphasize Christian family life; 5—Maintain closer contact with college students to encourage them to maintain church connections; and 7—Re-create an active Cradle Roll Department, with Mrs. Jesse Colleen and Mrs. Albert Parker, as leaders.

Rev. Vaughn said, "The world will never be saved by a soft, easy, careless religion. It takes faith, venture and sacrifice to carry out the command of Jesus, 'Go, make disciples of all nations.' The Bible school will vote Sunday morning at 9:30 on the winter schedule and the total church program for Fall, Winter and Spring will begin October 2. This will be promotion Sunday and teacher recognition day.

New 1000-Gallon Water Truck

The Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department has purchased a 1,000-gallon water truck to further its department fire fighting. This truck will also be available to neighboring fire departments when needed. This truck will be a great asset to the department as everyone knows the water problem has been a headache to your Volunteer Fire Department. People do not realize how your volunteer firemen feel when they pull up to a fire and there is no water available and they exhaust the small amount they carry in their booster tank. If that doesn't get the fire, have to stand back and watch it burn, and then have people say, what was the use of calling the fire department, they are not doing anything to put it out. Your fire departments can't manufacture water all the time, and you have to bring it with them or find it in a pond or cistern, and in most cases, the cisterns are not where they are on the porch or in the house where, if you have much fire, you can't get a portable pump which your department carries with them. With the modern fog nozzles which does require much water, your department has a much better chance of extinguishing your fire if they have a tank truck to go along with the fire truck, and not have to find chances on finding water at the scene.

The truckers, who haul water for the public have done a wonderful job in cooperating with the fire departments of this area, at in the summer time they usually keep a truck full of water and all you have to do is call, but in winter, with danger of freezing and the water hauling business slowed off, it would be hard to get a tank of water for fire purposes when you needed it.

The water truck the Kenton and Community Volunteer Fire Department purchased will always be loaded with water and stationed in the fire house at Kenton and will roll whenever the fire truck goes out.

The Kenton and Community firemen are giving a bingo this Saturday night (September 24) at 8 o'clock in the fire house, Kenton, with the usual good eats and refreshments. The proceeds will go toward the expense of the water truck. The department hopes there will be a good turn-out of the public as Kenton and Community Fire Department is continually striving to give better fire protection and life squad service, and we cannot do this without the support of the people.—Pub. INDEPENDENCE R-1

We are glad to report April, the daughter of Rev and Mrs. Geo. Miller, is improving from a week's illness.

Several ladies of Staftordburg WSCS are planning an attended the meeting at Ft. Thomas, September 23.

Sorry to report our Sunday School attendance fell off quite a bit Sunday at Staftordburg. Perhaps it was a day for visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Maya Smith of Crestwood, were visiting, the past weekend, with her sister, Miss Emma Yates of Taylor Mill Road.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanna visited Mr. Hanna's brother, Walter, at Corinth, who has been quite ill, but they found him some better.

Mrs. Virginia Grant and little son of Arizona, are spending a couple of weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Klein, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willoughby and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parson and children spent Saturday evening at Coney Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pruett visited Mrs. Pratt's mother, Mrs. L. N. Hoffman, Sunday.

Rev. Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney, and Mr. and Mrs. George Damon spent Sunday with Mrs. Damon's sister, Mrs. Becker, and family at Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger and Mrs. Joe Richardson visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maddox of Crittenden, on Sunday and were accompanied home by Miss Nannie Ballinger.

We just learned Charles Crout, who is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital and has been seriously ill, is a little improved. Hope he continues so.

Take the stuff the farmer has to sell is not selling so well. People are loaded with debts and bills, which does nothing to help the country's ills. Just where it will end nobody knows, but one thing sure, man reaps what he sows. So, for fear we'll give somebody the blues, and some might say, do you call that news? So we will just ring off with this to say, don't make more debts than you know you can pay.—JR

Tower news is scarce and it ain't worth a dime and so far just once we will put it in rhyme—

The ground's dry and hard and the gardens are done, and for our good farmers it's nobody's fun. The local boys here are timing their paces and getting all ready for hot-rod races. Our used car lot is running full blast, at the bargains they offer, we don't think they'll last. Tobacco's all cut and now in the house—if a fire should get started its due for a dose. Things are dry and getting dryer, the cost of living is going higher.

Overseas Christmas Parcels

The Post Office Department is again stressing the fact that for your Christmas packages addressed to members of the armed forces, stationed overseas, should be mailed between October 15 and November 15 to insure delivery by Christmas. This includes both APO and Navy addresses to which the parcels are going by surface means or by cheapest rates.

Air parcels are to be sent in the month of November to insure delivery by Christmas.

There are four things to remember that will help to lessen the possibility of breakage or non-delivery. They are: Pack securely, address carefully, mail early and send no perishables.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Dennis of McCullum Road, are the proud parents of a boy girl, born last Friday, named Becky Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pettitcord of Shaw Pike, are also proud parents of a baby girl, born last week.

Mrs. Sterling Stoggs, Shaw Pike, and Mrs. W. A. Wicklund, McCullum Road, have been reported sick.

James R. Blick, Kittle Road, is home again, having spent a month in the veterans hospital in Cincinnati.

Talent Hunt for Scholarship Awards

The program known as the National Merit Scholarship Awards scours the country each year for top-level students and gives them scholarships to the colleges of their choice. This talent hunt will cover all the nation's secondary schools, public and private. It stems from the fact that, due mostly to lack of finances, about half the graduates in top quarter ranking fail to go on to college.

Funds for the program, tops 21 million dollars. The sum came largely from grants by Ford, Carnegie and Sears, Roebuck foundations. It will provide about 350 scholarships this year.

Within the next two weeks, and each autumn in future year, high schools will be invited to nominate scholarship candidates. Everyone within the top 5% of the year's graduating class can be named. These students take a screening examination and the top scorers in each state get another test in eliminations that pick the national winners. Only then is the actual amount of the scholarship award for each student determined. Sums are to range from $100 to full tuition and living costs for a four-year course, depending on need.

Bradford OES

Installation of new officers for the ensuing year of Bradford Star Chapter will be held at the Independence Bank building, Sept. 22, at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

Wm. Schmiede

William Schmiede, formerly of Independence, has been a patient in the veterans hospital for more than six months and feels that many of his friends have forgotten him.

It would do wonders for Billy to have a few people in this area visit him. If you can't make a visit, send him a letter or card. All this helps to break the monotony of long hours of confinement and idleness.

Many of you ex-service people know that moral is the greatest asset during the time you are away from home. Why not try to boost one person's moral a little by a visit, a letter or card. The address is: William Schmiede, c/o Veterans Hospital, 3800 Vine St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Hot Rod Races

The hot rod races, being held on Stevens Road, 2 miles East of Independence, are becoming more interesting to persons in this area. 1553 adults were estimated as having attended the races last Sunday afternoon.

The main feature race of 20 laps, with 14 cars participating, was won by car No. 38, with nine hot rods completing the final laps.

It is a real thrill watching those souped up autos tear away at the start and fighting for first place from beginning to end. If you have never seen these races, be there Wednesday or Friday evenings or Sunday afternoon.

Air Mail

What happens to an air mail letter you post when planes are grounded by a storm? The Post Office says it is sent by rail if putting it on a train would get it to its destination faster than holding it for a later flight.

Old-Age Pensions

Repeated questions we get from readers show a need to clear up a point. The limitations on how much you can earn and still draw Social Security benefit checks goes off with your 72nd birthday. But there's no suspension of the social security tax on your earnings from a job covered by the program. You must pay that as long as you continue working.

Pat Durr is up and around again after his short but painful stay in St. Elizabeth hospital.

"Then Peter said unto them, repent and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Acts 2:38

QUESTION: Why do preachers today give a different answer to the one that Peter gave to people on the Day of Pentecost, when they wanted to know what to do to be saved? Peter told them that they were (1) To Repent, and (2) To be Baptized. He placed repentance before baptism and said that his repentance and baptism were "for the remission of sins." Why then, do some today maintain that infants should be baptized, who can neither repent, nor have anything to repent of, and others say that baptism is not for the remission of sins, but that ones sins are remitted when he believes—before he is baptized?

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

House Of Our God

Lesson for September 25, 1955

WHY support churches? The first thing we need to understand about this, as Christians, is that support of the church is not optional, but a "must." During a year's time every citizen is confronted with more "causes" than most of us can keep up with. We are invited to share in many good works; orphanages, schools for the blind, boys' towns, foundations for the study of various diseases, hospitals for crippled children, the Red Cross, all sorts of things. Most of us have to decide which we shall send our few dollars to, and which not. But if a Christian thinks he has a right to decide whether or not to support the church, he does not understand what the church is. The central reason why the church calls for the support of the people of God is that it is the "house of our God."

Here They Know You

If those poor people in ancient Jerusalem pledged themselves to support the house of God, we who are Christians have even more reason to do so. For one thing, the church is where we really belong. Where else in the world is a person recognized for what he is, a child of God? Elsewhere you are a statistic, a consumer, a customer, a taxpayer, a cost item, a voter. These may be important facts about you. But the most important fact about any human being is not that he is kin to the human race, important though that is. The big fact is that every human being is made by God, for fellowship with him. Every man alive is a child of God. Either he knows that or he does not know it. Vast numbers of the human race live as if they were orphans of the storm, they live pigs' lives like the prodigal in Jesus' parable. But no one will tell them they are children of God. No one will tell them of the Father's house, no one will recognize them for what they are. Only in the house of our God.

Here Citizens Are Trained

There are very short-sighted people who may tell you that money put into support of the church could better be spent in civic improvement, such as better schools or sanitation. On the contrary, supporting the church is the best thing that can be done for the betterment of society. It cannot be said too often: even if the church were only a listening post, even if a church did nothing at all but hold a meeting on Sunday, even if a church might as well be laid flat in ashes six days in the week, for all work it does—still, even if it did no more than hear God's messages once a week, it would be doing a great and unique thing. For the people who hear those messages and believe them would come to know their true relation to God and their duty in his sight; they would live not as animals, not as the "beasts that perish" but as immortal sons and daughters of the Most High. Then if the church is more than a listening post, if it puts its members to work, they will be actually taught and trained in Christian living.

Here God's Will Is Sought and Taught

Are we talking about the real church or are we idealizing it? Well, of course no church is ideal. But taking the church by and large, these things are true, the church at its best wants them to come true, this is what it is driving at. For the church is the only place in town where large groups of people join in trying to know the will of God, and how to find it and how to do it. The church is the place where problems, personal and/or social, can and ought to be discussed in the light of God's Word and Will. It is the place where there is a sincere effort to know who God wants for this community and for our part in it, a church where there is brave and honest opportunity for minister and people to think and to study and to speak out for God and his ways, a church which by prayer and service keeps the door open toward God, such a church is indeed a house of God; how can a Christian refuse to support it?

A CHILD SLEEPS...

A Child sleeps peacefully... a sleep without dreams. The day just passed has been filled with play, adventure, new learning and discoveries. The day ahead is something to look forward to.

There are no nightmares for this child because there is no fear to kindle them. For it is the fear of the unknown... the fear of tomorrow... that stirs us to unrest.

To look forward to tomorrow tranquilly... as this child does... you must have FAITH. You will find that faith in the Church, and with it you will be able to face, unafraid, your tomorrows, and all they hold.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of a character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. From us go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Heaters - Heaters - Heaters

I have talked heaters so much in the past week, with the hot weather we are having, I believe I have gone "heater crazy," so I will have to write more about that great Perfection oil heater with the magnet pilot that burns for three days on a gallon of oil, to keep from turning it out and relighting it when the weather warms up or gets colder. The large size, 80-900-B T-U heater has automatic blower that works with the temperature of the heater. I have Perfection in four sizes of last year's prices.

If you burn gas, I have a 50,000 B.T.U. Martin gas heater, fully automatic, for only $125.00—this is a bargain. If you burn coal, I have most anything you want, a full line of Warm Morning stoves, two sizes of Martha Washington circulating heaters, seven sizes of magazine heaters, a few hot blast, a Franklin, oil sizes of laundry stoves, a four-cap cook stove, and several sizes of wood heaters; also portable oil, gas and electric heaters. Have some very good used oil and coal heaters and I will guarantee them to be in good condition—we have checked them over and replaced what they needed.

CONRAD is the place to buy your heaters. Leonard Lawson stopped for a piece of Armstrong linoleum. Denny Davis and Mr. Martin, over at Concord Church, were trying to find a drive chain for a car under over 100 years old. Chick fixed them up. When they came to CONRAD's that Worthington will do his best to take care of them. Omer Kite, George Ruth and Omer Black all bought Bolce paint. Cleve Marsh and William Brown bought cooking compound.

A very busy day—Brewster repaired a lot of oil heaters, put up some furnace pipe and sold a lot of hardware between times. Chick and Red were both busy all day. Red cut and threaded pipe, cut up a lot of iron, drilled holes, set up stoves, put up lots of hardware, filled up empty bins. Chick tries to wait on all customers until they get too many and he yells off help. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Concord, from Verona, were getting a few items. Mopix Concord also was here for a few things. Co was Mr. and Mrs. Riley Prairier from around Concord.

Mrs. Albert Robbins, down by Hopful Church, bought a lot of linoleum for her kitchen and she has a large one. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton were in—I tried to sell Mrs. Hamilton new linoleum, as we were cutting Mrs. Robbins' down by Hopful Church, bought a lot of linoleum for her kitchen and she has a large one. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton were in—I tried to sell Mrs. Hamilton new linoleum, as we were cutting Mrs. Robbins' down by Hopful Church, bought a lot of linoleum for her kitchen and she has a large one.

Brewster went out to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson's new house and put up all the towel bars and racks—if you do this job right, you are done from now on. Brewster and Red went over and put in a new Dayton jet water system for Mr. Carver at Union. We sell lots of these Dayton water systems. Several here today looking at Perfection oil heaters and Warm Morning coal heaters—the weather is too warm yet. It is hard to sell a heating stove when the temperature is above 80 degrees.

A fellow stopped today and bought a 2-gallon little Brown Jug thermos jug—he wanted one in the carton as he would not use it until next year and then he was going to drive to Alaska—he was picking up a few things he would be needing. Bolce brought down a new load of Bolce outside white and Bolce red roof and born paint—we sell lots of paint every day. The pastor over at Piner Baptist Church had Chick make him up a railing out of pipe to hold draperies in front of the choir.

I called Louisville for two Farmers Feeder seeders to fasten on the draw-bar of a tractor and drive off power take-off and you can really sow the seed. I sold one of these to Beach over by Jay Webster's. Helen Rich stopped in and bought an oil heater. Gordon Phillips bought a large Case pocket knife to carry in his fish tackle box. I received some stove repairs today that I ordered three weeks ago, so you had better get your stove repair orders in early. John Sleet said he wanted to see that Perfection oil heater that I wrote so much about, so when I showed it to him, he agreed that it was some stove and made of the best material today—boiler plate steel bowl and porcelain finish cabinet. They look like a heater and will you be proud you spent your money when you buy a Perfection oil heater. Mrs. Robert B. Hymer and two daughters were in today—all of them bought hardware, mostly small items.

Fred Carter from over beyond Concord Church, was here. Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Britt were all shopping. Mrs. Bach took her husband the grass seed sower to use on his tractor. Matt Gabbard came by for the 40-gallon size syrup buckets for sorghum. Roy cleaned John Sleet's and Mrs. Lula Hudson's oil heaters—they are ready for winter. Mrs. Belle Walford's electric iron, she dropped, was all busted inside, so I sent her a G.E. iron which was about the same as the one she had.

We cut up a lot of linoleum remnants and made stove mats 4½ feet square, all colors. Mrs. Ed Webster was over buying stove pipe and a new axe—he is 92 years old and she is 87, and both very active—he says he is slowing up a little every year now. Mrs. Geo. Finnell from Staffordburg bought a large size Perfection oil heater—they are sure a fine couple and very good customers of mine. Gene Heister and wife got a Franklin coil heater for their kitchen.

Robert B. Ison Named School Superintendent

New Man Assumes Duties On Monday

The Walton-Verona school district has a new school superintendent, according to Dan Roberts, chairman to the Board of Education. He is Robert B. Ison, formerly of Grant County High School, who assumed his duties Monday.

Mr. Ison, who is 34 years old, comes to Walton with plenty of training and experience in school work. He graduated from Georgetown College and is working on his Masters Degree at the University of Kentucky. He spent three years in the Army, two of these in Africa. He was a coach at Scott County High for three years, and principal at Dry Ridge for two years, prior to the opening of the new Grant County High School.

Mr. Ison is married and has two sons, Bobby, 5, and Stephen, 3 years old. Mr. Ison is a former teacher and also working on her Masters Degree.

We certainly welcome this fine gentleman and his family into our community and the school system.

Robert B. Ison

Walton Kindergarten Enrollment Is Small; Still Time to Enroll

The Walton kindergarten opened this year with 15 pupils, according to the teacher, Mrs. James S. Webster.

Mrs. Webster said she would like to have a few more children enroll in the kindergarten. There are several here in town who are of age and the parents should enroll them, if possible. It is not too late, since this is only the second week. Tuition is $10 per month and this includes all supplies, such as crayons, paper, paints, etc., refreshments and transportation within the city limits or a short distance outside town.

This is the third year for the kindergarten, which is sponsored by the Walton-Woman's Club. So far, it is self supporting, and that is the reason for the tuition. It is hoped, by the sponsors, that parents will consider what the kindergarten does for a child and help to keep it going by enrolling your child this week.—Pub. Clin.

Those desiring clothing must come with a letter from the principal of their school, president of the P. T. A., school nurse or a minister or a recognized county church, stating need and location of person's home.

Those visiting the school for the purpose of seeing this committee, are asked to use the basement door under the iron outside stairs of the Burlington school, which gives direct access to the clothing room. This will prevent teachers from being disturbed by inquiries.

Be on the lookout for needy in your community so they may be served by this clothing project. In its first year, 150 people were clothed.

Wife Is Treated For Sock and Bruises

A former Walton man was injured fatally and his wife suffered injuries when their automobile was struck by a freight train Sunday, near Walton. Gene Wilson, 601 Garrard Street, Covington, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital an hour after the accident. His wife, Lucille, escaped with cuts and bruises. She was treated and released. Both were taken to the hospital by the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton.

Kentucky State police said the automobile apparently stalled on a railroad crossing between U. S. 25 and the old Lexington Pike, a mile north of Walton. They said the train, enroute to Danville from Cincinnati, tore the automobile in half.

Dewey Stuart, engineer, told police he saw the car, but could not stop in time to avoid the crash.

Mr. Wilson sustained a skull fracture, with but no brain injury, and a bruise on his right ankle and shock.

The couple, who had no children, were on their way to visit Mr. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Route 2, Walton. They were only a short distance from their destination when the tragedy occurred.

Mr. Wilson was a lithographer for the Heekin Can Co., Cincinnati. He was a native of Owensley county, and served with the Army in Germany in 1951-52. His wife is employed by the Crane & Breed Casket Co., Cincinnati.

Beside his widow and parents, Mr. Wilson is survived by five sisters, Mrs. June Brewster of Walton, Mrs. Cleo Allen of Berea, Mrs. Ann Luptak of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Lucy Roberts and Miss Sophie Wilson, both of South Ft. Mitchell.

Services were held at the Walton Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon, with burial in the Independence Cemetery. Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton, had charge of arrangements.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Last Wednesday, September 21, the "Lovely Ladies" (trees), thirty years of age, were sentenced to their death by the Walton City Fathers.

A last-minute reprieve of sentence was asked of the City Council on Monday night, but this was refused, because the trees extended about six inches over the sidewalk line. The City Engineer advised he could change the line or go around the trees without changing the contour of said project. However, after a heated argument by two of the councilmen and an "opinion" expressed by the City Attorney, no action was taken to save the trees. Two of the loyal councilmen expressed their desire to save the beauty of Alta Vista Drive and the trees, the remaining two councilmen had no comment to make thus paving the way for no action to be taken.

The beautiful ladies stood gently swaying with the breeze, not knowing of their last minute fate. On Wednesday, several men arrived and prepared them for their last rites, everything was quiet as the executioner (Gene McElroy) arrived, placed a noose around their lovely bodies and tenderly pulled them to earth, thus ending their long, useful career. Their remains were laid to rest in a watery grave on the school house property.

A large crowd of Walton citizens and school children gathered to pay their last respects and expressed their displeasure for such actions, knowing that few, if any of the new residents of Alta Vista Drive will be here thirty years hence to view such trees on this once beautiful street.

The beauty of these trees, gently swaying with the breeze, will always be cherished and remembered by those living on Alta Vista Drive.

THIS truck still pays all its own way!

YES... THIS IS A TRUCK, TOO—but there's a difference. This truck rolls on its own "highway"... pays all its costs of doing business, right down the line. This is a truck for a railroad car! And despite the many changes that have taken place in this nation's dynamic railroad industry in recent years, one fact remains fixed and unchanged. America's self-supporting railroads still have to compete for business with tax-subsidized intercity carriers that, by their own admission, have long since outgrown the infant-industry stage.

This unequal competitive situation hurts all carriers—and our country, too. It can be corrected in the next Congress by legislation that recognizes no favorites and grants no favors. All we ask is simple fair play for all—in the traditional American way.

Post Office Pens

Those jokes about scratchy Post Office pens are likely to become as outdated as the dodo. Reason: The Post Office Department is putting new ball-point pens in 75 more offices as an experiment. It may, in time, install them, chained to desks in all its buildings.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Last Wednesday, September 21, the "Lovely Ladies" (trees), thirty years of age, were sentenced to their death by the Walton City Fathers.

A last-minute reprieve of sentence was asked of the City Council on Monday night, but this was refused, because the trees extended about six inches over the sidewalk line. The City Engineer advised he could change the line or go around the trees without changing the contour of said project. However, after a heated argument by two of the councilmen and an "opinion" expressed by the City Attorney, no action was taken to save the trees. Two of the loyal councilmen expressed their desire to save the beauty of Alta Vista Drive and the trees, the remaining two councilmen had no comment to make thus paving the way for no action to be taken.

The beautiful ladies stood gently swaying with the breeze, not knowing of their last minute fate. On Wednesday, several men arrived and prepared them for their last rites, everything was said as the executioner (Gene McElroy) arrived, placed a noose around their lovely bodies and tenderly pulled them to earth, thus ending their long, useful career. Their remains were laid to rest in a watery grave on the school house property.

A large crowd of Walton citizens and school children gathered to pay their last respects and expressed their displeasure for such actions, knowing that few, if any of the new residents of Alta Vista Drive will be here thirty years hence to view such trees on this once beautiful street.

The beauty of these trees, gently swaying with the breeze, will always be cherished and remembered by those living on Alta Vista Drive.

THIS truck still pays all its own way!

YES... THIS IS A TRUCK, TOO—but there's a difference. This truck rolls on its own "highway"... pays all its costs of doing business, right down the line. This is a truck for a railroad car! And despite the many changes that have taken place in this nation's dynamic railroad industry in recent years, one fact remains fixed and unchanged. America's self-supporting railroads still have to compete for business with tax-subsidized intercity carriers that, by their own admission, have long since outgrown the infant-industry stage.

This unequal competitive situation hurts all carriers—and our country, too. It can be corrected in the next Congress by legislation that recognizes no favorites and grants no favors. All we ask is simple fair play for all—in the traditional American way.

Correction

In last week's paper it was mentioned that Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peddicard, Shaw Road, were parents of a baby girl. The baby is a boy and the Peddicards are mighty proud of HIM.

Post Office Pens

Those jokes about scratchy Post Office pens are likely to become a out-of-date as the dodo. Reason: The Post Office Department is putting new ball-point pens in 75 more offices as an experiment. It may, in time, install them, chained to desks in all its buildings.

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

B. C. and A. D.

Lesson for October 2, 1955

A MAKE-BELIEVE story can be just as entertaining as a true one, and those who tell the tale of Little Red Riding Hood are more interesting than some of the items in this week's paper. Furthermore, a make-believe story can sometimes get a truth across to people just as well as a true story does. For example, if on Little Red Riding Hood we may learn not to trust strangers — they may turn out to be wolves in Grandmother's clothing. Many a fable and fairy-tale has fixed in children's minds many a useful truth. Nevertheless, the make-believe story sometimes only conveys falsehood. If I told you that my grandfather was the Most Wanted Man by the police of six states, that he came to his death in a gun battle with the sheriff in which he shot three deputies before they finally got him, it would be a much more interesting tale than the true one, of a simple law-abiding Christian dying in his bed of a very ordinary disease. But it would give a totally wrong impression. It would be a lie for which there would be no excuse.

Dr. Foreman

Jesus and Amida
Now, believe it or not, there are today and there have often been in the past, those who claim that it makes no difference whether the Christian gospels are fact or fairy-tale, no difference whether Jesus was a historical character like Caesar or a made-up one like Cinderella. The Christian church has always resisted such a notion as this. For the gospel story aims to tell us something about God, something true about him; and if the gospel story is not true, then what it says about man and God is not true either. Compare — Buddhist story — Amida. The story of Amida is very much like the story of Christ; it is the tale of a god, or at least a god-like superior being, who came to live among men a life of service and sacrifice. Songs are sung about him. — "Amida loves me, this I know, for the (Buddhist) Scriptures tell me so." Temples are erected to him. But when you inquire, Where and where did this Amida Buddha live? you discover that no one claims he ever lived anywhere. He is a great big official fairy-tale. A temple to him is like a temple to Cinderella's fairy god-mother. Amida was brave, self-sacrificing, loving, godlike — only, he never existed!

World B. C.

For centuries, historians have counted time before and after Christ. All dates are either B. C. — Before Christ, or A. D. — Anno Domini. "In the Year of our Lord." B. C. does not mean Before Christ, or Before Culture or Before Columbus but Before Christ. What makes the world B. C. different from the world A. D. is Christ. The world B. C. was a world in which the "best" people supposed that without slavery you could not have civilization; a world in which a man could be required legally to have only one wife at a time, but in which it would have been thought ridiculous to expect him to be faithful to that one wife; a world in which unwanted babies (and tragically numerous they were) were simply left out of doors to die, unless men in the slavery business cared to pick them up to be sold later; a world in which social responsibility as we know it was unknown, a world in which men who held government posts were expected to get rich out of them. If you want to see what the world B. C. was like, read Romans 1. Paul had been there. He knew.

World A. D.

Who knew, that first Christmas night, that the birth of that baby to those poor people from Nazareth was the turning point of the history of the world? God knew it; and men have found it out. The world A. D. is so different from the world B. C. that even a stupid man, if he found himself carried back by a time-machine to B. C., would pray to get back to A. D., to a world where life is sacred, where children are welcomed and cared for, where Christian homes are found, where service is a common ideal, a world where there are millions of true Christians. Such real changes in the real world were not made by a make-believe Jesus, only by a real one.

"IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME"

For almost two thousand years the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper has been celebrated by Christians everywhere. Though variously interpreted by the churches, though administered with different ritual, it has always remained our unifying bond — the Communion of the Church with her Lord.

On World Wide Communion Sunday Christian congregations all over the globe will assemble to celebrate this Communion. Each will follow its own accustomed usage, exercising the right of religious freedom that the free peoples of the world treasure so highly. And as millions receive the Sacrament they will be conscious of the joyous faith that unites them with one another and with Christ.

This is a century of crisis in which those who treasure their spiritual heritage must stand together... must face with courage the alarming growth and ruthless power of an atheism dedicated to the overthrow of both freedom and religion.

Join your fellow Christians at The Lord's Table!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor for good in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without it, among Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The storm Wednesday night caused considerable damage. A barn loaded with hay and tobacco, on the farm of Tom Messingchager, of Steep Creek Road, was struck by lightning and was a complete loss. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Armstrong of Ryland Heights, was also hit by lightning and was damaged some. A tree on the Jesse Klein

Jim Ross, our former bus driver on the Newsome Line, took a 4-pound bass from "Bide-A-Wee" lake Saturday. Jim can catch 'em where the rest fail.

The writer has a lot of fine carrots and mangos that he would like for his friends to have, but they will have to get them this coming week. Also green tomatoes for chop pickles are plentiful.

An important point about stock car racing that may not have occurred to you:

The safer car wins ... and Chevrolet is the big winner

Auto races aren't won by brute horsepower. Roadability, acceleration, precision steering, and stamina—the very qualities that make a car safer for you—are the keys to victory on the track! And that's why Chevrolet is top car, by far, on the rugged NASCAR (National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing) Short Track circuit.

Faster acceleration

Chevrolet's cannonball acceleration is a vital safety factor on the highway—one that can whisk you more safely around other cars and out of critical situations.

Easier steering

You feel the feather-light precision of Ball-Race steering in heavy traffic and in every curve. There's extra safety, too, in Glide-Ride front suspension that softens the harsh-est bumps.

More stability on curves

There's more comfort and less body-roll with broad-based Outrigger rear springs; extra security if you have to swerve to meet an emergency.

Quicker, smoother stops

"Heads-up" stops and extra stopping power in traffic, on mountain grades, on high-speed expressways with Chevrolet's big 11-inch brakes.

Come in and try out this new winner yourself... and see how easy we're making it to buy a Chevrolet right now!

JELLED MAGIC

About a month ago, Mr. Bolce of the Bolce Paint Co., started talking to me about Jelled Magic wall paint, the newest discovery in paint today—it is thick in the can, like jelly, you can turn the can upside-down and it will not run out—no danger in spilling. It is all mixed, you do not have to stir, just stick your brush in the can, do not wipe it off, just paint and so dripping or running. It covers 600 square feet per gallon and under. Most all cases one coat does the job. It sells for $5.59 per gallon, $1.75 per quart. Try some—if not satisfied just tell CONRAD and I will make it right. I have been selling paint for years, but this tops them all and it comes in 20 beautiful colors. Brush it or roll it on, but do not stir when you stir it liquifies it just like other paint. Try Jelled Magic on your wall and tell everyone it came from CONRAD HARDWARE, your Bolce paint dealer, the top quality paint dealer with the reputation that Bolce is Best!

Marvin Darrington said he wanted the best high glass white enamel, so when I handed him the gallon that Bolce said was the best, he never said a word, because he had used Bolce paint before. Mrs. Engle, on Church Street Road, was my first customer on Jelled Magic—she took a quart home to try and called for us to bring more, so I must have did the job. Herman Simmon, Jr. by Ezra Dixon, the old Post Office building, owned by Ezra Dixon, and now occupied by the dry cleaners. He used ranch red and white for one coat—it made a fine job. Ira Harris and others are painting the Model Food Store, which will sure be an improvement.

Warren Utz from Union, came after a Dayton jet water pump—he saw Brewster and Red install the one for Mr. Carver last week and how nice it run, so he had him have one also. Laurel Kenny said he was worn out baling hay, so he just put the baler away for the season—there has been a large hay crop. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kennedy from Verona, bought a 12x12 Armstrong rug and 12 sq. yds. of vinyl tile. Mr. and Mrs. customer, Mrs. Eva Hall, who has not been in for some time, came today and she wants us to put up a large fuel oil tank. She has a new Perfection oil heater we put in last year—it cost her $7.00 per month to heat last season. She has had a lot of stoves in her time, but she says the Perfection is perfect—that's where it got its name.

Carl Smith wrote me a letter about repairing the heating stove in the bank at Mt. Zion. I called him and got the numbers off the name plate, then I wrote the factory to see if I could get the parts. We will repair it if we can get the repairs—they are hard to get now.

Charles Northcutt came in with a busted pitman rod on his mower—I fixed him. Leonard Caldwell had a door closer that needed fixing, so Chick took care of him. The Plumb Tool Co. put out a new nail hammer with a plumb-line handle that will not break—try one! Ward Duncan, who is building the tore building for J. C. Benton, came up and bought a lot of tools. Brewster went to Charlie Rector's to see about their Maytag washer—he thought it was burned out, but he could not find any trouble.

Elbert Moore painted 15 sq. yds. of linoleum, a beautiful green floral pattern. Omer Kite came after more Bolce outside white paint—he is painting all the buildings and fences. When you drive down and see Omer's place, with everything in place and clean, all painted up, fence rows clean; then you look at other farms and wonder what they do with their money the way the farms look—Omer's home, barns, buildings, farm and fences are all up in good condition and he makes the money on the farm to spend on the farm.

A good rain last night and everyone was in a good humor—the weather makes a lot of difference in people. Mr. and Mrs. Les Barlow came in early, bought two cool stoves and a lot of linoleum. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Jackson, who bought the Bussemyer sisters place on the Verona end of Stephenson Mill Road, came over and bought a large size Perfection oil heater installed with a 135-gallon fuel oil tank, also bought a 52-gallon table top electric water heater, installed—we will do that tomorrow. Mrs. Alfred Hume came in and she told Mrs. Jackson what a fine oil heater Perfection was, as she has one like it and well satisfied with it.

Lois Elliott from Piner, traded me a Coleman oil heater for a Perfection with the pilot burner and thermostat control. We had lots of lookers today for heaters but the weather is still too warm. Just wait until it cools off a bit. I have so many that want a good heater cheap and they are not to be found. Carl Smith, cashier of Mt. Zion Deposit Bank, bought the largest cool heater I had, for the bank. Mr. Ferguson and family, also from Mt. Zion, bought a large Perfection oil heater.

Mrs. Ted Heile bought some Jelled Magic paint for her ceilings. We are selling this paint very well, to be our first week. I have some 275-gallon fuel oil tanks. I also have a used 1,000-gallon fuel oil tank with two small holes in it, which can be welded—we'll sell cheap, $35. They sure are keeping Brewster busy cleaning oil heaters, putting up Junco pipe—all the jobs no one else will do—they call CONRAD and we try to do the best we can.

JELLED MAGIC

About a month ago, Mr. Bolce of the Bolce Paint Co., started talking to me about Jelled Magic wall paint, the newest discovery in paint today—it is thick in the can, like jelly, you can turn the can upside-down and it will not run out—no danger in spilling. It is all mixed, you do not have to stir, just stick your brush in the can, do not wipe it off, just paint and so dripping or running. It covers 600 square feet per gallon and under most all cases one coat does the job. It sells for $5.59 per gallon, $1.75 per quart. Try some—if not satisfied just tell CONRAD and I will make it right. I have been selling paint for years, but this tops them all and it comes in 20 beautiful colors. Brush it or roll it on, but do not stir when you stir it liquifies it just like other paint. Try Jelled Magic on your wall and tell everyone it came from CONRAD HARDWARE, your Bolce paint dealer, the top quality paint dealer with the reputation that Bolce is Best!

Marvin Darlington said he wanted the best high gloss white enamel, so when I handed him the gallon that Bolce said was the best, he never said a word, because he had used Bolce paint before. Mrs. Engle on Church Street Road was my first customer on Jelled Magic—she took a quart home to try and called for us to bring more, so it must have done the job. Herman Simon, Jr., just finished painting the old Post Office building, owned by Ezra Dixon, and now occupied by the dry cleaners. He used ranch red and white for one coat—it made a good contrast. Had the same color on the inside of the food store, which will sure be an improvement.

Warren Utz from Union, came after a Dayton jet water pump—he saw Brewster and Red install the one for Mr. Carver last week and how nice it run, so he had one installed. Laura Kenny said he was tired of oiling his pump, so he just put the boiler away for the season—there has been a large hay crop. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kennedy from Verona, bought a 12x12 Armstrong rug and 12 sq. yds. of linoleum. My good friends and customer, Mrs. Eva Hall, who has not been in for a long time, came today and she wants us to put up a large fuel oil tank. She has a new Perfection oil heater we put in last year—it cost her $9.00 per month to heat last season. She has had a lot of stoves in her time, but she says the Perfection is perfect—that's where it got its name.

Smith wrote me a letter about repairing the heating stove in the bank at Mt. Zion called him and got the numbers off the name plate, then I wrote the factory to see if I could get the parts. We will repair it if we can get the repairs—they are hard to get now.

Scouts to Participate; Mortgage to Be Burned

October 9-15 is Fire Prevention Week. This is the time for all persons to inspect their homes and business places for possible fire hazards.

The Walton Fire Department is presenting a program in its training field located on High School Court, Tuesday evening, October 11, at 8:00 p. m. This is a fire demonstration to acquaint the public with the equipment and practices of the fire department. You will see a bottled gas cylinder ignited, controlled, and extinguished. Men will work off a 35-foot ladder with fire hose and equipment. See a man walk through flames; see a gasoline fire 10-foot in diameter extinguished with a small hand extinguisher.

When you see the confidence the firemen have in their equipment and the methods used, perhaps it will help to expel the helpless feeling you might have if you ever fire.

To Burn Mortgage

There is to be a fire the fire department will be proud to set and let burn to ashes. It will be the burning of the mortgage on the $12,500 Macke truck. The department is able to cancel the debt one year earlier than planned because of the wonderful response to the picnics.

Scouts Participating, Too

Fire Prevention Week, October 9-15, will be a busy-time for the local Boy Scout Troop, sponsored by the Walton Fire Department. Along with 3,000,000 boys and girls coast-to-coast, the Scouts will stage a Junior Fire Marshal campaign—public service program sponsored nationally by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company and locally by the Gaines & Conner Agency. As Junior Fire Marshals, the youngsters will, with the guidance of inspection reports, check in their own homes for possible fire hazards. Completed reports, attested to by parents, qualify the children for gold Junior Fire Marshal badges. An outstanding record of reports returned by youngsters to their Scoutmasters resulted in an attractive Achievement Award to the Troop.

Great Revival Is In Progress at Baptist Church In Florence

The Florence Baptist Church enjoyed one of its greatest days in the history of its organization last Sunday, with 466 in attendance. The church is filled to capacity for the morning worship. Four decisions were made for Christ. The evening service was likewise a great hour of spiritual rejoicing in which 12 more walked the aisle for Christ, according to the pastor, Rev. R. A. Johnson.

The church is in the midst of a great spiritual revival, which will continue through Sunday, October 9. Dr. George Phillips is the evangelist and James Binkley is in charge of the music. Plans are being made and next Sunday (October 9) it is hoped the 500-mark will be reached in Bible School, with great services planned for the entire day.

This is a special invitation for all to attend and enjoy these great spiritual hours. There will be services Saturday night. All evening services begin at 7:45.

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Jesus Is Real

Lesson for October 8, 1955

IT IS hard to say what is the most important doctrine of the Christian religion. Probably you would get more votes for the doctrine we call the Incarnation than for any other; because so many other doctrines hinge on this one. If you do not believe in the Incarnation you haven't much left of the Atonement, and (if you really face it) you have lost what is most valuable in your doctrine of God. Be that as it may, if you asked for a vote among people who have given this some serious thought, as to what is the most distinctive Christian doctrine, you Dr. Foreman would have a practically unanimous answer: The Incarnation. This is expressed in various ways both in the Bible and in Christian theology. About the simplest way of putting it in Bible language is that "God was in Christ" (II Corinthians 5:19). The simplest way of putting it in theological language may be that Christ was both human and divine.

Jesus Was a Real Person

It is sometimes said that Jesus was a real person, that is to say that he really was, and didn't just seem to be, a child and a boy and a grown man. Yet the church has often had to call a halt to men and movements that explained away the real humanity of Jesus till there was really nothing left of it. The great church council held at Chalcedon (the Evocation of that era) in 451 A. D. found it necessary to say in their own way of course—that Christ is as much divine as God is divine, and as much human as you and I are human. For some strange reason, however, the reality of Jesus as a human person is forgotten or denied by men. Again and again we have to be brought up with a start by the gospel story, the story of a real man. Like all real men, Jesus grew from a real boy. The modern interest in childhood and the realization that "the child is father of the man."

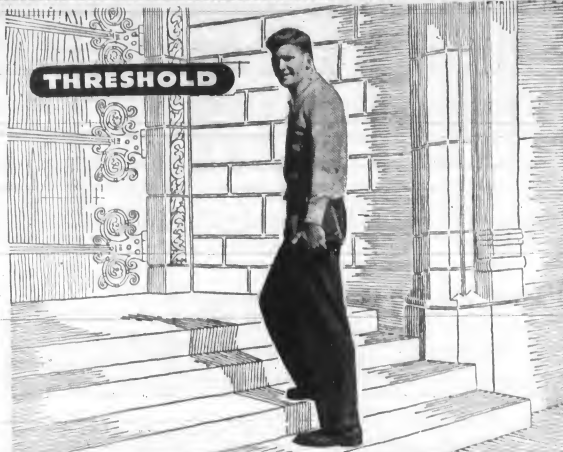

The Child Grew

Legends, tales without foundation, have made the boy Jesus into a smaller-sized adult. According to some of these legends, when Jesus went to school, the very first day, he not only knew the alphabet already but he delivered a philosophical discourse that astonished the teacher. Luke does not give us any such picture of an already-grown mind in a tiny body. He gives us a glimpse of a first child really growing. At first he grew without trying, of course, as every one does. What he ate and drank made him taller and stronger. He learned the Aramaic language, spoken in his village and in his family, just as children learn their mother-tongue everywhere in the world, just by hearing it and trying to speak it, till it becomes as natural as breathing. His mind grew by what was put into it, because it was a really human mind. Dolls are all the same no matter what goes on around them; human beings on the contrary grow or shrink, depending on their surroundings. It is not too much to say that (for instance) Jesus' mother Mary had been a different kind of person, he would have been different too. To think otherwise is to fancy Jesus a kind of doll.

The Boy Moved Forward

As has been often noted, Luke uses a different word for Jesus after his twelfth year. Before that, he "grew,"—the same word we use for flowers and buildings, elsewhere in the Bible. After that, he "increased,"—and the word always implies will, effort. Up to a certain age a child can't help growing; he doesn't even give it a thought. But after a certain age, not the same in every one, he has to put his mind on it; and he can choose the direction in which he will grow. Jesus could choose his friends; he could do what he would with his spare time. He grew by his work in the carpenter shop, we may be certain; but what about the hours when he was not working? When Jesus was fully grown, we know how familiar he was with the Scriptures. We know how well he understood people. Could he have achieved any of this without trying, without growing?

THRESHOLD

What is education but a broadening of man's knowledge, enabling him to live a better life? Education is like a doorway leading to the fulfillment of dreams and ambitions. Beyond it lies the vast chamber of the mind, and scientists know that in a lifetime most men develop only a small part of their mental potentialities.

In our search for education today, one type is sometimes slighted . . . religious education. Yet in all the fields of learning what could be more important? Man needs Faith and a knowledge of his Church if he is to reconcile so much that is happening in the world of today with the kind of future he would like to have. In your reading and studies, don't forget religion. There is nothing stuffy about the study of it, nothing dull. It is as significant as yesterday . . . as full of promise as all tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a workshop of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Surplus Products:

No official announcement has been made, but we hear that some farm experts here in Washington are talking about another plan to take some farm land out of production—land producing surplus crops like tobacco.

Under one of the plans, Uncle Sam would lease the land from farmers at about $10 an acre. The farmer, in turn, would take his acreage out of production and plant soil building crops instead. That, at least, is the rough idea but no definite program has been mapped.

Colored Milk:

We have another farm story, of interest to Kentuckians who are producing more and more dairy products. Some scientists, interested in increasing milk consumption, have been trying to plant a flavor and color milk. Thus far they have developed about a dozen flavors and colors, including such old standbys as cherry, strawberry, grape, raspberry, and coffee. They are now tinkering with the idea of orange and lemon flavors, anything to increase the sale of milk and reduce the huge dairy surplus.

Education Notes:

Educators are preparing for that White House Conference on Education in late November. Kentucky will send 14 delegates to the capital to talk about school problems. And, incidentally, those Kentucky educators who need qualified teachers are not alone in their quandary. The District of Columbia, which pays high salaries, needs 50 teachers. Our state produces a goodly number of instructors but at least 50 per cent of them leave for jobs in other, better-paying states.

The Stamp Window:

Reply to Navy veteran in Gallatin county. President Eisenhower's plan to build an atomic-powered merchant ship will come up again at the next session of Congress.

To DAR member in Brocken county. The stage of Constitution Hall, home of the DAR, has been extended eight feet. It's part of an extensive remodeling program.

Answer to Mason county farmer: Farm experts say turkey will bring higher prices next holidays. Production is down.

Reply to Campbell county trucker: River people are organizing to fight the Hoover proposal to charge barge lines for use of Ohio River locks and dams.

Bureau Recommends

Curing Practices

The morning Weather Bureau forecasts over Lexington radio stations now include tobacco-curing practices for the next 36 hours as recommended by the University of Kentucky Experiment Station.

These practices are determined by the tobacco experts after they have received reports on relative humidity, wind direction and velocity and other weather conditions.

The broadcast recommendations apply only to a region about 25 miles around Lexington; since the Weather Bureau has no satisfactory means of getting reports on humidity and other weather conditions in enough detail from areas farther out.

Homemakers Landscape High School Grounds

As a result of a long-time project undertaken by homemakers clubs of Harrison county five years ago, grounds of the Harrison County High School are now attractively landscaped. Working with the County Board of Education and Prof. N. R. Elliott, horticulturist at the University of Kentucky, the homemakers reduced their treasury by about $1,000 in carrying out the programs.

Plantings made include 30 trees and 40 shrubs in a triangle, and 52 shrubs across the front and to one side of the grounds. Trimming the shrubs and trees each year has been carefully done by homemaker-landscape chairman with the assistance of Miss Elizabeth Donnell, home demonstration agent.

ODDITIES

When you walk in CONRAD HARDWARE you see more odd items than in most stores today. A lady stopped today and asked if that was a stone churn—and just across the aisle was a cast iron bean pot. I just unloaded several 20 and 25 gallon cast iron kettles, and I put them close to the horse shoes. I also have several saddles, whips, horse collars and harness. We sell lots of cabinets, karasene lamps, lamp chimneys, lanterns and lantern chimneys, in different sizes; also have kraut cutters, and zinc fruit jar lids.

Today, I saw some buck saws and hay knives hanging in the side room—I have a lot of different items that are slowly going out, and when I sell out, that is all for me. The world is and has been changing fast for several years. Not many years ago every farmer had a team of horses, even if he did have a tractor—now you can find very few—they have made soap out of most of them. Mrs. Sam Murphy came in for 2 gallons of latex base wall paint for Miss Mary Collins. Joe Richardson came after cup leathers for his sheep drenching syringe—he said his wife read in the paper about us having Jellied Magic paint, so he bought a gallon and a half to try it—if you try this paint, you will keep using it.

Ralph Sparks bought one of those large Martha Washington coal heaters—he will keep warm this winter. William Robinson and wife, who live on Needmore St., bought a large Warm Morning coal heater, also a 135-gallon fuel oil tank—they are going to burn oil and coal. Marvin Kite came after more aluminum roof paint—he is getting ready for winter. Oakley Easton bought several gallons of aluminum roof paint—it makes a real job. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Price bought a large coal heater. Since it has cooled off, everyone wants his coal heater cleaned—we will get them in a few days. Mrs. Nick Parr, from Kenton, was in buying a few small items. Some stranger drove in the driveway, came in and bought a gallon of Bolce oil white and a gallon of clover pink outside trim. Mr. and Mrs. Collins, over on Lipscomb Road, bought several items and they want Brewster to service their oil heater.

Mr. Roberts bought some aluminum roof paint—this aluminum roof paint has a gilsonite base and really does a nice job, and only $3.75 per gallon. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, over on Taylor Mill, bought a Perfection combination oil heater and cooker. Phil Kahler is buying a lot of blue paint for the inside of his dairy barn. James Elston bought a lot of furnace pipe to put on red furnace—every two or three years you should put up new pipe. Hubert Smith and wife, from Mt. Zion, were in to see if we could repair their oil stove. Mr. Howard, from Gordonsville, wants us to get her oil heater ready for winter. Bolce brought down another load of that good Bolce paint. We are selling a lot of that Jellied Magic inside wall paint. It is thick, like jelly, but it spreads to 600 square feet per gallon. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hightman, who live at the top of Visalia Hill, were in—they bought linoleum, a Perfection portable oil heater, and several odd items. Russell Baker was looking over my oil heaters—I believe we will have a trade. Don't be misled on heating stoves—a fellow was in today and said he just came from Covington and they wanted to sell him a Warm Morning coal heater—I know that looks like Warm Morning, and cheaper in looks and construction.

But there is no stove that is made inside like Warm Morning—the stove that burns the coal into coke and then burns the coke. Just like oil heaters, there are lots of oil heaters but none that can compare with Perfection, the greatest oil heater ever made, with a 10-year guarantee on the fire bowl, a pilot burner, and an automatic oil valve—the only heater with a clean-out in the bottom of the fire bowl, and also a cleanout rod in the fuel line—you get more for your money when you buy Perfection. Phil Kahler came after more paint—5 gallons of blue, 2 gallons of green, and 2 gallons of white.

Brewster and Red put up an oil heater for Helen Rich this morning, then they reset Mrs. Belle Fischer's 275-gal oil tank and painted it—they had to raise it 16" and it was about one-third full of oil, and it was some job, but we got into these every now and then. Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke, who bought the old school property, bought a lot of plastic water pipe to put from the water meter to the school building. We have been selling lots of Sto. Dr.—now is the time to water-proof your basement walls while they are dry.

Omer Kite and Marvin Kite were both in today. Mrs. Garrett Robinson called for 15 sq. yds. linoleum. Miss Lena Mills from Independence bought a Warm Morning coal heater. Mrs. Grace Martin, also from Independence, wanted to see the fellow that writes this article—he reads it every week. Today, Brewster and Red took a large Martha Washington coal heater to Ralph Sparks—this will heat that whole hilltop. Then they went on down to Bertha Jack's and set her up a very nice new Warm Morning coal heater, then out to William Robinson's on Verona Road and put him up a 135-gal fuel oil tank.

They brought in some good used coal and oil heaters for $25, $35 and $45—you can buy a good used oil or coal heater, but I can't blame you for wanting a new heater, so buy one from CONRAD. Remember, when you buy a heater from CONRAD it is sold completely installed—no extra charge for stove board, pipe, labor, etc.

Farwell Party Given:

A farwell party was given for Miss Madeline Selman, by the Girl Scouts, Troops 140 and 207, on the beautiful Cain lawn.

Miss Selman, who organized the first troop in Independence, 10 years ago, gave every free moment for her girls. She organized the first Girl Scout Troop in Newport, in 1917, and kept up Scouting all these years. She had a large troop in Miami, Fla. From there she went to instruct and teach Scouting in Texas. Later she moved to Dayton, Ohio, and had a large troop there for many years. It is a great loss to us Scouts and leader.

Through her efforts in these years, Independence now has its own Girl Scout Camp. Mr. and Mrs. John Cain, always interested in the Scouts, loaned them the ground for the camp.

Through the generosity of the people of Independence and surrounding community, buying cookies and helping with the oyster supper, the girls were able to build a cabin on the campsite. Miss Selman will always be remembered, especially the girls with whom she came in contact in Scouting.

Miss Selman is moving back to Florida to get her health back and probably start another Girl Scout Troop there. Our loss and their gain. All our good wishes and prayers go with you Madeline.—Reporter

ELECTRIC LIGHTS MEAN MORE EGGS

Electric lights in the chicken house can increase fall and winter egg production 20 to 30 percent, says Prof. W. M. Insko, head of the Poultry Section of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Since egg prices usually go up in this period, extra production means better profits for poultry keepers.

Prof. Insko offers the following suggestions for getting the most from your poultry-house lighting.

The lighting system should be used every day, beginning sometime between October 1 and 15 and continuing until sometime between April 1 and 15. If lights are used irregularly, the hens may moult and interrupt egg production.

Everylight should be supplemented by electric light to provide from 12 to 14 hours of light daily. Time of sunrise and sunset and the number of daylight hours vary from day to day, but newspapers usually publish this information and this can be used as a guide for providing the needed amount of electric light.

Electric light can be used to give extra hours of light before sunrise or after sunset, or somewhat dimmer lights—just enough for the hens to see their feed and water—may be burned all night. If evening lighting is used, the lights should be dimmed for a few minutes before they are turned off for the night so the hens can find their way to the perches. The morning lights need not be dimmed and should be turned on by a time clock.

At least 40-watt incandescent lamps for fluorescent lamps of equal light output should be used for morning or evening lighting. For all-night lighting, 15- to 25-watt lamps are sufficient. One lamp will provide enough light for each 200 square feet of floor space. Direct light should be distributed evenly over the feeding area, with some direct light on perches to bring the hens off the roost.

A 12-inch shallow-dome reflector, or a lamp with a built-in reflector, will provide better light distribution. Reflectors must be kept clean to be effective. Automatic switches for turning the lamps on or off at any set time, and dimming devices for evening lighting, are inexpensive and easy to install.

Oak Island Homemakers

The Oak Island Homemakers held their regular meeting September 12 at the Community House, with the president, Mrs. Arthur Steeley, presiding. Roll call and minutes of last meeting were given by Mrs. Russell Rector, with 10 members and one visitor present.

Reports of committees were heard and duties assigned: with Mrs. Rector and Mrs. Frank Jackson to attend the training school on "Foods." Mrs. Steeley gave a report on "Handicrafts," and a day was set for basket-making. "A motion was passed to send $4.50 to the county treasurer for food, used by the foods chairman and $2.00 to publicity chairman for stamps and stationery. An article on "Exterior Beauty" was given by Miss Nell Neihoff. After poems "Am I Always Kind" by Mrs. Donald Riddell and "Faith of Freedom, Our Hope" by Mrs. Sherman Barberick the meeting adjourned.

Members present were: Mesdames Arthur Steeley, Russell Rector, Frank Jackson, Sherman Barberick, Robert Wainwright, Walter Linville, Albert Martin, Donald Riddell, Cecil Northcutt, and Miss Nell Neihoff; also a visitor, Mrs. Dailey.

Piner Baptist WMS Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Piner Baptist Church met recently at the next meeting. Forty-two cards had been sent and 34 visits made to the sick. Four trays of fruit had been given.

Mrs. Hazel Spaulding was in charge of the program, with deaconal by Mrs. Frances Gross. The program, in Royal Service magazine, was given by Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Melba Cook and Mrs. Agnes McMillan. The meeting was dismissed with a prayer by Mrs. Mary Elliott.

Following the program, a winner roost was enjoyed by the following members at the grill on the church grounds: Mrs. Myrtle Bell, Mrs. Betty Sue Cook, Mrs. Agnes McMillan, Mrs. June Beighle, Mrs. Mary Oliver, Mrs. Lucy Beighle, Mrs. Agnes Caldwell, Mrs. Melba Cook, Mrs. Billy Lunstford, Mrs. Evelyn Lunstford, Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, Mrs. Mary Elliott, Mrs. Reatha Wilson, Mrs. Rosella Spaulding, Mrs. Christina Oliver, Mrs. Frances Gross, and several men and children.

Evans Arterburn, Monroe county, conducted an experiment in growing tobacco in the shade.

The only Black Shank in Bullitt county was found along Cox's Creek, where floods spread the disease.

A pasture fertilizer demonstration will be set up on the farm of Lawrence Bickert in Marion county.

Jesus Is Baptized

Lesson for October 16, 1955

THERE is one notable day the church does not celebrate. We have a day for the birth of Jesus, one for his presentation in the Temple, a whole season (Lent) to recall his temptations, a day for the crucifixion, the resurrection, the ascension. But for remembering his baptism, no day is set aside. So it is well that the Sunday schools should do so. What the church does not do; for the baptism of Jesus was one of the most important events in his life. The reason why the church does not care to celebrate this event, may be that Dr. Foreman the church does not know quite what it means. We know what other Christian festivals mean—Pentecost Sunday, Christmas, Good Friday and so on. But what does the baptism of Jesus mean?

Serily Not for His Sin

The heart of the difficulty is just this: Jesus was baptized by John, and John's baptism, we read over and over again, was a baptism of repentance. So we can put the dilemma this way: Was this baptizing of Jesus also a baptism of repentance, and if so, what could he have had to repent of? Or was it altogether different, and if so then what did it mean if it did not mean repentance? Since the Bible does not answer this question clearly, and since the church has no standard or "orthodox" explanation, perhaps the best thing this column can do is to run over a few answers to that question: Why was Jesus baptized? The reader is invited to think about these and take his choice. One answer, which has three forms, the church has thought about, but generally has not taken seriously. It is the theory that Jesus was baptized, like every one else there at the Jordan, in token of repentance for sin. One extreme form of this theory is that Jesus repented of his own sin. Only a person who thinks of Jesus as an ordinary man could believe that, and the church does not believe it. Another form of this idea is that Jesus repented of his sinful nature; the idea being that if it had a really human nature it must have been a sinful one even if he never sinned. (It is as one may have a weak constitution that never breaks down.) This again the church has overwhelmingly opposed.

"To Fulfill All Righteousness"

Jesus himself gave a reason for being baptized. The trouble is, he did not explain what he meant. He said he did it "to fulfill all righteousness." (Matthew 3:15). It is quite plain that he meant he would not be doing right if he were not baptized. But just what does "fulfilling all righteousness" mean? The explanation most widely accepted in the church is that being baptized was part of the Jewish law at the time, and that Jesus as a loyal Jew observed this as he observed other laws of his religion. There are two weak spots in this theory. One is that there is little or no evidence that baptizing or being baptized was a regular religious observance among the Jews, and the other is that Jesus did not feel obligated to keep strictly all the laws, otherwise he would hardly have had the attitude toward the Sabbath which we know he had.

Friend of Sinners

Still another explanation which is impressing a large number of Christians today, is that Christ, by insisting on being baptized over John's protests that he did not need it, in a dramatic way was taking the side of sinners. We think of Jesus taking our part and representing us on the Cross. But, it is asked, when did Jesus first identify himself with sinners? Not until his last Friday morning? On the contrary, the suggestion is that Christ there at the Jordan had the opportunity to take his place, publicly and for all to see, either with those who despised sinners and made it hard for them and were proud of themselves, or with those who by being baptized were honest enough to confess their sins and to express their deep desire to be rid of them. So Jesus identifies himself once and for all with the repentant—not that he himself needed to repent, but to show that the repentant are his people. First to last, he was the Friend of Sinners.

HARVEST

The fruits have been gathered from the fields. They lay about her, rich and ripe, in the autumn sun that is still warm. Never has the sky been so blue, never have the distant mountains been more enchanting with their play of purple shadows. Yet she concentrates on the work at hand, peeling an apple with still dextrous fingers as she rocks on into the long afternoon of life.

She is a simple person. Her life has not been easy. There have been moments of great happiness... and of great sadness; times of drought and times when the harvest came in a kind of golden glory from the bounty of the earth.

But through it all she has had a nourishment that has nothing to do with crops and weather, a kind of sustenance that has stood by her at all times and in all seasons... FAITH. Here is a complete Faith in God and in her Church, a Faith that has made her life happy and useful... a Faith that has furnished food for the soul.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. (4) For the sake of the world, which needs his spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By G. Kingsbury

Age In Senate:

There is much ado currently, what with the illness of President Eisenhower, over the election of elderly citizens to national office. And it's been pointed out that no less than 19 members of the United States Senate are older than this.

Among them, of course, is Kentucky's 78-year-old Senator Barkley, whose age has been an issue in Blue Grass politics. The oldest member of the Senate is Rhode Island's millionaire Senator Green, who is 88. In fact, he wasn't elected to the Upper House until he reached 69. Only other senator in the 80-or-over age is Matthew Neely, of West Virginia.

Famed Artists:

Newspaper cartoonists have seldom recognized as artists in the generally accepted sense of that abused word. But a former Kentuckian, the late Cliff Berryman, has reached the salons of the Corcoran Art Gallery here in the capital.

Six of his drawings which appeared in the Washington Star, have been accepted for placement. The works are the gift of the artist's daughter. Incidentally, most famous men of the last half century have been caught by the pen of the Star's famed staff member.

Numbers Game:

Ever wonder how many television sets Kentucky owns? Well, in the first seven months of this year alone, 60,000 sets were shipped to Kentucky dealers. The popular areas of the nation have received the most sets, with Nevada and Wyoming way out there in the open spaces, receiving only a few thousand each.

And about trucks? The Bureau of Public Roads estimated there are 212,000 registered in Kentucky. And the states just to the north, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, have more than a million rolling over the highways.

Post Office:

To Rowan County Reader: Thanks for reminding us that Morehead plays Georgetown U. in a basketball game on February 18. We'll mark it in the book.

Reply to Bracken County Reader: Earle Stevenson are the only Kentuckians we know of who have served as Congressman, Governor, and Senator. However, they may not be the only ones. We're going to look it up.

To Lawrence County Writer: We think President Eisenhower will not be a candidate.

Note to Gallatin Caution: Thirty organizations have banded together to fight tolls on Ohio River locks and dams.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received by the Department of Highways at its office, Frankfort, Kentucky, until 10:00 A. M., Central Standard Time, on the 28th day of October, 1955, at which time bids will be publicly opened and read for the improvement of:

BOONE COUNTY, BUILDING NO. 50 8-385-B. Erection of Metal Maintenance Building to be furnished by the Department of Highways on the Department's lot located on the O'Hara Road, approximately 0.15 mile from Ky. 237.

PREQUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS WILL BE WAIVED ON THIS PROJECT.

The attention of the prospective bidders is called to the prequalification requirements, necessary for securing certificate of eligibility, the special provisions covering subletting or assigning the contract and the Department's regulation which prohibits the issuance of proposals after 9:00 A. M., CENTRAL STANDARD TIME on the day of the opening of bids. Proposals will not be issued except during official business hours.

NOTE: A PURCHASE CHARGE OF $2.00 WILL BE MADE FOR EACH PROPOSAL. REMITTANCE MUST ACCOMPANY REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL FORMS. REFUNDS WILL NOT BE MADE FOR ANY REASON.

Further information, bidding proposals, et cetera, will be furnished upon application to the Frankfort Office. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Schmidt Says "Thanks"

Many persons in this area have been receiving "thank you" notes from William Schmidt for having sent cards or letters, and visits him in the Veterans Hospital, 3200 Vine St., Cincinnati. Billy really appreciated the many different ways people in and around Independence have helped in restoring his morbid feeling to that of a more cheerful outlook on life and its surroundings. A quick trip to a hospital, staying only a few days, is more of an experience than an ordeal, but to spend months in a ward is very uncomfortable and very undesirable. So keep your letters, cards and visits coming to Billy and help break the monotony that surrounds a patient in a hospital ward.

Lots of business at the farm, Saturday. Raymond Perry came and bought all of our pigs, as he knows when he is getting the best—there is a man who knows his pigs and wants nothing but the best, which he gets when he buys Bide-A-Vee Hampshires.

Bob Mathis of the Mathis-Brumback Aberdeen Angus stock farm, took the writer to the sale of Mrs. Rich near Independence. Things sold for record prices, cattle especially.

Ladies of the Goshen church, Piner, who served lunch at the Rich sale, were almost mobbed by the hungry crowd as they had the best roast beef sandwiches for 15 cents that would have cost you at least 35 cents at any other place. Coffee was 5 cents. I think they realized pie for 15 cents. I think they realized after it was all over, for we heard one of the ladies say, the next time it will be 20 cents for sandwiches and 10 cents for coffee, which is as it should be. It all goes for a good cause.

Bud Ryle and wife of Werk Road, Cincinnati, made a flying trip to the Whites Tower, Saturday night for a visit with his parents.

Who was it who said they wanted mangoes? Well, our late crop of red and green ones are just fine and will be ready by the 15th, next Saturday. Also possibly a few tomatoes and cucumbers.

George Falmer's friends who were legions were shocked by the death of this fine man and neighbor. A large crowd attended the funeral at Independence, last week.

Farm Facts FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

THE ROAD AHEAD LOOKS ROUGH—It is not the purpose of this column to harp continuously on the economic conditions of agriculture. We prefer to bring new facts and ideas, and to give reminders and suggestions to aid in operating the farm more profitably. But today's farm problems are mostly economic, brought about by the disparity in prices farmers pay in relation to those they receive.

The plight of agriculture was well described by J. A. Livingston, noted economist and editor of "Business Outlook," in an article appearing in the Courier-Journal on September 17. He told why farmers are worried. He noted that the index of industrial prices was over 115 in August while farm prices were under 90; that when General Motors produced a bumper crop of cars its profits rose to an all-time high. At the same time a bumper crop of hogs netted farmers a half billion dollars less than in 1954. Industrial wages and corporation profits are rising—so are farm mortgages and debts. As Livingston says, the farmer feels like a kid at a picnic who missed out on a second helping of ice cream.

Farmers do not deplore the high income of labor or industry; they do not want to pull the other segments of economy down; they realize that conditions on the farm would be even worse if the other 85 percent of the population were brought down to the level of agriculture, but they are tired of always being on the bottom of the pile.

Farmers now have two great fears—fear of crop failures with little to sell, and the fear of bountiful crops with prices too low to pay the cost of production.

These are just some of the problems. What are the answers? Some of them are, of course, national in scope and cannot be solved by individual farmers, but in the main each of us will have to work out our own solution. To some, it will mean giving up agriculture and moving to the city; to others, it will mean part-time work in industry; to others, still, it will mean expansion of the farm enterprise through the purchase or rental of more land and specialization in efficient production. One thing is sure—it's going to be tough for the fellow who has to farm poor land with a limited amount of capital. He had better look for other sources of income.

It's not just the small farmers who are feeling the squeeze today. Some of the best farm operators in the state are finding it difficult to make ends meet. Inefficiency does not necessarily mean lack of ability, often it is the lack of reserve capital.

WINS BEAUTY CONTEST

A 17-year-old Lane county girl, Martha Charles Beams, has been crowned "Miss Kentucky Rural Electric Co-op of 1955."

The pert blonde from near Hodgenville won out over 18 other contestants in competition at the Kentucky State Fair. These Rural Electric Co-op beauties were selected from some 160 contestants at beauty contests staged at 19 Co-op annual meetings and electric farm shows over the state this summer. Miss Beams represented the Nolin Rural Electric Co-op, which has headquarters at Elizabethtown.

Second place in the Beauty Contest, which was sponsored by Frigidaire and Smith Distributing Company of Louisville, went to the contestant from the Owen County Rural Electric Co-op, Miss Eva Lou Walton. Miss Walton, 18, of Burlington, was the contestant's tallest entrant at five feet 11 inches.

The third-place contestant, 17-year-old Nina Yates, from the western tip of Kentucky, represented the Hickman-Fulton Rural Electric Co-op of Hickman.

The new queen was crowned and kissed—these times to oblige photographers—by singer Julius LeRosa. An audience estimated at 10,000 viewed the beauty pageant in front of the grandstand.

Miss Beams, whose measurements of 36-24-36 are considered perfect, is 5'6" tall and weighs 120 pounds. She is a junior at Hodgenville High School.

Martha received compliments of Frigidaire and Smith Distributing, a gift certificate good for her choice from five $300 Frigidaire appliances. She also received a silver coffee service from the sponsors. The David Crystal Manufacturing Company presented her with a dress. Miss Walton and Miss Yates received wrist watches.

Martha also will receive an expense-paid trip to St. Louis, in February, where she will represent Kentucky's cooperatives in the national beauty contest which will be held during the convention of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

AIRLINE SERVICE TO BE EXPANDED IN KY.

Kentucky is to receive more airline service, both passenger and freight, within a few weeks, it was announced today by Commissioner of Aeronautics Charles H. Gattrell.

Geek-Airline has been authorized to operate a new route between Louisville and Paducah, with a stop at Owensboro, beginning October 21. Two round trips daily are planned.

Helicopter service is due to get under way for both passengers and freight in the Northern Kentucky area, Gattrell added, providing fast transportation from downtown Cincinnati to the Greater Cincinnati Airport in Northern Kentucky. Ohio Valley Airways will offer both passenger and freight service there, with service to get under way as soon as a new Bell 47-H helicopter is delivered.

Three new freight lines will soon start operating in Kentucky, including Slick Airways, Riddle Airlines and the American Air Export and Import Co. The freight lines are expected to start their service to Louisville and Cincinnati within the next few weeks.

This was so unnecessary as children can be protected by proper immunization.

The disease is most dangerous during infancy. Immunization should be started when the baby is two or three months of age. Three shots, each a month apart, are required. A booster should be given farm facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS

by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

THE ROAD AHEAD LOOKS ROUGH— It is not the purpose of this column to harp continuously on the economic conditions of agriculture. We prefer to bring new facts and ideas, and to give reminders and suggestions to aid in operating the farm more profitably. But today's farm problems are mostly economic, brought about by the disparity in prices farmers pay in relation to those they receive.

The plight of agriculture was well described by J. A. Livingston, noted economist and editor of "Business Outlook," in an article appearing in the Courier-Journal on September 17. He told why farmers are worried. He noted that the index of industrial prices was over 115 in August while farm prices were under 90, that when General Motors produced a bumper crop of cars its profits rose to an all-time high. At the same time a bumper crop of hogs netted farmers a half billion dollars less than in 1954. Industrial wages and corporation profits are rising—so are farm mortgages and debts. As Livingston says, the farmer feels like a kid at a picnic who missed out on a second helping of ice cream.

Farmers do not deplore the high income of labor or industry; they do not want to pull the other segments of economy down; they realize that conditions on the farm would be even worse if the other 85 percent of the population were brought down to the level of agriculture, but they are tired of always being on the bottom of the pile.

Farmers now have two great fears—

fear of crop failures with little to sell, and the fear of bountiful crops with prices too low to pay the cost of production.

These are just some of the problems. What are the answers? Some of them are, of course, national in scope and cannot be solved by individual farmers, but in the main each of us will have to work out our own solution. To some, it will mean giving up agriculture and moving to the city; to others, it will mean part-time work in industry; to others, still, it will mean expansion of the farm enterprise through the purchase or rental of more land and specialization in efficient production. One thing is sure—it's going to be tough for the fellow who has to farm poor land with a limited amount of capital. He had better look for other sources of income.

It's not just the small farmers who are feeling the squeeze today. Some of the best farm operators in the state are finding it difficult to make ends meet. Inefficiency does not necessarily mean lack of ability, often it is the lack of reserve capital.

WINS BEAUTY CONTEST

A 17-year-old Larue county girl, Martha Charles Beams, has been crowned "Miss Kentucky Rural Electric Co-op of 1955."

The pert blonde from near Hodgenville, won out over 18 other contestants in competition at the Kentucky State Fair. These Rural Electric Co-op beauties were selected from some 160 contestants at beauty contests staged at 19 co-op annual meetings and electric farm shows over the state this summer. Miss Beams represented the Nolin Rural Electric Co-op, which has headquarters at Elizabethtown.

Second place in the Beauty Contest, which was sponsored by Frigidare and Smith Distributing Company of Louisville, went to the contestant from the Owen County Rural Electric Co-op, Miss Eva Lou Walton. Miss Walton, 18, of Burlington, was the contestant's tallest entrant at five feet 11 inches.

The third-place contestant, 17-year-old Nina Yates, from the western tip of Kentucky, represented the Hickman-Fulton Rural Electric Co-op of Hickman. The new queen was crowned and kissed—three times to oblige photographers—by singer Julius LeRosa. An audience estimated at 10,000 viewed the beauty pageant in front of the grandstand.

Miss Beams, whose measurements of 36-24-36 are considered perfect, is 5'6" tall and weighs 120 pounds. She is a junior at Hodgenville High School.

Martha received compliments of Frigidare and Smith Distributing, a gift certificate good for her choice from five $300 Frigidare appliances. She also received a silver coffee service from the sponsors. The David Crystal Manufacturing Company presented her with a dress. Miss Walton and Miss Yates received wrist watches.

Martha also will receive an expense-paid trip to St. Louis, in February, where she will represent Kentucky's cooperatives in the national beauty contest which will be held during the convention of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

RAISIN' BURLEY

By Clyde "Jack" Greenwood

Work all year long raisin' burley. Gain't be bad late an' gettin' up early; Burnin' th' beds, plantin' th' seeds. An' frettin' 'bout keepin' down th' weeds. Lay on a sack, stretchin' out prone. Tell th' feelin's all gone in one hip bone; Then ye roll over on th' other side. Hit a canvas all an' rake off some hide; But ye pay no mind 'cause 'tis surplus fat. Ye just cuss a little an' let it go at that; Plants turn yellow, th' flea bug'er bad. Then blue mold sets in an' things look sad. So ye call th' county agent fe him 'I come and look. An' he buzzes in with an experiment book.

He takes a sample an' ye talk it o'er. Then he leaves a pamphlet an' says he'll send more.

Ye do what he says then th' plants begin t' grow.

Turnin' right green an' lookin' good fer sho'.

Set it in th' field an' watch it die; See th' wire-worms an' cut-worms ply; Then ye set it again an' maybe it'll stay. But if it don't 'tis too late anyway.

Git th' plow, tear up th' middle; Git a hoe an' 'piddle an' piddle.

Plow some more, then lay it by; Pinch out th' button when it gets so high. Pick off th' worms as big as snakes.

An' pray fer rain while it makes. Git out th' suckers, jerk 'em out, An' make way fer others t' sprout.

Grab up a spear an' put it on a stick. Use a tomahawk, accurate an' quick. Git it in th' barn 'fore th' frost.

So none of us quality will be lost. When it has cured, start strippin' fast. Thut th' market first 'stead of last.

Take it t' town, put it on th' floor. At yer favorite house where ye been before.

Helicopter service is due to get under way for both passengers and freight in the Northern Kentucky area, Gortrell added, providing fast transportation from downtown Cincinnati to the Greater Cincinnati Airport in Northern Kentucky. Ohio Valley Airways will offer both passenger and freight service there, with service to get under way as soon as a new Bell 47-H helicopter is delivered.

Three new freight lines will soon start operating in Kentucky, including Slick Airways, Riddle Airlines and the American Air Export and Import Co. The freight lines are expected to start their service to Louisville and Cincinnati within the next few weeks.

Stoves - Stoves - Stoves

For the past few weeks all we have heard was stoves and more stoves, which we really like to sell and service—sometimes a very dirty job, but not too many like that. We have most any type stove you could ask for. We have sheet iron and cast-iron wood heaters, we have large and small gas heaters, we have portable electric heaters, we have portable one- and two-burner kerosene heaters, we have all size fuel oil heaters, we have all size and types of coal heaters.

I have six electric ranges and they are marked down to sell cheap—now is the time to buy, I want to clean these up before Christmas as I need the space for toys. Bring the cash and you can buy an electric range here. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry bought the large size Perfection oil heater and a 275-gallon oil tank—this is a real heating system. Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Bridges were over from Finer and bought a few hardware items for their son, Wendell, who is just out of the Army after four years—we will install a Perfection oil heater for him Monday.

Brewster and Red took a new Perfection oil heater and a 275-gallon oil tank and put it in for Russell Baker and wife on U. S. 42. I was talking to Mrs. Herbert Baker and she was telling me about the fine service they had at church Sunday—they had a 17-year-old preacher and he was really good. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walton bought a new Perfection oil heater and a 125-gallon oil tank, to be installed tomorrow. We brought in an Anchor coal heater from Russell Baker's and two small coal heaters from Tom Watson's—I have a fine lot of used heaters in oil and coal.

Brewster cleaned Mrs. Lula Vest's oil heater at Crittenden, then went to Paxton Road, Kentucky county, to Mrs. Mills at Independence, where he serviced her oil heater, also went across the street to Mrs. Selman's and checked her oil heaters, then to Mrs. Rivard's and cleaned her oil heater, then up the highway to Fiskburg and put an oil filter on an oil heater. Every fall it takes two men about a month to service the oil heaters, put up stove and furnace pipe and get people's heating equipment ready for winter. If you have them cleaned and adjusted before winter you hardly ever have to bother them during the winter.

W. A. Salmons, down on Fairview Court, bought a Warm Morning coal heater. Groger brought in more Warm Morning heaters today. Mr. Stringer, over on Mud Lick, bought three rolls of 1x2 weld mesh wire to line his corn crib. Charles Calcord bought three rolls of picket fence for silos. I have plenty of silo kraft paper and it is cheaper than last year. This was a rainy day and we did all kinds of repair work—put in handles, put a handle on a hand saw, repaired two electric irons.

There have been more people come in and inquire about the Jelled Magic paint. It is the greatest improvement made in paint in several years. Try some, if it does not do the job you know where it came from and CONRAD has never backed up yet, and Backe Paint Co. is guaranteeing this to be the best of paint. Dawson Ballinger, from Kentucky county, a good customer of mine, was in and bought several items but I didn't see what Robert Griffin, also from Kentucky county, and a chicken raiser, bought Jamesway brooder repairs.

J. M. Griffin and wife from beyond Williamson, bought several parts for their kitchen sink and door locks. Mrs. Emma Meier and daughter bought a lot of linoleum and window shades. Brewster and Red took Mrs. Eva Dean at Richmond, a new Maytag washer. They stopped and serviced Mrs. Emma Walte's oil heater, then went to Mrs. Kate Code's and put up her oil heaters, then to Mabel Groger's to put up new furnace pipe and then to George Alexander's to put in his oil heater he had just bought here.

Since these last two days of rain, we have been selling lots of Water Stop and Sto-Dri for basement walls. During this rain you found where the leaks were and now is the time to doctor them. Today, we sold lots of screen glass to make storm windows and doors—this saves a lot of money. Malcolm Simpson saw what a wonderful job Dan Roberts did with Sto-Dri on the walls of his new insurance office in the Advertiser building—when it rained Thursday and Friday, the walls in the newspaper office were wet, but where Dan had put on two coats of Sto-Dri there was not a damp spot, so Malcolm bought 35 pounds to paint the basement walls in his new home.

Orlie Switzer and wife bought a cast iron top and bottom wood heater—they have a lot of wood to burn. Mrs. Emil Stein from Kentucky county was over today and bought stove pipe, pyrex and aluminum roaster—she was on her way to visit Mrs. William Miller, her sister down at Rosedale. Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Frisk from over on Paxton Road, bought two Warm Morning coal heaters. Mr. and Mrs. Boon Baker from Gallatin county, bought a nice Estate electric range. We sell stoves east, west, north and south, in Kentucky, Boone, Grant, Gallatin and Pendleton counties—so, if you need, new or used, come to CONRAD!

Court Sets Price Of Land For Reservoir

Case Heard Thursday And Friday At Indep.

The way was cleared Saturday for Walton to go ahead with plans to construct a new reservoir in Kenton county, and a new filtration plant. The new reservoir will offer larger storage facilities for the Waterworks Department.

Condemnation suits against property of four owners who filed exceptions to the appraisers' figures were heard Thursday and Friday in Kenton County Court at Independence. The following amounts for the land, to be used for the proposed lake, were fixed by the court:

Evans and Mary Lee Hance, 11.93 acres, $150 per acre, plus $100 per acre for damages; George J. and Florence Menke, 12.48 acres, $150 per acre, plus $25 per acre damages; Clifford C. and Virginia Dehner, 10.74 acres, $150 per acre, and $25 per acre damages; and William B. and Vera Williams, 4.63 acres, $150 per acre, and $25 per acre damages.

Two other suits were settled out of court for $125 per acre and $25 per acre damages.

In each instance the damage to remaining land held was taken into consideration, but was based on the amount of land taken.

'56 Chevrolet sets new Pikes Peak record in top-secret test!

Not long ago a hush-hush, camouflaged '56 Chevrolet scorched the nerve-breaking road up Colorado's Pikes Peak for a new NASCAR* certified record—the first time that old King of the Mountains has seen a new official stock car record in years! And what a road! 170 chilling turns and no guardrail! It's the first and only time a new model ever proved itself such a great road car before its introduction! The '56 Chevrolet showed the kind of performance that makes driving safer and more fun. So wait for the car that beat the King of the Mountains!

MARINE ENLISTMENTS

M. Sgt. Mike D. Mervash, Marine recruiter in the Northern Kentucky area has announced a change of policy in accepting applicants for three and four year enlistments. Previously, according to Sgt. Mervash, preference had been given to enlistees desiring an enlistment for four years, and due to the comparatively small quota for the area, most all enlistments for the past several months have been for four years. This has resulted in the loss of a number of applicants who have desired to enlist only for a period of three years.

The station's new policy will be on a first come, first served basis with no preference given to the longer term enlistments. Persons who have previously applied for a three year enlistment and are still interested, should contact Sgt. Mervash in the Covington City Bldg.

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH I. FOREMAN

How to Win

Lesson for October 23, 1955

NOBODY can be tempted to do what he can't do. Nobody can be tempted to do what he doesn't want to do. Of course somebody can say to you, "Do this," but if you can't or don't want to do it, the words are only words in your ear, they are no temptation, and you can't be said to have "resisted" what did not appeal to you at all. Furthermore, nearly always temptation means the pull of desire, not for something evil in itself but only a good out of place, or a lesser good in place of a possible greater. If a child takes the money he was going to put into Sunday school and spends it for candy on Saturday night, that does not mean that candy is bad in itself, or that eating it is a sin. But the child is tempted to a lesser good when a greater good was possible.

Questions About Temptation

The higher in the scale of life you go, the more this is true. Persons who live on a low level may easily be tempted to gross sins, because they don't have any strong desire for good, or to do good. Persons who live on a high level are tempted to do what is less good than with evil, for they habitually desire good. The temptation consists in seeing the lesser good so clearly that one forgets to look around and see the greater good. Now the temptations of Jesus were of this sort. There is no evidence that he ever felt an urge or even a slight inclination to do what was wrong in himself. There is evidence that he was tempted to do some good things that were not the best things. Take Luke's story of the temptations in the wilderness. One was to turn stones into bread—surely no sin? In a hungry world, to produce more bread would be a good thing. Another temptation was to get control of the kingdoms of the world. Was that not what he came to do? Or the third temptation again—to trust in the protecting care of God: who would call that a sin? Yet each of these, under the circumstances and conditions, was not the right thing for Jesus, because not the best thing; and so he knew all these for what they were—temptations of Satan. We can ask many questions about temptation: where it comes from, what kind of persons are tempted, how to recognize it, and so on. But the question most of us want to know is, How can I win?

How to Lose

There are two sure ways of losing the fight against temptation, whether in its lower or its higher forms. One is by sheer resistance, just saying No. If your temptation is liquor, for instance, it won't do you a particle of good to stand in front of a tavern door or to sit in a chair with a glass in your hand, just shutting your eyes and shaking your head and saying, "No, I won't." Because, before long, you will. Mere stubbornness will go a long way; but not even Jesus tried to meet temptation with a simple empty No. Another way to lose your fight is to debate the question. In the vivid story of the first temptation (see Genesis 3) the serpent just gets Eve's mind to thinking about how fine that fruit was.

The Sword of Spirit

Every Bible reader knows how Jesus won his victory over temptations: by using the "sword of the Spirit," the Word of God. But there is a right and a wrong way to use a sword. There are two ways of using the Bible as a defense against Satan. One of these ways works, the other does not. It will not do simply to quote the Bible. The Bible is not a sort of magic wand which you just wave in Satan's face will make him go away. Just repeating Bible verses is not enough. The only Scripture which is any good in temptation's struggles is Scripture which you have first "hid in your heart," that is to say committed to memory, and what is more important, Scripture which has become part of you. It is not quite enough to say, "God says..." Take the next step: "God says—and I believe it." You've got to make God's word your own, not just with the top of your mind but down to the bottom of your heart. So believed the Word becomes life invincible.

THE EVIDENCE OF THINGS NOT SEEN

How do you know the sun is shining when the world is steeped in shadow? How can you believe that day is at hand when night seems all around? The fringe of gold on the darkest clouds, the rays of light streaming over the distant horizon, the shimmering paths of silver across the shadowy waters... these are the evidence of what we cannot see... the promise of dawning day. Well did the Biblical writer describe faith as "the evidence of things not seen." For in man's darkest hour faith is his assurance that God is near... that God cares. Religious faith is no panacea to drive away dark clouds. The somber clouds as well as the blue skies belong to life. But faith is man's pathway of promise, beckoning across the dark waters to the bright horizon. We all need that pathway of promise. Adults need it to meet and overcome the many disturbances of life. Children need it to grow into courageous, moral men and women. The Church continually teaches faith in God. And regular worship deepens faith. Attend the church of your choice... attend it regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in work for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can thrive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the own sake. (2) For the children's sake. (3) For the sake of the community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Boone Homemakers Hold Annual Meeting At Hebron Church

One hundred forty-five homemakers attended the 20th annual meeting of the Boone County Homemakers, held recently at the Hebron Lutheran Church. Mrs. William Foster, county president, welcomed the group and introduced the theme, "Growing Through the Years."

In addition to presenting the annual county reports for 1954-55, the following county chairmen included some of the outstanding events during the past 20 years. They were: Mrs. Joe Hogan, citizenship; Mrs. Joe Monahick, membership; Mrs. Robert Paul, publicity; Mrs. James Webster, reading; Mrs. Eugene Fichtelmaster, recreation; Mrs. Roy Lutes, handicraft; Mrs. Stanley Aylor, music; Mrs. Earl Morehead, 4-H Club and spring hat shop; Mrs. Sterling Dickey, home furnishings; and Mrs. Leo Flynn, Farm and Home Week.

Miss Nancy Guilfoil, home demonstration agent, urged homemakers to "Keep on growing. In the home, in the community, and in the county."

Boone County agricultural agent, Joe Claon, and his assistant, Ed McCandless, encouraged further growth for the homemakers through more active participation in 4-H Club work.

Principal speaker for the day was Dr. J. W. Gladden, Professor of Sociology and Human Relations, University of Kentucky. He emphasized the need for parents to grow in maturity along with their children in order to achieve the best possible parent-child relationship throughout the years.

Among the special guests were: Mrs. Harry Braun, District Director, and Miss Lullie Logan, assistant state leader, who was accompanied by Miss Olivia Hughes and Miss Doreen Smith, exchange homemakers from Ireland, who were visiting in the county.

Special recognition was given Mr. and Mrs. Jake Cleek, for Mrs. Cleek's efforts in obtaining the first home demonstration agent in Boone county.

Mrs. Roy Lutes, who was the first home demonstration agent in this county, installed the following new county officers: Mrs. A. B. Smoot, president; Mrs. James Kottmyer, vice president; and Mrs. Chas. Hempling, secretary-treasurer.

Three musical selections, "Growing Through the Years," "I Love a Little Cottage," and "Roll Chariot, Roll," were featured by the Boone County Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Omer Dolwick.

On the reception committee were: Messrs. James Cleek, Jane Sleer, George Kottmyer, Alan Gaines, Leo Flynn, Clyde Arnold, Joe Hogan, Mabel Sayre, Earl Morehead, and A. L. Platzgraf. Mrs. Flynn was also program chairman.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Joe Donovan, mother of Mrs. Pete Mardis, is in Jewish Hospital, where several blood transfusions were necessary. Hope she has a quick recovery.

The weather this morning the 17th at 8:30 a. m., is very cold and rainy, almost a sleet with a temperature of 42 degrees, probably an aftermath of all those hurricanes up in the east.

Did you ever walk by a used car lot and start to wonder about the used cars you see with prices from $65 up? We just wonder who used those cars, their reason for selling, and if as the salesman says they are a one-man owner. If you happen to be lucky, you may get a car that someone drove only to town and church and you will find it in perfect condition as the owner took care of everything when needed—but how about the car that someone just got everything out of that was in it though it may not be as old as the one we previously described. Talk about a gamble, here is where you really take a chance.

Perfection Oil Heaters

Merchandising is what the small merchant is short on and the big companies are gradually crowding the small merchant out—all the time I am reading and watching how to make the best use of what I have to work with. We do not have enough space for display, but some of my customers say it don't matter, we know you have it, and all we have to do is ask, but I have so many customers every day that I do not know and they will not ask if they don't see what they want. Keeping merchandise orderly, clean and in sight are the three best ways to sell it, and of course having the correct price.

I have been trying very hard this fall to merchandise stoves and it has paid off—I have been selling and giving my customers more for their cash money than ever before, and I have tried to be very liberal on the trade-ins. Mrs. Mary Houston and Miss Corine Moore came up today and traded me an Anchor cabinet heater for the 100-lb. size radiant Warm Morning heater with the porcelain finish—it is a beauty and does it heat!

I wish I had kept account of the heating stoves we have sold this fall, but I did not. I did think this would be a large stove year and did not buy too many ahead, but I have plenty of heaters now and at the right price, all set up, complete with pipe and stove board. Mr. and Mrs. Foster have been customers of mine for years, and they came after stove pipe and for me to order stove repairs for their Round Oak coal range I sold them years ago. The best merchandising is to have the merchandise and if it is not satisfactory give that customer another one.

Brewster and Red took two Warm Morning coal heaters over to Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Fisk. Mrs. Mary Johnson bought a coal heater for her home. Brewster took Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hudson a Perfection gas heater and installed it for them. They took Mrs. Willie Evans a Coleman oil heater and a large tank—she lives down by Mudlick bridge. M. L. Hutcherson bought Bolck outside white paint. T. O. Ballard bought some aluminum paint for his roof and gutters.

I ordered more of that Jelled Magic paint—we have sold lots of it in the past two weeks. Dr. Crume, down at the Crane Nursery, Florence, called for 6 more kegs of nails—they use lots of nails every year. The Rouse brothers, from Crittenden are regular customers of mine. Mrs. Albert Robbins bought linoleum—she is here most every Tuesday while Albert goes to the stock sales. Red and Brewster put up Mrs. Mary Johnson's coal heater, also moved her oil heater, then put new pipe on the big stove at the Model Food Store.

Then they took a 2-burner oil Perfection cook stove out to Mrs. Cara Bethel. Stopped and checked Mrs.

ena Sanders' coal heater—she told me she had a Perfection oil cook stove for years and it had never blackened a pan yet. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hammond, down on High School Court, traded me an Anchor hot blast coal heater for a coal circulating heater with a jacket on it. Mrs. Baxter, down at Richmond, came after furnace pipe—she waited while Brewster put the draft damper on the pipe.

Hiram Beach from beyond Lawrenceburg, Ind., came after a sled—he lives on a hill farm and is a carpenter also—he said I had the only sleds that he could find. Herman Caldwell bought a gallon of Jelled Magic paint to try—he will be back for more. Hayes Stephenson stopped for two quarts of gray porch enamel and some wiring material. Brewster cleaned Floyd Shields' oil heater and Mrs. Viola Roberts' oil heater, then he went to White Tower to service Mrs. Emma Hoffman's oil heater.

Oakley Easton came after two gallons of ranch red house paint and it sure is red. Gruyer brought in a shipment of window shades, a shipment of paint from Chicago, a shipment of aluminum paint from Cleveland, and a shipment of hardware from Cincinnati. Stewart's truck brought twelve Perfection oil heaters—we were about out. We have sold more heaters this year than we have for a long time. We have the heaters and we are selling them cheaper than most places, also when you buy a stove from CONRAD you can get a repair part for it.

I have written six letters trying to get a repair part for a coal heater bought from a mail order house and no news yet. Mrs. Maddix from beyond Verona said she wanted an elbow that fit on the back of a coal range she bought here about four years ago. I went to the warehouse and brought it in—could you do that anywhere else? Delbert Messmer came in with his tire pump—we tried to repair it but failed, and had to sell him a new one. Robert Morgan came after 70' of entrance cable to install electric range—he does a nice job.

Finley Jacobs, Jr. bought a lot of plastic pipe and fittings to install a water pump, also 10' of electric range. This was Saturday, Oct. 18, and we were busy—we sold 18 heating stoves, not to mention everything else we have to sell. I never saw anything like it since the war days, when everyone was grabbing I sold three stoves in 30 minutes. Mrs. William Arnold bought a large Warm Morning coal heater, and William Vest, on High Street, bought a large oil heater.

J. W. Poole at Verona, bought a large coal and wood heater. R. S. Bagby, on Green Road, bought a small oil heater for their kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell bought a coal and wood heater and took it with them—the Ross Scotts bought the last Martha Washington heater I had. Come to CONRAD for your hardware and service.

Needy Children to Be Cared For by the State

October 24 marked the beginning of a dental hygiene program in all schools of Boone county. The work consists of an inspection of every child's teeth through six grades. Each child is then given a card to tell the parents the condition of the teeth. If dental correction is recommended, the card is to be taken to the family dentist along with the youngster.

Miss Charlotte Stephens, dental hygienist from the State Department of Health, is doing the inspecting and making talks on care of teeth at each elementary school.

Indigent children in need of dental work (their economic status is determined by the teacher) are then taken care of by the dentist Dr. A. Politis from the State Department of Health in the mobile dental unit. The actual repairs and extractions are for indigent elementary children only, but the educational program benefits all.

The project is sponsored by the Board of Education and the Boone County Health Department.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By G. Kingsbury

Story of A Hero:

A few days ago they buried Major Sam Woodfill, Kentuckian, in Arlington Cemetery, just above the slowly flowing Potomac. Much has been written about the man described by General Pershing as the Number One Hero of World War I. But not much has been said about the exploit that earned him the coveted Congressional Medal of Honor.

Lived Among Us:

The major lived for many years in Fort Thomas. He owned a farm in Pendleton county. And there, in the soil of Kentucky, his wife rests in peace. Many cities along the Ohio River knew him for he was called upon time and again for personal appearances, help in recruiting drives, in bond-raising campaigns.

The Advance:

For a short distance his combat team accompanied him. But, when the going got rough, he forged ahead himself against German machine guns. With the space of a few hours, he wiped out 17 of the enemy, picking them off one by one, racing from one mudhole to another, crawling through thistle patches, dodging shell holes filled with mustard gas.

The climax came when, his gun jammed, he killed the final adversary with a pick-attack he had found in his miraculous advance.

Modest Man:

Sam Woodfill was a modest man and a story in the War Department files is typical. It was a few days after the war had ended. He received orders to report to Allied Headquarters. Not once did he tell his companions what those orders meant. He was to receive the highest award within the gift of the nation, the Medal of Honor.

Civilian life did not treat the Kentuckian with kindness. Debts beset him; failures dogged him. But when World War II erupted in fury, he returned to duty, wearing the gold leaf of a major. Today, he rests among honored dead, not far from his Commander-in-Chief, Black Jack Pershing.

Nutrition for People Over 50 Is Studied In College Survey

If you're a man over 50, chances are you need more foods rich in vitamin C than your wife. Probably both of you need more protein and iron and less fat than most people get in their daily fare, says Nancy Guilfoil, Home Demonstration Agent.

These are some of the conclusions indicated by a University of California study of nutrition in which a survey was made of 577 men and women over 50 in one county. Cooperating were the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the U. S. Public Health Service and State and County Health Departments.

The men in the study had less vitamin C in their blood than the women, even though they ate more heartily of foods generally and thus had a higher vitamin C intake. Lack of vitamin C in the diet often is the cause of tender, bleeding gums and subsequent loss of teeth. Such troubles were found among a number of the older people in this study whose blood tested lowest in vitamin C.

A surprise finding in this study concerns cholesterol, the fatty, waxy substance associated with hardening of the arteries and coronary thrombosis, for example. Tests of blood samples showed that women, aged 60 to 80, had more cholesterol than men of the same age.

"This contradicts medical lore," says Dr. Agnes Fay Morgan who directed the study. "Doctors formerly took it for granted that women had a lower cholesterol level than men, simply because women of that age have fewer strokes and coronary failures."

Cholesterol is taken from foods by the body, and the body also manufactures it from other substances, chiefly fat. When excessive deposits of cholesterol occur in veins, hardening of the arteries and thrombosis may result.

The California researchers found a direct connection between the amount of fat these older people ate and the amount of cholesterol in their blood. Men who ate extremely underweight had low blood cholesterol and those overweight had high cholesterol. But this did not hold true with women. Apparently, women can endure more cholesterol in their blood without harm than men.

A practical application of these findings for older people would be to eat plenty of fruits, cottage cheese, vegetables, skim milk, lean meats and lean fish. Important for vitamin C are oranges and grapefruit, strawberries, tomatoes, salad greens, broccoli and raw cabbage, for example.

Still another significant finding in this study is that the red color in the blood (hemoglobin) varies directly with the amount of iron and protein in food. The more you eat, the more you have. Women generally had lower hemoglobin levels than men of the same age and circumstances. After the age of 75, however, men and women did not differ greatly in hemoglobin. People over this age may need more protein and iron for the red blood required for good health. No evidence of vitamin-A deficiency was found among these people. Though skin roughness and eye troubles appeared these difficulties were not related either to the amount of vitamin A in the diet or to its level in the blood. This refutes the widespread idea that such troubles necessarily are caused by a shortage of vitamin A, the study indicates.

What's a 3-letter word for $31,855?

RELAX, MISTER! You won't find it in the dictionary. But in our book the answer is "JOB"—for that's the kind of money it takes to create a job opportunity on the Southern Railway today.

This $31,855 is our invested capital per employee—the money that has been put into the equipment, land, facilities and other "tools of the trade," without which there could be no jobs.

Because of the nature of the railroad business, this investment per worker is far higher than in most other industries. But it is money well spent. For our invested capital not only creates employment for many thousands of men and women, it also makes possible a modern, ever-improving transportation service that is constantly adding value to the investment all of us have in the Southland and its future.

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Self-Portrait

Lesson for October 30, 1955

THERE are people who don't care how they look to other people; they have no particular long-range plans or pattern of life, they live (as they might say) by ear. We call such persons extroverts; they never stop, so to speak, long enough to look into a mirror. There is an opposite kind of person who is passionately interested in himself. He is forever looking into a mirror, as it were. He makes the most careful and detailed plans and is quite upset when a detail goes wrong. We call such persons introverts. In between these types is a more balanced sort of person. If one could "type" Jesus of Nazareth, he would be the balanced sort, by all means. He was self-conscious enough to know and care what he was doing, but not in the least self-centered.

Action Portrait

Jesus once had the opportunity, which to some young people is a rather frightening thrill, of speaking to a crowded audience in his own home town. He knew what was in nearly everybody's mind: "Give an account of yourself. Who do you think you are and what do you think you are doing?" To them he was just a home-town boy; but they had heard of strange things he had said and done, and they wanted to hear him talk. So he had the opportunity on a Sabbath Day of speaking in the synagogue. As he read the Scripture for the day, from Isaiah 61, Jesus stopped in the middle of a sentence, and sitting down (as teachers did in those days) he said, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled..." In other words, as Americans would put it, This is it. This is my plan of life. This prophecy, hundreds of years old, describes what I am and what I am doing. In short, Jesus took this prophecy to himself, as a self-portrait. It is more like a motion picture than a still picture; it expresses what he was, in terms of what he did.

For Others

That, by the way, is typical of the Bible way of describing people. Adjectives like "good," "merciful," "truthful," always have verbs behind them. Adjectives describe actions. A man does not have one kind of character and another kind of action. His actions are his character—not his external actions alone, but together with the motives and intentions which are a true part of every act. Now Jesus describes himself and his plan for life not only in terms of action, but of action in relation to other persons. John Wesley says somewhere that when Christianity ceases to be social it is not any longer Christian. The idea that any one can become a higher type of Christian by retiring permanently from the world, devoted exclusively to prayer and contemplation, doing nothing but "doing" people? For him, the meaning of life is in contact with other persons. But note the sort of person Jesus mentions: the poor, the captives, the blind, the bruised... the very people so many of us avoid. Most people jump at the chance to get their pictures taken with famous people. Jesus' self-portrait was a picture of him with obscure people, people in trouble. What would happen in a community if every church member became more interested in doing something for people than in "doing" people?

For All Others

What really enraged those churchgoers of Nazareth was not that Jesus was dedicated to helping others. That was fine, they were all in favor of it. The thing that roused them to murder-heat was that he drew no lines. He was for helping one and all, even Gentiles. What Jews of that day thought of Gentiles is expressed in a passage from a popular book written about the same time as the New Testament. "For our sakes you (God) made this first-born world. But as for the rest of the nations which are sprung from Adam, you have said they are nothing and are like a speckle." (II Esdras 6:56) So when Jesus made it clear that he (like Elijah and Elisha before him) would draw no race or national lines, that he intended to carry God's love to the last and least of men, these race-proud Nazarenes threatened to lynch him.

WHAT SHALL I BE?

"What shall I be when I grow up? What is life all about? Is there a God?"

Johnny is seeking. He wants to mold the future. He wants to know what to make of his life.

In later years, if Johnny hasn't found the answers, he will stop asking. He will be too concerned with the present to look to the future. He will be busy supporting a family, getting a new car, meeting unexpected sickness, trying to keep up with the Joneses.

So Johnny will start drifting. He will be carried away by the problems and anxieties of the grown-up world. He will be swept along in the stream of life without aims or purposes.

Help your Johnny to find the answers to his seeking. Take your child to Sunday School and Church this Sunday. Help him find the truth and certainty and faith to shape a great life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a atmosphere of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake (2) For the sake of his community and nation (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. From 10 to 11 church regularly and read your Bible daily.

MORE MILK USED IN KENTUCKY SCHOOLS

A survey of the national school lunch program shows that the average consumption of milk in Kentucky schools is the highest in 13 north-central states, reports John B. Roberts, an economist at the University of Kentucky. Under the school milk program, milk consumption increased 69 percent in schools in the past year.

The study concluded that milk consumption in schools can be increased by:
1) serving more of the complete lunches with milk, 2) serving more milk at noon where children do not get complete lunches, 3) serving milk at times other than noon, 4) removing limits on quantity per child, and 5) by devising ways of getting milk to small schools.

Kentucky dairy industry, as well as the children receiving additional milk, will benefit from the programs analyzed.

HALLOWEEN

The older we get, the less we think of this word Halloween. The children have some fun, but not like we did years ago—but no one has the fun we had in the 1920's. I was in town the other day and brought out some false faces, horns and rattlers or noise makers. These faces will help some. Howard Blackburn and Harold Worthington, with their wives, were here Saturday night checking on heating stoves. Roy Kenny and Agnes were getting a few items. Mrs. Opal Simpson bought a very nice Perfection electric range.

After a rainy day Monday and the way people are buying stoves, we were getting behind setting them up and servicing a few oil heaters. Today, Brewster and Red started with setting up a Coleman oil heater for Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson in the D. K. Johnson apartment, then a new Warm Morning cabinet heater to Mr. and Mrs. William Arnold on Verona Road; then a large cabinet coal heater to William Gibson at the old Hind farm; then a large Martha Washington coal heater to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Scott, and an all-porcelain Brown magazine feed coal heater to Mr. and Mrs. Lon Wilson. Then they installed a Day and Nite coal heater for Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stephenson on Martin Road in Kenton county. While they were doing all this, Chick and I were on the move. He sold Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stephenson in East Bend bottoms a large Warm Morning coal heater, and I sold W. A. Salmons a Warm Morning coal heater and a 12x12 Armstrong linoleum rug. I cut up that rope and threaded it. I cut some angle iron for Stan Eichholz, and Chick and I put up three orders of hardware besides all the small items we sold.

My old friend and painter, Gilley Smith, came along this morning—I asked him if he would put in a few shingles in the slate roof on mother's house. Gilley is always willing, so he, Red and I took a long ladder and repaired the roof. A slate roof is OK until it gets old, then it keeps you busy, so I have a job next summer for a new roof. I had asked five or six to help repair that roof, but they never got ready. Brewster and Red set up a Coleman oil heater in John Sleat's milk house, also put a small Coleman heater in Robert Bogby's kitchen.

We cut a lot of glass for Emmett Ward for storm windows. Chick put in some glass for Kurt Richter, also one for Doris Pennington. Brewster and Red took a large size Perfection oil heater and a 135-gallon tank over to White Tower for the Pentecostal Church of God—they are building a new church and want to use the heater to merit this winter. Then they went to Mrs. Sophia Ruckhardt's and put up a Coleman oil heater. Ross Chapman was over today—they really like the new bath-room they just had put in and I furnished the material.

fixtures, electric water heater, Dayton water pump and Muro's sink—the best of everything. I haven't seen it but they say it is really nice.

Mr. Perry, who owns Perry's cabins here in north Walton, bought more Belknap white paint—they have used a lot of it this year. Bruce Cox bought a large 4-foot fluorescent light to strip his tobacco by. We have lots of these 14.95 tubes, cold and chams, all put together, ready to hang. We also have the 2-foot size for 95¢, complete. We also have the daylight bulbs in 100, 150 and 200 watts.

Today it was warm and the finest of fall days—most all the farmers were working and not too many came to town. Several of the ladies came and some bought that Sta-Dri paint basement walls. We sold several orders of Sta-Dri to paint basement walls. I have had better luck and more satisfied customers on Sta-Dri than on most anything I have sold lately. Frankie Penick is building a house over on the farm—he bought 100 pounds of Sta-Dri and five pounds of the water stop for cracks—he is going to paint his basement walls inside and outside.

Red and Brewster took Sam Hudson's Perfection oil heater out of his basement, cleaned it out, put it upstairs in the apartment where Nick Welsh moved out, then put up a 275-gallon oil tank and connected the oil pump to lift the oil to the second floor out of the 275-gallon tank. Then they went to Gordonsville to Rev. and Mrs. Howard's to set up their oil heater. They also put up ne wafurane pipe for Otis Readnour and Mrs. J. R. Fragan. We do most all kinds of jobs that others won't do. Then they delivered a Warm Morning heater to Mr. and Mrs. Ryle Prather over by Concord church.

We sold more Jelled Magic paint today. Leon Hall painted a room with it and not too many came to town. He said it was just wonderful to use and it spreads so well. I ran out of Sta-Dri but sent in after more today—now is the time to waterproof your basements. I just received my first shipment of electric team radiator electric room heaters—they are made like a radiator for a steam furnace with electric heat element—just plug them in and set the thermostat—for 2 cents an hour you can heat a good-sized room.

Every day we sell linoleum and window shades, also curtain rods. Today we sold mouse traps, rat traps and poison. Mrs. Newton, my neighbor, at the Waltonian Hotel has been remodeling a little, new linoleum, new shades, new medicine cabinet and several small items. If it's anything in the line of what we can fix you up, I have most all kinds and sizes of heaters and two good men to install them. Come in and tell us your heating problems—I believe we can solve them. If it's for the home or farm, come to CONRAD!

STATE, TOWN COUNCIL ELECTIONS TUESDAY

Police Judge Must Also Be Named

The City of Walton Council election is waxing hot just before the final day—Tuesday, November 8—with rumors and issues flying around rather fast.

For the first time in about ten years, the voters of Walton will have a choice of men to serve on the City Council. There are two separate tickets running for council, and one independent ticket on which Police Judge James S. Webster seeks election.

The Progressive Ticket, which includes one member from the "old" Council, Leon B. Hall, along with four new men—Cliff Chance, William Locke, Louis Schwab, and Robert Stephenson.

The Citizens Ticket includes a full slate of six members: Travis Dunn, Cliff Forwell, Randall Martin, G. H. Moore, Kyle Nicholson, and Hess Vest.

A complete sample ballot will appear on page six of this issue. The Council is composed of six members and no matter what ticket the men are on, the top six men will serve as Councilmen, therefore, from all indications, the ballots will be scratched by about everyone.

(Editor's Note—There are many issues that are rumored and I advise that if you are interested in any of these issues, contact these men and get a definite statement from them before you pick your six men.)

Wilmington Retires Bldg. Debt

Sunday, October 30 was a happy day for members and friends of the Wilmington Baptist Church, Falkburg, as this was the day all indebtedness was paid off on a building program which exceeded $40,000.

On Sunday, November 6, at the morning service, Bro. H. W. O'Doherty, elder member of the Board of Deacons, will set fire to the note.

Bro. Tom Gattson, student at Georgetown College, has been called to serve as pastor of this church. He will move to the area next spring along with his wife and daughter.

The Gladys Hopewell B. W. C. of the Walton Baptist W. M. S., will meet on Tuesday, November 8, at the home of Mrs. Jane Johnson. All members are urged to attend and visitors are welcome. The meeting is at 8 o'clock.

Foods Training School Held In Covington For Kenton Homemakers

Leaders from 25 communities attended the second of the foods training schools scheduled for the Kent County Homemakers' Association, Wednesday, October 26, at Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia.

"Planning Dinner Menus" was the subject presented by Miss Florence Imloy, nutrition specialist from the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky. She stressed the fact that dinner was the most interesting meal of the day and that the menu should be planned with care, that every dish should have a definite purpose in the meal, either physiologically or artistically, and should be checked carefully to insure that essential food ingredients lacking in the other meals are included in it. Demonstrations were given on "Meat Cookery," "Meat Cakes," and "Salads."

Leaders attending were: Mesdames Henry Eric, E. L. Mahoney, William Wolsing, William Endres, William Metz, Robert Schaffel, Arnold Metz, Martha Engles, Ray Mollman, Melvin Cramer, LeRoy Gray, George Mason, Jr., William Sidelbottom, William Jeffery, Clarence Sexton, Raymond Bevins, Wm. Burlington Bank To Observe Its Fiftieth Anniversary, Sat.

The Peoples Deposit Bank, Burlington, is holding "Open House" Saturday afternoon, November 5, from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m., in celebration of its 50th anniversary. This bank opened its doors for business on November 6, 1905, with B. W. Adams, who was County Court Clerk at that time, as its first president, and A. B. Renaker, Cashier. Mr. Renaker was a Grant county man and had worked in the old Dry Ridge Deposit Bank six months without pay just for experience in banking.

The original capital stock of the bank was $20,000. This capital was increased to $50,000 in 1919.

There was another bank in Burlington—the Boone County Deposit Bank, which was organized in 1886. In 1927, the Peoples Deposit Bank purchased the Boone County Deposit Bank and merged the assets of that institution with the Peoples Deposit Bank. The Boone County Bank had recently erected a modern two-story bank building at that time and Peoples Bank moved from its location to the new building, which is the present home of the Peoples Deposit Bank.

The capital structure of this bank, as of October 11 is: Capital, $50,000; surplus, $250,000; and undivided profits of $140,316.44. Resources are over the $3,000,000 mark.

John Wesley Film To Be Shown at Local Methodist Church

The new motion picture, "John Wesley," is coming to Walton. It will be shown in the Walton Methodist Church at 7:00 p. m., Sunday, November 20. This feature length film is in the new Eastman color and was produced by the Radio and Film Commission of the Methodist Church in cooperation with Arthur Rank.

It brings to the screen for the first time the dynamic and colorful 18th century evangelist and educator.

Leonard Sachs as John Wesley

Leonard Sachs plays the title role of John Wesley, the English clergyman who thought his venture in America as a missionary to the Indians in the Georgia Colony was a failure, but it was the kind of failure which opened the door to the discovery of a religious certainty he had been seeking.

Furthermore, this discovery, in which John Wesley felt his "heart strangely warmed," led him to face mobs unafraid and to ride 250,000 miles on horseback, changing the masses of English people from a low state of moral degradation to a state of moral enlightenment.

This film is being released only to Methodist churches during the Initial Period. The public is invited to see the picture in the Walton Methodist Church.

Bozoor to Be Held at Union

A bazaar will be held on Saturday, November 5, beginning at 2:00 p. m., at the Union Presbyterian Church. This affair is given annually by the women of the church. Barbecue, potato chips, pie and hot coffee will be served for lunch.

Chili Supper, November 19

A chili supper will be given at Kenton Elementary School cafeteria, sponsored by the Kenton Elementary P. T. A., on Thursday, November 10, with service from 5:00 to 7:00 p. m. Tickets are 50 cents. You are invited.

Two Constitutional Amendments Listed

The people of the Commonwealth of Kentucky will travel to the polls next Tuesday and elect all state officials, starting with Governor and doing all the way down. The year's election seems to have created quite a bit of interest due to the bitter fight in the Democratic primary, in which A. B. "Happy" Chandler defeated Bert Combs for the nomination.

The Republican party chose their candidate, Edwin R. Denney, by a landslide and without much opposition, and their hope is that the Democrats will divide.

The Entire Democratic Ticket
The Democratic ticket, headed by Mr. Chandler, will include: Harry Lee Waters for Lieutenant Governor; Thelma L. Stovall, Secretary of State; Jo M. Ferguson, Attorney General; Mary Louise Faust, Auditor of Public Accounts; Henry H. Carter, State Treasurer; Robert R. Martin, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Ben J. Butler, Commissioner of Agriculture; Charles K. O'Connell, Clerk of Court of Appeals; Frank L. McCortly, Railroad Commissioner, and T. Herbert Tinsley, State Representative.

The Republican Ticket

Vest-Montoure Wedding Solemnized Here, October 22

On the evening of October 22, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hinkston, Walton, Miss Peggy Vest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Vest, Walton, became the wife of Mr. Henry Montoure, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Montoure, Sr., of Shawano, Wis. Rev. R. F. DeKosky performed the double ring, candle-light service.

The bride wore princess fashioned white brocade with matching head band, and attached was a tiny veil of veil. Her bouquet consisted of a white orchid nestled in a circle of chrysanthemums. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Rose Marie Vest. She wore matching fall green brocade and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. Delbert Northcutt of the University of Kentucky, was Mr. Montoure's best man.

The bride's mother wore blue silk with navy accessories. Mr. Vest and the Montoures were unable to attend.

A reception followed in the Hinkston home, at which a three-tier cake and punch were served.
The couple are residing in Covington, at their new apartment.

Army School Regulations

Attendance at United States Army "long term" schools is now being limited to regular Army men only. A Department of the Army message, placing this restriction on school attendance, stated: "Effective immediately, selection of active Army personnel for attendance at Army school courses of 16 or more weeks duration will be authorized for regular Army personnel only. Non-regular Army men with special technical or professional skills, for which an Army counter-part exists, may be given 'short term' courses designated to fit them to any Army assignment within their civilian specialties. Present recruiting regulations allow the Army to enlist high school graduates for an Army school course of their own choice. These enlistees receive a letter of acceptance to the school before actually enlisting in the Army. This letter, from the Army's Adjutant General sets the date for reporting to the school and gives an enlistment date far enough in advance of the schooling to insure time for basic training. More than 100 courses are now being offered under this program and many are of the "long term" type.

farm facts

FOR KENTUCKY FOLKS
by Wm. C. Johnstone
AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE
KENTUCKY BANKERS ASSOCIATION

TOO GLOOMY! A few days ago one of my northern Kentucky friends and readers commented about the gloomy trend of my recent FARM FACTS. I, too, have noticed this tendency, which I do not like and have resolved that from now on I will try to include at least one item monthly on the brighter side of farming. Most of the ideas for the column come from farmers, bankers and agricultural workers so I hope to hear more on the cheery side from them in the future.

ROSES TO GEORGE. One of the real inspiring articles I have seen lately was in the October 24 issue of "Time Magazine." It was about the farming operations of Joe Moore, FFA's Star Farmer, the highest rank attainable by Future Farmer members. Not only was the story of the success of this Mid-Tennessee, hill-farm boy inspiring, but knowing the writer, T. George Harris, made it doubly so. George, too, is a farm boy, reared near Trenton, Ky. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Harris, have long been leaders in Farm Bureau and Extension activities in Todd County. George, now only 31, is head of Time's Chicago Bureau, and has made remarkable progress in the field of journalism.

PROFIT FROM HOGS. Last month I attended a meeting of the Kentucky Swine Council, an organization set up to encourage the profitable production of hogs. I was anxious to learn how Kentucky farmers could make money from hogs at current prices without ruining their hillside with corn growing. Two important new developments based on results at the Experiment Station, were discussed. First, was the practice of raising sows on pastures. It cost about $6 more to carry sows through the gestation period in dry lots than it does on rye pasture. Second, was the advisability of weaning pigs at an early age. Pigs weaned at three weeks of age cost about $1.75 less per 8-week-old pig than those left with the sows until that age. This early weaning permits the sows to produce almost three litters a year rather than the usual two. These developments, plus the breeding of meat type hogs and the demand for Kentucky feeder pigs should make hog raising even more profitable in the future than they have been in the past. This program will produce relatively little grain and will produce more profits than previous methods. With hog prices at their lowest in ten years it may seem foolish to advocate their continued production, but low prices are always followed by high prices and the man who gets his hog production on an efficient basis now will reap the benefits later.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsbury

Busy Bride-to-Be:

We take note of the activity of Miss Jane Hadley, the step-daughter of Senator Barkley. She's working a forty-hour week here in the capital, modeling for a prestige company. Miss Jane is engaged to Tom Truitt, grandson of the Senator. He's a freshman at George Washington University, following in the family footsteps to become an attorney.

Historical Note:

Mention of the former vice president brings up the problem of next year's presidential election.

Some one, with a flair for history, noted that Vice President Nixon may be the Republican candidate for the top job. And they made further note that Vice President Barkley failed three years ago for the honor.

In fact, the same historian writes, it has been 119 years since a vice president stepped into the presidential nomination. Back in 1836 Martin Van Buren won his promotion.

Surplus Tobacco:

The Department of Agriculture notes with some bitter tears that surplus stocks are increasing—and may continue to increase until next February.

On that list is tobacco. Uncle Sam has a tobacco pouch worth $438 million. Dairy products in storage total $350 million. The Government continues efforts to sell the surplus, but we are growing crops faster than we can ring up sales.

The Postman Rings:

Reply to Harrison Caution: Anybody's guess is a good guess on tax reductions next year. For example, Senator George, leading Georgia Democrat, says yes, and Senator Byrd of Virginia, says no. Answer to Montgomery County writer: Senator Barkley was first elected to office in 1905, county attorney.

To Gallatin County veteran: The majority of American airplane pilots are between 30 and 39. There's room for young men.

Memo to Greenup County writer: A ladies' organization, and not the federal government, operates Mt. Vernon. A million visitors toured the Washington home this past year.

Bob Wilson of the American Dairy Association discussed sales promotion at the annual meeting of the Nicholas County Artificial Breeding Association.

Board of Directors Meet

The Board of Directors of the Kenton County Farm Bureau will meet at the Court House in Independence, Thursday evening, November 3, at 8:00. The woman's committee is to meet at the same time in the firehouse in Independence. Following the business sessions of both groups, they will be combined for refreshments and entertainment, provided by the women.

Bradford Lodge, 123, F. & A. M.

Officers of Bradford Lodge, 123, F. and A. M. will present a raising Saturday, November 5, at the lodge hall in Independence. The meeting will be called to order at 3 p. m. and will recess at 6 p. m. All members of the order are cordially invited to attend.

Bradford O.E.S., 493

The next regularly stated meeting for members of Bradford Star Chapter, 493, will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 18, at 8 o'clock in the bank building. All members of the order are cordially invited to attend. Helen West, Worthy Matron, and Robert West, Worthy Patron, will preside.

Just A Thought

You know middle age is at least coming on when your get-up-and-go has got up and gone.

Community Youth Center

Members of the Independence Community Youth Center held their first Halloween party last Friday evening in Moon Bros. Post, 275, American Legion hall. The attendance was very good and everyone was having a grand time until the juke box blew a tube and placed it in temporary disorder. However, it was soon repaired and a record player was on hand in case it was needed.

The adult and the teen-age group members are planning in various ways to obtain material and necessary equipment for this youth center and each meeting and/or recreation evening is showing a smoother running and better operating program. The only thing lacking now are members in both groups. The adult, which will oversee each meeting, and the teen-agers, who are the necessary members. Persons in both of these groups are needed to keep advancing the membership roster, which will place the center in a self-supporting, well-organized association for hilarious fun and laughter for all.

So, if mom and pop, sis and junior, are interested in becoming members, attend the regular meeting next Friday evening, November 4, at 7:45 in the American Legion hall, located on the north edge of Independence. I know you will see the cornerstone being laid for an organization that is here to stay and one that will benefit you and me and the children who are close to becoming teen-agers.

Friend of Man

Lesson for November 6, 1955

PEOPLE describing themselves have a tendency to paint themselves handsomer than they really are. They do not like candid-camera shots of themselves. Even when a man has to admit that he has committed a sin or made a mistake, he will try to tell himself his motive was good, anyway. Now Jesus' self-portrait was extremely impressive; but nobody ever called him a hypocrite or a show-off. What Jesus had said of himself in the Nazareth synagogue was just the simple truth: Dr. Foreman he was indeed the same kind of Friend of Man that God is. He made humanity his business.

Healing Bodies

One fact stands out, and Luke makes a great deal of it. Jesus was a healer. He never assumed that sickness or physical disability "is bound to be." He thought people's bodies were important enough to be sound and well. He never thought of himself as so "spiritual" he could be indifferent to people's physical needs and pains. Wherever he went, he brought health with him. We do not fully understand how he did this, but the Christian church has taken the cue from Jesus here. The tremendous development of hospitals in America and over the world is not today all in the hands of Christians or religious people; but it was religious people who started this kind of thing. The church of today is beginning to see how much harm another kind of illness does, and to work at curing mental diseases. Compare a Christian country like ours with a non-Christian country like Korea where the total Christian population is less than six per cent. There a cripple has ordinarily been something to laugh at. No one would give him a job, no one bothered with him. All he could do was beg, as he crawled or sat in the dust. Now, Christian hospitals there have been doing a work the heathen world never thought of,—rehabilitating amputees, making it possible for them to be self-respecting persons again. Christianity is teaching Korea a lesson. Where once diseases of all sorts were taken as a matter of course, Christian doctors and hospitals have shown the way to national health.

Healing Souls

Some people think that if a man is healthy that is enough. If a man's body is all right, he is all right. Christians know better—because Christ has shown us. Jesus did not think he had done all he could for a man if he got him on his feet, literally. Long before modern medicine rediscovered the fact, Jesus knew that men's most serious diseases are in their souls. He was the Friend of Man,—but not friend of their bodies alone. Hospitals today are more and more making use of chaplains, of counselors,—and that is another Christian idea. In every mission hospital the medical missionary is an evangelist too.

What Friendship Means

To Jesus, friendship meant something deeper than what often goes by that name. How many people are "friends" only with the strong, the successful! How many people will be friendly only to those who can give them a lift up the ladder of ambition! This is the friendliness of a mosquito, who will stick close to you, but not with any notion of doing you good. Then again, a common idea of being friendly is to take other people without criticism, take them as they are! A word much in use with psychologists, psychiatrists and counselors nowadays is "acceptance." Now Jesus accepted all kinds of persons who were by everyone else rejected—lepers, tax collectors, the "lower classes," foreigners. But while Jesus opened his heart to these people, in the very act of acceptance he changed them. Some "friends" are like chameleons that take the color of whatever they lie on. Jesus never changed his own colors. He was the friend of sinners, indeed, but by being their friend he led them out of their sins. To be Christlike in friendship is to have a goodness that is contagious.

THE BUILDER

This young fellow is having fun building a skyscraper tower. Most any minute now he'll reach its peak, blocks will come tumbling down with a delightful clatter, and he'll laughingly pick them up and begin all over again.

That's the fun of being a child. But when you're grown-up and things come clattering down, it's not so funny.

Sometimes they're physical and material—a fence or a trellis that isn't quite right, or the paint you brushed on so carefully peels and flakes. So you go to an expert—a carpenter or a painter—for advice.

Then again perhaps something goes awry with your inner life. Perhaps you feel you've made an awful mess of things.

This tragedy too can be averted if you seek expert guidance. By going to Church regularly you will find the know-how to build within yourself a life secure and unshakable. Millions of men throughout the ages have found the Church a source of strength and stability; why shouldn't you?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in worth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a gemstone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church nation declines. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Simon Kenton High School News

Senior Hi-Y News

The Senior Hi-Y off to a flying start again this year. The able Mr. Republican of Owen county, Mr. Howard B. Noel, is the club sponsor. Mr. Noel has been associated with the Senior Hi-Y for a long time. He has always been called upon to accompany Simon Kenton's male delegates to the Kentucky Youth Assembly, but he has never been given the opportunity to be the club sponsor. Congratulations, Mr. Noel, we think that it is about time, don't you?

The Senior Hi-Y has a power-house group of officers: President, Bob Wainwright, who holds many offices. The most outstanding being Lieutenant Governor of the 1956 Kentucky Youth Assembly in Frankfort. Vice president, "Conky" Zepf, also holds numerous offices, the most outstanding being president of the senior class. Our other officers are also very active in many other clubs and activities. We think that the Senior Hi-Y has the "cream of the crop" in the way of officers. They are:

President, Bob Wainwright; vice president, Zepf; secretary, Mike Vaughn; treasurer, Gerald Silvers; reporter, Richard Marquette, and chaplains, Tom Houston and Raymond Zimmerman.

We of the Senior Hi-Y want to urge everyone to buy basketball programs again this year. Your money always goes to worthy causes, such as: Turkeys for the orphans at Thanksgiving and Christmas; food donations to needy families and orphans, etc.

We hope that you have noticed that the flag is again flying in front of the school, thanks to the Senior Hi-Y.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Junior class officers this year are as follows: President, Robert Wainwright; vice president, Garry Sipple; secretary, Carol Winburn; treasurer, Jo Ann Heideman; sergeant at arms, Fred Carlisle; reporters, Mary Gillespie and Bobby Exler; Miss Hiteam is sponsor.

Because of losses from summer rains and reductions in acreages, pruning was popular among tobacco growers in Franklin county.

ALPHA BETA GAMMA

The Alpha Beta Gamma is an honor club of mathematics. To become a member, you must have made A's for five straight semesters or A's and B's for nine semesters. When you have accomplished this standard you are invited to join this club. We now have twenty-seven members in our organization.

A meeting of the Alpha Beta Gamma was held September 17, 1955 in the auditorium. At this meeting we held election of officers, as follows:

President, Alfred Damon; first vice president, Joyce Cooper; second vice president, Bob Wainwright; secretary, Mildred Durr; treasurer, Bob Carlisle; reporter, Jo Ann Heideman. Installation of these officers will be within three weeks. Sponsor of our club is Miss Elma Taylor.

Future Farmer News

The Simon Kenton Future Farmers of America sent a delegate, Tom Stephenson, to the National Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

Tom met Mr. England, agriculture teacher at Owen County, and a fellow agriculture student at Owen County High School, and left Sunday morning, October 9, 1955. Mr. England and the two boys spent the first night in Boonesville, Mo., 100 miles from Kansas City.

They arrived in time Monday morning to register at the Municipal Auditorium. The first session was a public speaking contest. After the session they went on a tour to General Motors Parade of Progress and to the Hereford Association. At the second session they received an address from Eric Toff Benson, Secretary of Agriculture. Howard Staffin, Governor, gave a report at the third session, and the final session was recognizing the American Farmer Degree. There was also entertainment by Eddie Fisher and his wife, Debbie Reynolds. This was sponsored by the Firestone Corporation.

The fellow agriculture student from Owen County received his American Farmer Degree. At noon, October 13, they started back to Kentucky. Tommy arrived home Friday morning in time to come to school.

Talking About Those Pioneers . . .

Well, basketball fans, another season is closing in on us and our boys are twirling being whipped into top form by Simon Kenton's coaching staff. The coaches are the same as last year: Head coach, Mr. William "Bill" Faulkner, assistant coach, Mr. Joe Reed, and Junior High coach, Mr. Don Augustback.

Coch Faulkner has the following letter-terms back: Sherlie Elliott, Lloyd Bruckner, Bob Ruebel, Gerald Silvers, Ben Matteoli, Johnny Butler, and Mike Vaughn.

The boys should receive competent assistance from George Heeger, Eugene Gosney, Don Plageman, Harold Brautigan, Bob Exler, Bill Matteoli, and Garry Sipple.

We want all of you fans to get out and see the big, exciting N.K.A.C. preview at Newport Public, November 23. This is always interesting and exciting. You will get to see all the teams of the N.K.A.C. play in one night. You can match their good and bad points and MAYBE pick this year's champion. Dr. Lickenhouse said it, why can't you? So be there and try your luck. I guarantee an enjoyable evening.

Simon Kenton's opening game Nov. 11, is against Williamstown's Demons of the Pensacola Conference. We opened with this fine team last year. In that game, the Demons got off to a slow start but looked good once they got rolling.

Hymer, and Violet Lipscomb.

Williamstown lost all of their starting five but Ronnie Hole, but he is a very outstanding player. He averaged over 24 points a game last year. Our boys will have to hold him down, which I know they can do. One man can't win a ball game. Simon Kenton should win by over 16 points.

The schedule for 1955-56 follows:

Nov. 11—Williamstown	here
Nov. 15—Falmouth	here
Nov. 18—Grant County	away
Nov. 22—Morgan	here
Nov. 29—Newport Catholic	here
Dec. 2—Brooksville	here
Dec. 6—Walton	away
Dec. 9—Beechwood	away
Dec. 16—Campbell County	here
Dec. 20—Covington Catholic	away
Jan. 3—Beechwood	away
Jan. 6—Bellevue	here
Jan. 10—Walton	here
Jan. 13—Silver Grove	here
Jan. 17—Ludlow	here
Jan. 20—Highlands	here
Jan. 24—Boone County	away
Jan. 27—Newport Public	away
Jan. 31—Dixie Heights	away
Feb. 3—Holmes	away
Feb. 10—Ludlow	away
Feb. 14—Dayton	away
Feb. 17—Lloyd	away
Feb. 24—Dixie Heights	here

As you can see, there are three new opponents this year. They are Falmouth of the Pensacola; Covington Catholic and Boone County, Independents. All three of these teams should be worth watching. As you know, Simon Kenton lost to Boone County last year in the District Tournament. I hope our boys won't let that happen again.

Here is the background of our captain and co-captain. Captain Shirley Elliott is a senior who is 5'11" tall, weighing 151 pounds. He will play guard, as he did very ably last year. He doesn't play for glory for himself, but for Simon Kenton and the other players. He is the kind of fellow who doesn't mind passing off to the other guy. That is why his teammates elected him captain. He has also lettered in track.

Co-captain Bob Matteoli is a junior, weighing 151 pounds and standing at the height of 5'11". He will play forward, but is an able guard. Bob has also lettered in track and baseball. He knows how to fight hard to win. This is all of the dope on this year's Pioneers for now. I'll see you at the games. So-long for now.

BETA CLUB NEWS

The Beta Club held its first meeting September 21, 1955, under the sponsorship of Miss Palmer. The meeting was under the direction of new officers who are as follows: Wanda Barnes, president; Dixie Barberick, vice president; Jo Ann Barnett, secretary; Floyd B. Hymer, reporter, and Alfred Damon, treasurer.

The Beta Club is looking forward to fifteen new additions this year, who are all juniors.

The National Beta Club is having its annual convention in Lexington, Nov. 3 and 4. Most of the seniors are planning to attend.

The Beta Club is planning on sponsoring the Basketball Queen at the first ball game of the season. We are hoping and planning for one of its most successful years at Simon Kenton.

Womanless Wedding A Success

The Womanless Wedding presented by the Band Booster Club of Simon Kenton High School, October 25, in the school gymnasium, was a howling success. From beginning to end people present were surprised but happy to see so many local men go through their parts, clad in gay colors and false representations. Many of these men were so natural and their get-up so perfect it was hard to believe that a man was behind the makeup.

Some of the men, such as Joe Reed, in his strapping satin gown; Eddie Miller, with his long eyelashes; John Laubisch and Dr. Nelson Boyd in their black gowns complete with hats and high heels; Richard McKinley with his long blond twirling curls and a heart that was heavy with grief; Don Seebree and R. C. Richardson, both portraying women caps, all did a mighty fine job. The two Kentucky Colonels, Mike Wagner and Frank Boone, with their girl friends, Danny Wilcoxson and Tom Finney, were two typical hoity-toity couples. Ruth Lyons (All B'Hymer) caused quite a commotion when she took her seat and crossed her legs. A dainty parlor maid, Mike Vaughn informed her of the cause for laughter and snickering and a correction was quickly made. Miss Lyons and a neighbor lady of the bride (Charles Dorsey) were visiting around the many persons attending the ceremony. These men and all others were the cause for making this show a hit. Abigail (John Friedman) played her part very well but couldn't keep away from the bald-headed men.

Boyd Elliott playing the part of the mother of the shy, dainty bride, John Cain, who marries the brawny brute; Art Steeley, gave out with sobs and cries that nearly shook the building. Sweetiepie Snodgrass (Woody Butler) who was bear or of the ring (hand cuffs), was quick-witted but cautious in his performance. Elmer Dedden, the parson, gave out with a hilarious ceremony which joined the couple in Middy-Mary-Money.

The singers, Stephen Vaughn, J. B. Spegal and John G. Laubisch did very well with their selections. They were accompanied on the piano by Franklin Lipscomb and Robert West.

Members of the band with the 'feminine sax-a-peel, headed by the gorgeous blond, Robert Roden, gave out with some great music. For some reason, the band leader showed up missing toward the last and from rumors going around, this band was losing her gown during the introductions by the announcer, R. C. Hindsdale, and must have had real trouble at the last and flitted to a secluded place for adjustments and repairs.

All in all, this was a great success and officers of the eBand Booster Club, Mrs. Bryant Rust, president; Elmer Dedden, vice president; Mrs. William Bruin, secretary; Mrs. Cecil Ishmael, treasurer, and William Eger and Eddie Glass, publicity committee, wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to all who were in the cast and to those who attended this affair.

From the many persons who were present to see this show, all were glad to have witnessed such a grand local job of talented men. With the bleachers packed and standing room taken, with many persons seated on benches on the gym floor, still many were turned away at the box office—with hopes, perhaps, the men will present another Womanless Wedding soon. Or perhaps, the men, who were on this program, would like to be in the audience watching a Monless Wedding.

Gulf's New Super-Refined GAS-OIL TEAM

...for more miles per gallon

Gulf No-Nox burns clean. Here's proof: Note the black deposit, on plate at left, caused by the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—the part which Gulf refines out in making new NO-NOX. But see how clean new NO-NOX leaves the plate at right.

Prove it in your own car. Now see for yourself how New Super-Refined Gulf NO-NOX can give you the best in motor performance and protection... plus more miles per gallon in the kind of short-trip, stop-and-go driving you do most.

...for more miles per quart

Gulfpride Select works clean. Here's why: Most conventional oils are refined only up to the stage shown in Graduate A. Gulfpride Select is further refined by the Alchlor Process, removing up to 15% more of the carbon-formers shown in Graduate B. Graduate C contains the new super-refined oil.

Prove it in your own car. This new oil can give you more miles per quart because it has natural viscosity (body)—contains no artificial thickeners that break down in service. Use it with new NO-NOX to get thousands of extra miles of new-car performance and new-engine economy.

REMEMBER: No gasoline alone can give you today's finest performance. . . no oil alone can give you today's finest protection. Get the super-power Gas-Oil Team...

The Small Town Merchant

When you are a small town merchant, you have so many obligations besides operating your business for a profit. You should be a part of every civic organization; be a good citizen and active church member; donate to every school, church and all organizations financially, which is what I like to do, but it takes a lot of money for the small merchant, as well as the larger ones. There are about six schools in the Walton trading area and 20 churches and I have never refused them of anything I could give. There are a lot of other organizations in the community that we are asked to give to, and some I have and some I do not.

There is one thing I have never been able to solve, and it's this—why everyone comes to the merchant for a donation when there are so many other people in the community who have more to give and who are never asked. But just because you sell the community some merchandise every year, you should donate to every cause or you get a very bad name—anyway, if you do or don't you get a bad name. I am the only merchant in business now that was here in 1935 when I started.

There are a few other business men here, in other businesses—This Griffin, A. H. Gaines, Stan Vallandingham, T. O. Ballard, Ott Redwood, D. L. Luby, R. C. Brookfield, J. E. Falls, J. R. Gross, and G. E. Groger. We have weathered the storm several years. So you see the merchants come and go because there are a lot of other business places in Walton that have changed several times in 20 years. So, as I have said at first, it is very hard to operate a business in a country town, keep everyone happy and make some money.

There are several people who don't like me, most of them because I tried to run my business my way and they wanted it their way, but these other twelve men who have been here 20 years have had the same trouble because some of these same people have cursed them to me and I know later or earlier they cursed me to them. So many people think all I have to do is stand behind the counter and ring the cash register, just make lots of money. Just because I try to have a nice home, a good car and maybe take a trip now and then—that is what I want to do, just start my store in a country town.

After all that, I want to tell all my good customers how much I appreciate them and I will donate as much as any one to the churches and schools, but I was just trying to show how this runs up every year. A city merchant has a lot of trouble, the country store owner knows most of your customers personally and in the city you are just another customer. The small town merchant must have a lot of patience. See our Reebok catalogue, but must have it so you can get it today instead of waiting like when you order from the catalogue.

He carries a lot of credit with no extra charge added, and I have had them tell me, when they get a little behind here, that they had to pay in Covington first so they would not take their merchandise away on which they were paying. So the small town merchant waited and several occasions is still waiting. But with all the ups and downs, I like to be a small town merchant and I have a fine group of customers. Some of us get crossed up once in a while, but generally we get things cleared up. We have a fine country town, a very convenient place to live.

We have a good school, fine churches, a good water system (as soon as the improvements are finished), a larger reservoir and a filtration plant. What other town our size has these? Some say our taxes are too high and our water rates too high—so they move out to the country, and then they have to buy several loads of water each year or not use nearly as much as they did in town, they don't have garbage collection and no street lights. So, when you dance you have to pay the fiddler. I like to live in Walton and I am glad I am in business in Walton, the best town of its size in the U.S.A.

The trouble the small merchant has today is that any item over $10 so many say they can get it wholesale. I try to keep a good stock of hardware and household supplies and I am trying to operate a retail store, but some think I should sell to them at wholesale prices, but they are very badly mistaken. I just heard someone downstairs putting paint on my window—I went down and it was a grown man, I would say about 22 years old, so you see the kids get the credit for Halloween pranks, but they don't do all of them. Some people never grow up. Another job for the merchant is to get his windows clean after all this.

Our first cold morning, down to about 30 degrees. Several were in looking for heating stoves. Mrs. Stahl and daughter were up from South Fork neighborhood and bought a coal heater. Mr. Gadd, who is treasurer of the Pentecostal Church of God over at White Tower, bought a Perfection oil heater and three bags of Sta-Dri for the walls of the new church they are building—at present they are getting ready to use the basement this winter. I have more compliments on that Belle Magic paint. Audrey Spencer is trying some and she is a good painter—I'll see what she says about it. The ladies do most of the inside painting.

Davis Hill bought a lot of water pipe covering to fix those pipes so they won't freeze. I also have the electric tape to wrap around the pipe exposed and lug it in. Betty Jones, down on the Ellis Farm, bought Jelligo paint. Mr. Whitten, on Braxton Road, bought 200 feet of plastic water pipe and fittings.

Walton Literary Club Hears Talk On The Women of India

"The Women of India," was the topic of an interesting and informative talk given for the November meeting of the Walton Women's Literary Club at the Phoenix Restaurant, by Mrs. A. E. Atkinson, who was born in India, the daughter of missionary parents. She told of the customs, languages, dress and manner of living of the Indian women. Mrs. Atkinson appeared in the beautiful garment worn by the women of India, and in the Indian language sang, "Victory to Jesus." Mrs. Atkinson is the wife of the Reverend A. E. Atkinson, pastor of the Walton Methodist Church, and a former missionary to India.

The speaker was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. E. B. Wallace. Mrs. C. S. Chambers and Mrs. David Clure extended gracious hospitality, taking the place of Mrs. Wallace K. Grubbs, who was unable to be present.

The president, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag, followed by the reading of the club collect by Mrs. Wendell W. Rouse. The spiritual guidance was given by Mrs. James Powers with an inspiring talk on "America, the Beautiful." Mrs. Powers quoted Psalm 24, "The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein." She told of the observance of that day of thanksgiving by the Plymouth Colony in November, 1621, and closed her talk with prayer.

While in business session, members voted to send a contribution to the Veterans' Hospital.

Report from the fall meeting, held recently in Newport, was given by the president, Mrs. Rouse.

Following adjournment, delightful refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Members responding to roll call were Mrs. J. C. Bedinger, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. W. W. Frank, Mrs. L. M. Gabriel, Mrs. A. H. Gantt, Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. H. F. Mann, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. J. E. McCabe, Mrs. James Powers, Mrs. M. C. Rouse, Mrs. C. W. Rouse, Mrs. G. C. Rouse, Mrs. Julia A. Rouse, Mrs. W. O. Rouse, Mrs. W. W. Rouse, Mrs. W. D. Scroggin, Mrs. S. B. Sleet, Mrs. F. S. Thompson, Mrs. E. B. Wallace, Mrs. J. S. Webster, and Mrs. Nicholas Walsh. Guests present were Mrs. J. R. Wallace, Mrs. Gertrude Gantt, Mrs. J. E. Falls, Mrs. David Clure, and Mrs. A. E. Atkinson.

Martin Luther Story To Be Shown Sunday At Christian Church

The film of Martin Luther will be presented at the Walton Christian Church on Sunday evening at 7:30. This outstanding religious film is not a mere piece of Protestant propaganda but a true historical picture of the religious conditions of the days of Luther and the birth of Protestant religion. The film does not present Luther as an immaculate saint but a man of strong passions who saw things in contrast. He was not a prudent, compromising, middle-of-the-road person, but one who was apt to call things black or white, as he saw them.

Luther challenged the religious world with the doctrine that "The just shall live by faith," and "Here I stand, I can do no other, so help me God." The doctrine of Luther split the European scene into two camps.

Two of the most revolutionary teachings of Luther were, first, the clergy should marry and the Bible should be placed in the hands of the people in language that all could read and understand.

It certainly seems true to the writer that what Columbus did for man's knowledge of the earth, and Copernicus did for the understanding of the heavens, Luther did for the rights of conscience.

The public is invited to see this story of the life of Martin Luther, Sunday night. The picture will begin at 7:30 and will run until about 9:30.

Rev. Charles A. Vaughn, wishes to thank all the people who have prayed or visited or sent get-well cards, or manifested any interest in this recovery. He will deliver the sermon Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

During National Library Week (Nov. 13-19) the Wa-Na Club, which sponsors the Walton Public Library, wishes to extend a cordial invitation to the public to read.

The club, through generous contributions from individuals as well as purchases made from its treasury, has been able to compile a collection of white books for both adults and children.

The latest addition of note is "Inside Africa" by John Gunther. This book was the September Book of the Month Selection, in which the author describes the conditions in Africa today. In preparation for the writing of this book, Mr. Gunther traveled 40,000 miles visiting 105 different African localities and interviewing more than 1500 people. Woven into the fabric of this book is the glamorous history of Africa, as well as personal experiences of the author while there. This may well be the giant of his famous "Inside" series.

The Wa-Na Club expects to be able to add current books from time to time and hopes that every reader will take advantage and feel free to borrow. The library hours are 2:30 to 4:30 and 7:00 to 9:00 every Thursday at the Walton City Building.

The girls were given the opportunity to see all the controls, food storage area, luggage space, and the many other conveniences of the travelers. They were then taken directly to the radar room and the control tower, where the landing of a plane was explained briefly.

Following the interesting tour was a delicious box lunch, prepared by Dobbs House.

The next stop was the Singer Sewing Machine Company. Mrs. Matthews, Mr. Stegner and Mr. Swartz showed the girls the machine room, manager's office, demonstration room, the actual business area and many different kinds of sewing machines for home and business use. A demonstration of the making of a button hole-gad-a-special hem stitch was given. Each F.H.A. member had a most enjoyable tour of both the airport and the sewing machine company.

Local Lady "Kentucky Colonel"

Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby recently granted a Commission of Kentucky Colonel to Miss Madeline Selman of Independence. Miss Selman, who has been active in the Girl Scouts of America for the past 20 years, formed the Girl Scout Troop in Independence in 1942, and has been the Troop leader ever since. The Girl Scout Council called on Miss Selman to help other towns and cities form troops and give instruction to leaders.

Miss Selman recently moved to Clearwater, Fla., because of her health and to be with her brother, Lt. Col. Walter Selman, U. S. Army retired.

Hickory Grove W. M. U.

The Hickory Grove W. M. U. met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Tuesday night, November 1. Those present were Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Forest Popp, Mrs. Violet Lipscomb, Mrs. Martha Maddox, Mrs. Anna Wienel, Mrs. Janetta Neuspickle, Mrs. Ralph Jump, and a visitor, Miss Ruth Jump.

The program, "Christ for All the World," was very interesting. It told all about the work the missionaries are doing in other parts of the world. The nights for our week of prayer were the 29th and 30th. Everyone is invited to attend—the first night will be at Mrs. Maddox's and the second at the church on our regular prayer meeting night. The date for our Christmas party was set for December 10 at Walton. Everyone is invited to come join us at our next meeting, the first Tuesday night in December at 8 o'clock. Refreshments of coffee, tea and donuts was enjoyed by all.

Farmers and business men attended the first annual tobacco field day in Morgan county.

The Golden Rule

Lesson for November 13, 1955

LIVING is an art, not a science. Jesus did not come to give us a heavenly rule-book. On the other hand he did not live and die merely to provide us with tickets to heaven. For others, as for himself, he felt the tremendous importance, here and now, of this present life. He left behind him not rules but general broad principles for living in this world as sons and daughters of the Most High God. Jesus' principles were not the stuffy sort of thing that only philosophers can understand. His disciples, we know, were all men of limited education, the plainest of plain people. If Jesus had tried any theological gobbledygook on them, it would have gone clear over their heads. What he said could have carved on short tombstones, written on a postcard—any one sentence of his teachings. The one the church has nicknamed the "Golden Rule"—short, sharp, and in Jesus' own view very important—is alone worth long study.

"It's Too Hard" Luke's version of the Golden Rule (6:31) is clear enough: "As you wish that men would do to you, do so to them." Words of one syllable, but what words! It is saddening to see how many efforts have been made to by-pass this Golden Rule. One kind of by-passers will tell you this is much too hard. Some very religious people have fancied that Jesus did not mean this for here-and-now, but only for some "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," sometime after Judgment Day. Other religious people have said that Jesus really meant to say, "You can't possibly do this,—don't you feel ashamed?" Now we can be sure of two things. One is, that Jesus was to say the least of it a man of common sense, an honest man.

And honest men do not deliberately tell their friends to do what they know is impossible.

"It's Too Easy"

An opposite way of by-passing the Golden Rule is to think it is too easy—that it is just a nice sounding bit of advice that is not only easy to do but which won't do much good. For example: a little girl cries for candy. The mother thinks: What would I want her to do for me? Why, I'd want her to do as I say. So I'll do as she says—give her the candy. (And make her sick, of course.) Or again: a wife's birthday is coming along. Husband thinks: What would I want for my birthday? New power saw, of course. So he gets his wife a power saw, which she certainly does not want. . . . No, the Golden Rule is not so easy as all that. It calls for imagination, for a wide vision, for a Christian spirit. It is indeed all too easy—for fools and knaves. But Jesus assumed that his friends were neither knaves nor fools. The Golden Rule is not something to save any one the trouble of thinking. It simply points out the direction in which our actions and decisions ought to go. It often means, not—What does this person want me to do, now? but—What will this person at last wish I had done for him? In other words, if we are to apply the Golden Rule we have to look at it in the light of eternity.

"It Won't Work"

Another way of by-passing the Golden Rule is to say simply that it won't work. "It is a lovely ideal, the world would be much pleasanter to live in, for all of us, if we could live by it; but we can't, so let's get on with the practical business of dog-eat-dog, every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost." Again let us remember that if Jesus had not lived by his own rule, every listener would have turned him for a hypocrite and the Golden Rule would have perished in a blast of cynical laughter. It worked in Nazareth, it worked in the carpenter shop. To bring it down to our own times in America, and to take the hardest of applications of the Golden Rule,—loving your enemies. Will it work? Well, who are today the leaders in the War of the 1860's who are most widely and gratefully remembered on both sides of what once was a battle line? Lincoln and Lee, beyond much doubt. And these are the two men who most undeniably loved their enemies. The Golden Rule, in a life devoted to God and man, will work.

"I'LL BE GLAD TO"

When they want an angel food cake for the church bazaar, Mrs. Turner is apt to be asked to bake it. She almost always responds to such requests with a simple, "I'll be glad to."

If you ask people about Mrs. Turner, they will tell you that she is one of the happiest women in town. Yet not so long ago she was feeling pretty sorry for herself. Life seemed such a humdrum affair. As an accomplished musician, she had had dreams of the concert stage, but marriage and children had changed all that. Somehow it didn't seem fair!

Then one Sunday, a friend persuaded her to go to church. The sermon happened to be about the ingredients that make a full and happy life. The things the minister said struck home, and the next Sunday she found herself back in church again. Then one Sunday Mr. Turner went along, and next, the youngsters.

Now Mrs. Turner is still "just a housewife," but is she dissatisfied with her role? Look at her face, and see for yourself! It took the Church to show her that she already possessed all the tools needed for fulfillment and happiness, if she would but use them. Now, she does.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Don't Bores:

We are informed by the Library of Congress that Daniel Boone—had he lived—would be 220 years old this month.

From other sources we get the information that the famed Kentucky pioneer is a cousin of President Eisenhower. It seems as though the two men—Dan and Ike—have a common ancestor, one Geo. Boone, III, who was born in England and came to this country in 1717. We offer this little footnote to history for what it might be worth—if anything.

Navy Notes:

We offer today two bits of information from the Navy Department.

Grades of the midshipmen at the Naval Academy have been released, and the Navy proudly notes that its footballers are smart students. Kentucky's Ron Beagle, the Covington star, has a standing of 3.21. Perfect is 4.

We also pass along the news that the unfinished battleship, THE KENTUCKY, will be completed as a guided missile ship. In fact, Congress is going to get a request for money to build nine such guided missile warships.

Farm Facts:

We take note of some farm news as released by the Department of Agriculture, notes of interest to the Commonwealth.

The experts feel that low grade tobacco will fetch a better price this year. It's all due, they say, to the production of filter tip cigarettes in which the lesser leaf can be used. Today 19 percent of all cigarettes have filter tips. Five years ago it was less than 1 percent.

A bolder note brings news that next year, 1956, the farmer will get less of the consumer's dollar than in 1955, 40 cents compared to today's 41 cents.

Mail Men:

To Kenton County newsmen: The House investigation of Government news censorship has not been called off. It got underway early this week.

Reply to Greenup caution: If you are in Washington on November 25 you can meet a flock of Kentuckians at the Kentucky Society's Thanksgiving party will be held at the Sheraton Park.

Memo to Backen county mudroad farmer: It's predicted that the Federal highway construction bill will pass the next Congress. A bill will be introduced on January 3.

Note to Fleming county writer: The temporary buildings that mar the Washington scene are to be razed as soon as possible—so they say, at least.

FOR SALE—FOR STORAGE

The City of Walton will sell a 1946 Dodge, serial number 30780080, motor number D24137590, license (Washington) 63075C, 1955, at auction, for storage, at the City Bldg., Walton, Ky., on Thursday, November 10, 1955, at 1:00 p. m. (EST).

Florence Homemakers Meet

The first lesson in hat making was the subject of the day at the October meeting of the Florence Homemakers Club at the home of Mrs. H. F. Wesler. Mrs. Jerry Rouse and Mrs. Robert Roland of the Stringtown Homemakers Club taught the lesson, giving instructions in the selection of a hat.

Members answered roll call by citing ways to better serve the community. A collection for Pennies for Friendship was taken. Mrs. O. R. Osun led the devotional period, and Mrs. A. W. Fullerton discussed landscaping. Mrs. Harold Conner gave a report on Civil Defense. The attendance was composed of Messames Ray Lutes, George R. Tanner, D. L. Egers, R. L. Vaughn, A. W. Fullerton, O. R. Osun, John Conley, William Foote, Grant Maddox, Mable Sayre, Harold Conner, H. F. Wesler, W. H. Wesler, Frances Dempsey, William Fitzgerald, Miss Evelyn Tanner and Miss Jane Scott. The next meeting of the club will feature the second lesson in hat making and will be held November 22 at the home of Mrs. John Schram.

Freezing and curing of meats are taking the place of canning among the homemakers in Gallatin county. Ninety-six families in Grayson county are enrolled in the Farm and Home Development program.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and relatives for the kindness they have shown in the loss of our husband and father, Noah Pennington. We especially want to thank the ones who sent beautiful floral pieces, the Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Bro. Tackett for the funeral sermon, Mark Meadows for the singing, Mrs. Mary Rector for playing the piano, and the pallbearers. We will always remember your kindness.

DAR HISTORICAL CONTEST

Again the Boone County Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is sponsoring a historical contest in all the grade schools of Boone county, the fifth and eighth grades participating.

The National society of the Daughters of the American Revolution advocates such contests in our schools as they foster a love and stimulates a desire for a better knowledge of American History and the history of the child's state.

In previous contests, the subjects were Abraham Lincoln and Daniel Boone, both claimed as Kentuckians. This year, the chapter selected as the subject for the contest, the great Kentucky statesman, Henry Clay.

As in other contests, the winner in the fifth grade and in the eighth grade will be given a beautiful gold medal engraved with the child's name, school and year.

It is hoped all children in the fifth and eighth grades throughout Boone county will take a lively interest in this contest. Mrs. Sam Denham, Sr., Florence, is chairman of the event.

A survey of farms in Crittenden county showed an average income of about $10 an acre.

CONRAD SERVICE

Brewster went down to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shields' new house and measured the windows for new venetian blinds you know we sell and install Breneman venetian blinds made right here in Cincinnati. Then he went out to Mrs. Mark Meadows to put new plastic tapes on her venetian blinds we sold her years ago; also stopped down at Mrs. Robert Peyer's and put new cords in several of her venetian blinds; then he had to go to Ruth Beach's at Elliston, her fuel oil heater would not burn—he found a broken line where it goes into the burner.

Chick went down to Mrs. Lorena Myers' house and brought in a large glass window—it took a 36x40 glass—the Halloween pranksters threw a corn stalk through it, then ran away. This glass cost $9.75 installed and whoever broke it should pay for it. Someone will tell her, as it always gets out. Red put in a pitman rod for Floyd Seabree's mower, then put in several shovel handles, also set up some small Oak coil heaters. We have had several calls for these. Sold lots of weather strip—we have most every type. Brewster had to go back to Elliston to repair Ruth Beach's oil heater.

We unloaded more Warm Morning coil heaters—they have been out in Cincinnati for several days. If you need one, don't wait until cold weather, they may be out again. Ed Helzel bought a used coal heater to help out when it gets real cold. We received a lot of new linoleum in flowered patterns, to cut off whatever you want, also some 12x12 and 12x15 rugs, and lots of 9x12 rugs for $4.95, $7.95, $9.95 and $12.75. We have 4 1/2 x 4 1/2 stove mats for 98 cents, rug border for 69 cents per yard, and rubberlike matting for 69 cents per yard. CONRAD has it in stock.

We have been selling several bicycles and wagons, also appliances and putting them away for Christmas. All week we have been installing window glass. Bill Coyle brought in some that were broken at the fire at his house. Mrs. Black on Green Road brought in a storm sash for her chicken and turkey house, very busy with the oil heaters. He is also putting new plastic tapes in Mrs. Mark Meadows' venetian blinds. Chick sold several linoleum rugs and lots of plastic window shades.

Frank Wood from Napoleon bought a 5-gallon heated poultry water fountain—these are the thing to keep in your house during winter and you get more eggs. Jamesway makes the best fountains and feeders that I can buy. I have two Jamesway gas hovers that are fine for chickens and turkeys. Mrs. John Woods on South Main Street bought a large Warm Morning coil heater—this is the finest coil heater made today and it will really heat—ask anyone who has one!

Mrs. Opal Simpson called and told me she was very well pleased with her Perfection electric range, and it really baked like she wanted it to—you cannot beat Perfection when it comes to stoves. Joe Richardson's was over today—he is the turkey man from Kenton county, and it is about turkey time. Mrs. D. K. Johnson bought a new kitchen sink and linoleum floor. We sell linoleum every day—carry a large stock and very good selections in most all sizes and prices. Come to CONRAD for your household needs.

Saturday was a very busy day. We set up a new Warm Morning coil heater for Mrs. William Robinson on Verona Road. Then Howard Blackburn came in and said he had been having oil heater trouble and that he would buy a large size Perfection oil heater if it would work in his chimney—so I sent Brewster up to look it over—he came back and said it would work, so he and Red took a Perfection oil heater up there and when they put the fire to it, it really did get hot all over—you never worry about a Perfection heater if you give it half enough draft—they will heat when others fail.

William Hatten, who owns the old George Powers farm, came in with his sister-in-law, Pauline, to get his check cashed—he made his X and I cashed the check. Rich and Esther Glenn were in and bought an Anchor coil heater—Rich bought a mail box, and I put his name on it. Joe Perkins also bought a mail box. Robert Jump called for a 30-ft. extension ladder. Mr. and Mrs. Tackett, who now live over in Gallatin county, on a farm since he was crippled in an accident on the railroad, bought a G. E. radio and she bought several rag rugs.

Jack Berkshire bought an electric fence charger—he came back and said it was not hot enough, the hogs were going right through the fence, so I gave him a hotter one to try—we will call Monday what was wrong. Every day we sell Jellied Magic paint and St. Dri water-proof coating for basements and anywhere else below or above surface. Sleet West had me cut him fine glass 10x15 for his window.

Walter King bought Flex-O-Glass, and Roy Kenney bought wiring material, wicks and disinfectant. Another day of service—Red and Brewster took a coal heater over to Rich Glenn, then to Melvin Henderson's to pipe in an oil heater and put in a floor heater, then to White Tower to pick up a washer for repairs, then to Gordon Phillips to check oil heater. Mrs. Ethel Sheppard was in today getting a new thing—we had a long talk, as I wasn't busy—I have never heard a word, but wasn't good about anyone—she is a fine person and a good friend and customer.

"Forgotten Child" Is Topic at Simon Kenton P.T.A. Meeting

Mrs. Carmen Ellerman of radio station WZIP, Covington, and a firm backer of the school for mentally retarded children spoke on "The Forgotten Child," at the Simon Kenton P.T.A. meeting held in conjunction with National Education Week, at the school. Mrs. Ellerman stressed the fact that these children, in the past, have been sadly neglected but that the new school is doing wonders in readjusting their lives to allow them to feel useful in everyday life. She pointed out that many times parents do not know their child is mentally retarded until school age for it can happen in any family and no one knows the cause. She also stated the new school now has a secretary so people may visit and an additional teacher this year, totaling five in the entire school. Miss Elmo Taylor introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Thomas Finney, president, installed Mrs. Dawson Hightower as the treasurer, to fill an unexpired term.

R. C. Hinsdale, principal, gave the topics for each day of National Education Week, and stated that Simon Kenton now has 889 pupils in a building prepared for 500; that every store room, cafeteria and hall were being used for classes. There are 234 pupils in the seventh grade alone. The entire school was open for parents to visit the classrooms and meet the teachers.

Mrs. Dan Martin and social committee served refreshments in the cafeteria.

American Education Week was observed at the Piner school, last Thursday with a nice percentage of parents attending the entire day at school watching the principles by which their children receive their education.

After lunch a short business meeting of the PTA was held, which marked the close of the 1955-56 membership drive. A total of 467 members was recorded and the following winners announced:

First, third grade, second, tie between fourth and fifth grades; third, first grade; fourth, sixth grade, and fifth, second grade.

William R. Brown, principal, gave an interesting account of the school budget after which delightful refreshments were served.

John Wesley Film To Be Shown in Local Methodist Church

"One of the most inspiring, heart-warming films ever produced in the interests of the church," so writes the Hollywood Citizen News, "is the film 'John Wesley,' which is to be shown in the Walton Methodist Church on Sunday, November 20, at 7:30 p. m.

The film opens with the miraculous rescue from a burning house at the age of five of John Wesley and is one of the dramatic episodes in the eventful life of this man of slight stature but of impelling influence on his contemporaries and upon history.

His "enthusiasm" was frowned upon by the leaders of the Church of England of his day, but it was this new enthusiasm which enabled him to influence so many phases of the life on English speaking people all over the world.

His appeal to the common man, his establishment of schools, clinics, lay preaching and societies — finally his sending supervisors for the movement in the new world after the American Revolution — all these make the film one you should not miss and which you will long remember. Rev. Mr. Atkinson wishes to remind the people that while the film is in these initial days being released only through Methodist churches the public is cordially invited to see the picture in the Walton Methodist Church this Sunday.

How to be sure you are making the best buy in a new truck

➤ A new truck is an important investment. If you want to be sure you're getting the best buy, you've got to consider a lot of things: price, power, operating economy, good appearance—to mention only a few.

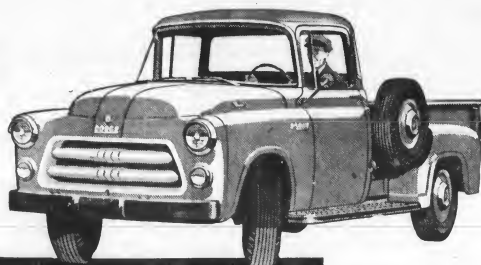

➤ Take price, for instance. Wouldn't it help you to know that you can buy a Dodge for surprisingly little money? Could be you didn't know Dodge trucks cost less than most other makes.

➤ Wouldn't the whole story on truck power help you, too? The fact that Dodge Power-Dome V-8's outpower every other leading truck in the low- and medium-tonnage fields surely is important to your decision.

➤ And there are other Dodge advantages you'll want to think about—like the business-building beauty of Forward Look styling, and the long life that spreads low initial cost over years of dependable service.

➤ It all adds up to this: To be sure of your best truck buy, take a few minutes to talk to your Dodge dealer. Just a phone call will put the wheels in motion.

Gulf No-Nox Gasoline burns clean

Here's proof: Note the black deposit, on plate at left, caused by the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—the part which Gulf refines out in making New Super-Refined NO-NOX. But see how clean new NO-NOX leaves the plate at right. Now—in your own car—see how new NO-NOX can give more miles per gallon in the kind of short-trip, stop-and-go driving you do most.

Gulf No-Nox Select Oil works clean

Here's why: Most conventional oils are refined only to the stage shown in A. But New Gulf No-Nox Select is further refined by the Alchor Process—removing up to 15% more of the carbon-formers, in B... C contains the new super-refined oil that gives you more miles per quart because it has natural viscosity (body)—contains no artificial thickeners that break down in service.

REMEMBER: No gasoline alone can give you today's finest performance... no oil alone can give you today's finest protection. Get the new super-power gas-oil team...

SOMEBODY GOOFED!

IT'S A COMMON MISTAKE but certainly the sign painter should know better. The word "RAILROAD" should be "RAILWAY," for our correct name is Southern Railway System. Yet it's surprising how many of our good friends and neighbors refer to us as Southern Railroad System.

Not that it really matters. Railroad or Railway, we're still the Southern that "serves the South"—not only as an agency of transportation, but as a job provider, taxpayer and customer, too.

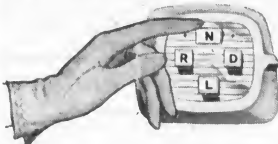

And because what you say about us—not what you call us—is what counts, we'll go right on doing everything we can to make you pleased with and proud of the railway that means so much to all who live and work in the Southland. Make no mistake about that!

BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH L. FOREMAN

Powers of God

Lesson for November 20, 1955

JESUS no doubt did many ordinary things, such as paying his bills and eating his breakfast. It may well be that he "never" did an ordinary thing in an ordinary way. (How would he pay you what he owed for lumber for his carpenter shop? How would he be as a breakfast companion?) But it is also true by all the records that he did some extraordinary things, so extraordinary that no one word could quite describe them. The Gospel writers, all of whom of course used Greek, used

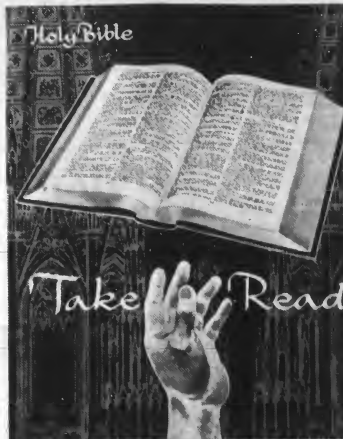

Dr. Foreman sometimes a word meaning "Sign," sometimes one meaning "wonder, miracle," and sometimes one that means "power." The same Greek words is translated in different ways. For example, the Greek word "dynamis" (power) is translated in the old King James version "power" in Luke 5:17, "virtue" in 6:19, "mighty works" in 10:13, "miracles" in Acts 2:22.

No Show-off
You can get into all kinds of stupid and endless arguments over the "miracles" of the New Testament. They are not always labeled as such, or labeled with any word. The Gospels will just tell what Jesus did, and let the reader draw his own conclusions. What they all agree on is that Jesus performed acts of power which no one else could match. He did these things as naturally as you would pick a blackberry—as naturally but perhaps not so easily. As he himself expressed it, he could perceive "power," going out of him. (Luke 8:46, R.S.V.) However hard it may be to understand Jesus' miracles, we can confidently say three things about them. One is that he did not do them "just to be doing them." They were never aimless, or at random. Further, they never had the aim of showing off. To the end of his days Jesus was beset by demands from the Pharisees and others, to show a "sign from heaven." One of his early temptations was to cast himself down from a pinnacle of the Temple and expect God or his angels to see that he did not get hurt in the fall. But he did not yield to that temptation.

Never Too Much
Another striking fact about his miracles is that he never wasted power. He never did what others could do. When he fed the five thousand, he got the people to sit down in orderly fashion and got his disciples to help distribute the food. One would suppose it would have been just as easy for him to arrange for every person present to find a loaf and a fish suddenly in his hand; but Jesus did not work that way. Or again, after the tremendous miracle of restoring to life the little daughter of Jairus, Jesus—instead of producing lunch for her himself by a miracle—gives orders to the family to get the little girl something to eat. When he healed the paralytic, he told him to pick up his pallet and go home.

He Went About Doing Good
Simon Peter, who was far more impressed by Jesus' miracles than by what he said, summed up a great deal when he said that Jesus, endowed with divine power, "went about doing good." (Acts 10:38.) Our Lord's acts of power were always done for the help of other persons. This is the great distinction between Christ's miracles and those done, or allegedly done, by magic. Your typical magic-worker makes a doll and sticks pins in it, hoping by this means to inflict pain or death on some one. Whether or not magic is anything real, magic is malicious by intention. Jesus' miracles on the contrary were never malicious, but the exact opposite—they were acts of goodness and generous help. Jesus never called up genies out of bottles, he never created fire-breathing dragons, he never produced potions of love or death. All his miracles simply restored health, life, strength, gave food to the hungry, eyes to the blind, joy and good news to the poor. For in listing for John the Baptist's benefit the acts of power he was doing, he names as climax the raising of the dead, but the coming of good news to the poor. That is a miracle we still too seldom see!

Nearly 16 centuries ago, a man named Augustine lived in a Roman colony in Africa. He was vain, greedy, lustful—in fact, few men have been less exemplary. Then, when in his early thirties, he began to be increasingly dissatisfied with his life.

One day, feeling particularly miserable, he went into his garden and wept. While weeping, he heard from a neighboring house, the voice of a child saying again and again, "Take up and read. Take up and read."

Struck by these words, Augustine went to his room, opened his Bible, and have come away with their answer. For in no other book is there such truth, wisdom, and promise. That is why the American Bible Society has been at work for more than a century, bringing the Bible to millions of persons in more than 60 countries, translating it into hundreds of languages.

The Bible is everywhere, yours for the asking. Take it up—and read.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

STAFFORDSBURG

Sunday before last we had 83 in Sunday School. Let's try to make it 100.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett were recent weekend guests of Mrs. McBrine and daughter of Indianapolis, Ind.

The Staffordsborg Homemakers Club recently celebrated its 25th anniversary, which was organized in November, 1930 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp.

Six of the charter members were present and were honored on this occasion by a party and gifts. These members were: Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Mrs. Denver Binder, Mrs. Stella Richardson, Mrs. G. W. Klein, Rev. and Mrs. George Miller enjoyed as recent weekend guests his mother, sister and the sister's family from Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanna are enjoying their new home.

Miss Minnie Rapp, who has been ill several weeks, is better.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were recent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fooks and Mrs. Bessie Mills of Verona.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Keeney entertained with a birthday celebration recently. Mr. and Mrs. William Damon, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Damon and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Damon.

Miss Nannie Bollinger has been a bit under the weather.

Sunday evening, November 13 an organ recital was enjoyed at the church. The speaker was Rev. Ogles.

R. F. D. Notes:

The balanced budget question is still with us. A Mason county writer wants to know if such a thing is likely. Washington experts reply that increased tax collections make such an achievement possible the next fiscal year.

A Gallatin county educator wants to know what other states are doing to provide college training for high school graduates. Well, Maryland, for example, is establishing a series of junior colleges.

Nate to Greenup county reader: Minnesota, pressed for money, is studying plans to enact a payroll tax to help support schools and other agencies.

Memo to Boyd caution: Most Washington correspondents pick Vice President Nixon as the GOP candidate.

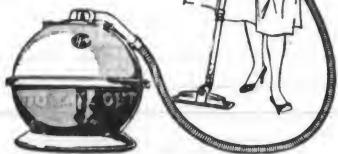

More than 2,000 soil samples have been tested in Fleming county this year, and nearly 9,000 in five years.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By Gil Kingsberry

View on Russia:

Kentucky's Congressman John Robison—he's from Louisville—was a visitor to Russia recently and came back with some views on the Red scene.

He believes recent developments could lead to a better understanding between us and the Muscovites. But he also was impressed with the deficiencies in the Soviet economy—lack of an adequate food supply, poor transportation, and other factors. Americans take far granted. Free, enterprise, he concludes, is more than a match for the police state.

Poor With Us:

Kentucky, being a southern state, should be interested in a report from the Census Bureau.

The South has more than its share of poor people, the study says. More than that, low-income families are larger than those families with high salaries. And that, the experts point out, puts an additional burden on the poor man.

The study concludes with the observation that in spite of seven years of prosperity, the chronically poor are still with us.

Famed Kentuckians:

The Christopher Gist Historical Society of Covington, so we note, is planning to honor John White Stevenson, who served as Kentucky's post-Civil War governor.

All of which leads us to the Library of Congress to seek information on other men who have been Congressmen, Governor and Senator. We discovered that three men have achieved such honors since the War Between the States. Stevenson is one. A. O. Stanley, now a resident of Washington, is another, and Senator Earle Clements is the third.

Incidentally, Senator Clements is to be the principal speaker at the ceremonies honoring Governor Stevenson on December 9 in Covington.

Barton Washers

I have been selling Barton washers for years, but never advertised them but very little—since I have been selling Maytag I have only carried the cheap model of Barton washers—now I have their best and cheap models, and they are really some washers. The best model is three speeds and has a small tub inside the large tub for the delicate laundry; then I have a yellow and white washer that is beautiful and also a wonderful washer... Come in and look these over, also price them. We will give you a long trade-in on the old washers or a good discount for cash.

We want to sell a lot of these washers before January 1. Of course I still have Maytag—just a few washers, as they have been on strike. Have you seen the white Perfection oil heater for heating your kitchen, and only $79.00—they were made to heat the kitchens where you cook with gas or electricity and no furnace heat. Brewster and Red took Mrs. Roy Payne's washer over to her after we had it repaired. Then Brewster went to the East Bend Bottoms to check Mr. Stephens' Warm Morning coal heater, but it was OK.

The pastor at Hickory Grove Baptist Church called for us to bring a large Warm Morning coal heater over to the church and set it up. Chick sold two used coal heaters and some wood heaters. Mr. and Mrs. John House bought a square tub Maytag washer—when you buy a square aluminum tub Maytag washer, you buy the best. Brewster and Red installed the new kitchen sink for Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson and also put down new linoleum for them. Gladys and Roscoe Colston bought a new Maytag washer—their old one had washed its last.

I just came back from Burlington—we went over to get the election returns. I found out one thing, I have lost my rating in Walton, because every man I asked to run on the City Council got beat. So, from now on they won't worry about me, I will stay in the clear and let someone else pick the next candidates. This City Council job has gotten to be such a rough deal that a man in business can't lose all his customers, because if you are on the Council and build something in front of one of your customers' property and assess them for it, you have lost friends and customers.

It looks like Happy Chandler is the only one that goes friends in politics. Every time he runs the more votes he gets. In 1960 you will be able to vote for him for president. He broke the record this year. I went to town today and brought back a lot of Jelled Magic paint. We have sold a lot of this for the short time we have had it. Agnes Atchaf called for Everett Jones to bring her a draft control for her heating stove. Bill and Frances McCormick bought a small gas heater.

These are fine for cold rooms and to take off the chill in the kitchen where you cook with gas. They are only $16.50 and I have some larger for $24.50. We unloaded ten bicycles and 24 wagons for Christmas—have your's put away and be sure of getting what you want.

We have Roadmaster bicycles, all sizes, $39.50, $44.50 and $54.50, and wagons for $1.95, $3.95, $6.95, $7.95, $8.95 and $9.95, also tricycles, all sizes and prices. We have lots of small toys to put out after Thanksgiving. They came to CONRAD HARDWARE for most everything and most times I have it. Henry Brooks and wife bought a Vesto coal heater—Red and Brewster took it down and set it up. Then went to Hagedorn's and picked up Ray Payne's Maytag washer we had repaired. On the way in they brought in a Perfection oil heater I bought from Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shields—they moved in their new house and have a furnace, so if someone wants a new Perfection oil heater, used one year, I have it.

Every day we sell some kind of a heating stove—some days we sell several. Today we sold screen glass and flex-a-glass, asbestos pipe covering for water pipes, also electric tape for water pipes—just wrap it around the pipe and plug it in, it will keep it from freezing. Mrs. Owen Flynn and Mrs. McMillan were in a few minutes—regular Saturday customers.

I have some very good bargains in used oil heaters. I want to clean them out, so I will not have to carry them over. Of course I have a full stock of Perfection oil heaters and Warm Morning coal heaters. These are installed at the advertised price. I have a 50,000 BTU Martin gas heater to sell, real cheap. I have a used Maytag washer, cheap. We have a complete line of Warm's window covering to keep out the cold, also most every kind of weatherstrip and caulking. This saves you a lot of fuel during the winter season—you don't have to heat the inside and outside.

I have left a 275-gallon fuel oil tank for $37.50, a 135-gallon fuel oil tank for $29.50, also a lot of clean 50-gallon drums for $4.50 each, also have a six-barrel open top watering stock tank for $28.50, and an eight-barrel stock tank for $38.50. I have electric heaters for stock tanks to keep water from freezing. I also have the wrap on electric tape to keep pipes from freezing. We have sold several large poultry feeders on legs and large water fountains with electric water heater. We have a rough type with heater under it, also the round tank type with heater under it.

The hunting season is here and we have guns, shells, traps and caps, also game traps. Bring your troubles to CONRAD, we do all types of repair work.

Hot Rod Enthusiasts:

Of the many discussions I have heard concerning hot rods and their needs, it seems that parts for these engines and such are hard to get. I just ran across a full page of these items in the fall and winter catalog from one of the well known mail-order houses. If you are interested, investigate.

S. K. Basketball Game:

The next game for the Simon Kenton basketball team will be against Newport Catholic on the Newport Catholic gym floor, next Tuesday evening, Nov. 29.

Just A Thought:

A man who desires to get married should know either everything or nothing.

Tree-Ripened Fruit:

Getting rid of a winter cold or avoiding a cold at this time of year is a very hard problem and one of the best remedies is fruit and fruit juices. For a real treat and a very inexpensive one you may purchase either half bushel or full bushels of three ripened oranges, grapefruit and tangerines direct from the trees in Florida. We'll give you further information, if you so desire.

Christmas Cards and Parcels:

In just a few more days, we will be in the month of December and Christmas cards and parcels will be received and sent from our homes. Make sure that your season greetings and gifts are in mittling to your rural carrier of Post office.

This year, you may send your Christmas cards for 2c unsealed, and for 3c if they are sealed. If you are in doubt of an address it would be wise to place a 3c stamp and your return address on the envelope. This way special attention will be given to those with 3c stamps affixed and will be forwarded to the correct address. After having made ready to mail, place your cards in separate stacks or bundles marked "local," "Kentucky," and "others." It will help your Post Office tremendously in making quick delivery and will keep the mails moving much faster.

Your parcels should be securely tied with heavy twine or light rope. It is best to use a rope that is too heavy than a string that is too light. If you use pen and ink to address your parcel, also use a pencil. Sometimes the ink will smear and the penciled address will be used. If you use a gummed label for writing in the address, also place the address on the wrapping too. It is possible that the label will be torn off and the wrapping can be used to deliver the parcel to the addressee. Make sure you place your return address on all parcels and that "Merchandise: Postmaster may open for inspection," has been written or printed thereon.

For overseas parcels going airmail, the weight limit is 2 pounds, sent to either New York or San Francisco, c/o Postmaster, is 80c a pound. You may send as many parcels to one person as you wish as long as each parcel does not exceed 2 pounds.

If you are in doubt whether your season's greetings or gifts will reach their destination in time for delivery for Christmas, it would be best to send them by air mail and by special delivery if the addressee lives 200 miles or more away. If not, then just special delivery.

A NOTE OF APPRECIATION—

We want to thank everyone for their many kind deeds, their prayers and the many beautiful cards received during my stay in the hospital.

Especially do we want to thank our neighbors and friends who helped with the children and the work at home, and those who offered donations of blood. We especially appreciated the visits of our pastor, Bro. Tackett, and his prayers and the use of his radio during my stay in the hospital. Also we want to thank Dr. Cro for his untiring efforts on the part of myself and our baby.

We appreciated all prayers that were offered for our infant son, who passed away at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Nov. 15.

We want to thank Bro. Kennedy for the nice services held for our son, and Hamilton Funeral Home for handling the arrangements.

May the Lord richly bless each and every one of you.

Staffordburg Homemakers Observe 25th Anniversary

White carnations and silver candelabra graced the linen to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Staffordburg Homemakers' Club. The first club in Kenton county met at the home of Mrs. Ida Stephens, now the home of Mrs. Ralph Howard, a member. Minutes from that first meeting were read and it was noted that that was 2 lbs. for 35c, and three 2 lbs. for 1.00. Eight charter members of that first meeting were presented gifts and Miss Zelma Byerly, who was then and is now home demonstration agent for Kenton county, was given an anniversary cake in gratitude of her help and friendship.

The group sang, "Bless Be the Tie That Binds," and the devotionals were read by Mrs. Chester Hill.

The luncheon prepared by the food brokers, Mrs. Emil Stern and Mrs. Hill, consisted of meat casserole and salad. A second anniversary cake was had for dessert.

Mrs. J. A. Henry delivered a book report on "The Wings of the Dove," by Guy Howard. Mrs. L. J. Rapp informed members on the planting of bulbs for successful spring bloom. A committee was appointed to act on the Christmas project, and names were drawn for a Christmas party, arranged for December.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, December 6 at the Staffordburg church. Members are to bring cakes to be decorated, and the first lesson will center around a breakfast table.

Those present were Mrs. Zelma E. Byerly, Miss Betty Rich, Mesdames G. Wagner, Ora Nearing, E. B. Rich, Denver Binder, J. C. Beall, Harry Cooper, L. J. Rapp, H. L. Faulkner, Geo. Klein, John Shaw, Floyd Smith, Clinton Henry, Ralph Howard, Ben Payne, L. M. Draper, Thomas Byrne, Melvin Bruggen, Chester Hill, J. A. Keeney, Blanche Rich, Emil Stein, Edith Ware and Stella Richardson.

HIGHLIGHTS OF FHA YEAR

On Monday, November 7, during American Education Week, the school held "open house." Girls working on their state degrees displayed the seven areas of homemaking, a F.H.A. bulletin board containing the emblem pictures and other F.H.A. highlights, and a summary of the Simms Kenton home project program. Jo Ann Heideman, Alene Willinger and Marilyn Friedman put on the display.

On October 27, new members had their "fun initiation." Each new member was asked to do the following: Wear no make-up, wear hair in pigtail with ribbons, wear no jewelry, wear hose with saddles, bow to all older members, say either "purpose" or "creed," carry either egg beater, rolling pin or potato masher, wear an apron decorated with F.H.A. in big red letter on it, wear freckles made with eyebrow pencil, wear full skirt with zipper in front, wear blouse backwards, carry older members books and trays if possible. Everyone cooperated beautifully and passed with flying colors. Thirty girls participated in this initiation. The formal initiation is scheduled for Dec. 1. F.H.A.ers served at the F.H.A. Father-Son banquet, with the F.H.A. officers as invited guests. The girls have also served at the chili supper at Kenton Elementary School on November 11, and at the Kenton County Faculty Club, October 12.—Reporter.

Lesson for November 27, 1955

THERE is no such thing as the Christian religion, except in human beings. There is no such thing as the growth of Christianity, unless it grows in people. So how does Christianity spread? Only by one way: people who are Christians must win people who are not Christians. People who know Jesus Christ must introduce other people to him. The church has a word for this: It is called Evangelism. Anybody who thinks Dr. Foreman he doesn't believe in evangelism is really saying that he doesn't care whether there are any new Christians or not. He is saying (though perhaps without realizing it) that what he calls his "faith" is not worth talking about, or recommending to any one else.

Preaching and Bringing—
Our rather technical word "Gospel" means simply "Good News." That is what it is called in the New Testament. Not good advice, or good answers to sophists' riddles; just good news about God, about Jesus, about destiny. Luke gives us some interesting and valuable hints about how this Good News was broadcast in Jesus' own time and by his direction. One is in three words (Luke 8:1): Jesus came "preaching and bringing" the good news of the kingdom of God. The Gospel is not something just for talk. A tape-recorder can give out a sermon; but a tape-recorder cannot be a preacher of the Gospel. A minister who preaches on Sunday and disappears the rest of the week (if such there be) may be preaching the Gospel, but he is not bringing it. Jesus lived by what he preached. The good news can be told by a clever tongue; but it can be brought only by a consecrated life. What would be thought of a grocery store where, if you went in, you would see only empty shelves, and a flock of clerks who would button-hole you and tell you all about the wonderful groceries—that aren't there! And what can one think of a church where all you can find out about the love of God is just talk, and nobody brings the Gospel? The Gospel can't be brought in a little parcel you can tuck under your arm like a prayer-book. It has to be brought in a man-sized package, a live sample. After a few months you can buy a "demonstrator" car or tractor cheap; but a "demonstrator" Christian is beyond price.

Seed and Soil
You would think that if we could only get Jesus Christ in person, as he was in Galilee, into our church, we could convert everybody. Well, he didn't. No one ever brought or preached the Gospel better than he; but he did not meet with 100% success. He gave a reason for this that any farmer or gardener can understand. Preaching the Gospel is like sowing seed, he said. Sometimes when you look at your field you may find it hard to believe that the same seed was sown in both; but so it was. The difference is in the soil. In Hutton, Kansas, there is a grain elevator with a capacity of ten million bushels of wheat. Every bushel in the hundreds of bins can be traced back to the area where it grew. On the wall in the testing-laboratory of that elevator there is a map of Kansas, county by county; and the kind of wheat each county is producing this year, is marked there. The same seed wheat, in different weather or in different parts of the same county, may have different percent content or vary in number of bushels to the acre. So many people are better Gospel soil than others.

To Preach and to Heal

When Jesus sent out his disciples to preach, he sent them to heal too. Health is the church's business. Whatever affects the health of body, mind or soul is the church's affair. We preach and bring the Gospel, she has no right to say, "We preach is one, for you see, the good news about God transformed while evangelism it has changed the world for the better, for children, for the down-trodden nations." Which is only for some of the Gospel Jesus' preaching brought.

LEARNING TO SAY "Thank You"

As every parent knows, learning to say "thank you" is one of the elementary lessons in a child's home education. It is page one in the book of good manners. It is also one of the first lessons in a person's religious education. And here it is something more than mere good manners.

In every age man's spiritual insight can be measured by his readiness to recognize God as the source of strength and blessings, and by his eagerness to express his gratitude to the Almighty. No one has ever doubted the religious sincerity of our Pilgrim fathers: they gave us Thanksgiving Day.

Today, in a world hungry for spiritual leadership, how much depends on our faith in God... and our ability to turn to Him in gratitude and prayer!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest force for good in the world. It is the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THANKSGIVING

When we get ready to eat our big dinner Thursday and all seated around the table, our two nieces from Lexington, will say the blessing, then their mother and father will finish. This really puts the spirit into a Thanksgiving dinner to have a whole family telling God how thankful they are. So many of us are thankful for what we have, but we never tell anyone, not even God. We are generally so busy and in a hurry we don't take time. Thanksgiving Day next to Christmas should be our greatest holiday in this country. We should all be very thankful.

I received a note from Howard Blackburn up at Crutenden, telling me what a fine heating stove that new Perfection oil heater was and what a fine job Brewster did installing it and repairing the old one he had. Today Jerry Maxwell walked in the front door—was alone, everyone else had gone to lunch—he said as I was standing up in the front of the store, is that the new Perfection oil heater with the pilot light and automatic blower, and I showed him all about it, he asked how much, and I told him the price installed and told him we could install it today, so he said fix it up the check.

About that time Clay Kerns came in and told Jerry how wonderful they were as he and Edna have just like this one. Brewster and Red took a heated water fountain and a large flock feeder out to Mary K. Stephens and wired her poultry house. Now their hens can have light and warm water. Will they roll out the eggs. All Bill will have to do is keep the feeder and waterer full and gather the eggs.

A cold windy day—it rained and the wind blew. Most farmers were home putting down tobacco. Some are already finished. Bert Parker was asking Gilbert Groger when he could haul his tobacco to market. But Gilbert was busy hauling lumber for Mayhugh. The sales manager, Arthur Koch, for Stratton & Terstegge Company, Louisville, was up to see me today. He comes up once a year. We were talking about business and how hard it was to make a profit with all the expense large and small business firms have today. He just said I wonder if the people of this community appreciate the store and stock of hardware you have here. There are very few towns in this state the size of this one that have a hardware store anywhere near your store. I thanked him and told him I tried to make it better every year. He is such a fine fellow and he tries so hard to help his dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gadd over in Kenton county were over getting more material for the church they are building. Mrs. Baxter down at Richmond sent for a very nice order. Jerry Maxwell was in—he said that Perfection oil heater was so hot he had to burn it on low.

Today Brewster went down to Mrs. Kate Cade's to check her oil heater, then over to Mrs. Maddox's to check her oil heater, then over to Mrs. Cade's to check her oil heater. She wanted him to check her oil heater before she lit it. Check sold another used oil heater. Every day we sell some kind of a heating stove. Today we sold so many of those 39c plastic windows. They are 36x72 inches complete with strips and nails. A salesman who sells hunting knives, said he wanted to try two gallons of Jellied Magic paint—he has heard so much about it.

Mrs. Edith Owens, who is a neighbor to Russell Sparks bought a Warm Morning coal heater. Mrs. Claudia Ashcraft up at Bracht bought a coal and wood heater. Check sold both of these heaters, also sold a Perfection portable oil heater. We sold out of those 39c storm windows but have more on the way. Earl Metcalfe got a new pole light for his light between the house and barn. Don't ever carry that lantern to the barn when you can use electricity.

Bert Webster had a lot of excitement today—she was cleaning her house and fell over the sweater and broke the cord off at the sweater, then fire flew everywhere—later on she opened the refrigerator and something fell over and broke the light bulb, again fire flew—she unplugged the refrigerator and cleaned up the mess, then plugged it back in—then forgetting she had plugged it in, decided to take the remains of the bulb out of the socket so when she stuck the pliers in there the fire really did fly. I believe she is like the cat with nine lives—she never even got shocked.

A snowy Saturday and very few came to town—those that did, got their merchandise and hurried home. Mrs. Owen Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. DeMass were in a few minutes. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shields came after curtain rods to go over their new venetian blinds which Brewster just installed. Earl Moore and wife bought a Warm Morning heater for his mother. Mrs. Caldwell, down at Richmond, bought a small Eclair heater. Kaye Nicholson brought the electric motor off a pump pump he uses at work—we couldn't fix it but we called Leon Hall—he is the best we thing, and he found the trouble and fixed it in five minutes.

As I have told you before, when CONRAD'S crew can't fix it, he has some good mechanics handy that are generally busy but will help me out when we get stuck. Wensell Krouse bought some Jellied Magic paint—he is going to give it a try. This morning, Brewster and Red set up three coal heaters, then after lunch they took a Dayton water system and fittings to Raley Prother's farm at Keeler, Grant county, and installed it.

Bowling Attends The Collegiate Press Conference In Detroit

Miss Bert Bowling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bowling, Demosville, and a senior at Eastern Kentucky State College, spent November 17-19 in Detroit, Mich., attending the Associated Collegiate Press Conference. Miss Bowling is editor of the school paper, "The Eastern Progress," at Richmond.

The Associated Collegiate Press is a national organization for all college publications. Each year they have a convention in different parts of the United States. Eastern has sent representatives the last three years. All expenses are paid by the "Progress" fund. While attending the conference, representatives were taken on a tour of the Ford Motor Company and heard many interesting talks by well known newspapermen throughout the country. The General Motors Corporation and Chrysler Corporation both honored the group of young people with a banquet.

Since attending Eastern, Miss Bowling has been active in several campus organizations, including Y.W.C.A., Big Sisters Club, Westminster Fellowship, Millionaire Staff, College Social Committee and the Progress staff. She is an Elementary Education major and plans to teach after graduation in May, 1956.

Also attending the ACP conference with Miss Bowling were Tom McElfresh and Dolores Samson, both seniors at Eastern. Miss Samson is from Ashland, and Mr. McElfresh from Covington.

ALUMNI CLUB ORGANIZED HERE; DINNER PLANNED

About 35 graduates met in the cafeteria at the new Walton-Verona School, November 14 for the purpose of organizing an Alumni Club. There was representation from most every graduating class, dating back to about 1922.

WHITES TOWER

(For News—FL 7-5432)

Linda Ward of Covington, spent the past week with her grandmother, Mrs. Ryle, of the Tower.

Someone called to ask what became of the writup we were going to give of the residents of White Tower. The answer can be stated in three words, "No one called." The folks, by calling up and giving items of news is what makes a good column, and we would like to make this column just that. So call in your items, whether they seem important to you, they might interest your friends who are subscribers.

Mrs. Armstrong of Staffordburg, was a caller on the wife of this writer. Mrs. Armstrong is a pleasant visitor and the wife enjoyed her call very much.

Yog killing is the order of the day now, and probably more hogs will be butchered this year than ever before.

The new church in the Tower is now holding services in the basement of their church, which is fixed up very cozy and nice.

Sorry to hear that our neighbor, Prof. Perkins, has sold his residence and part of his farm here. However, Professor says he will be back as he has retained his holdings on part of the farm.

Earl Spanton is recovering from a temporary setback in his illness. He is at his home.

Miss Mary Cooper entertained with a surprise birthday party for Miss Edith Piper one day last week. The following guests were present: Mrs. Lucille Ryan, Mrs. Anabel Jacobs, Mrs. Lenore Piper, Mrs. Louise Vaughn, Mrs. Norma Corbin, Mrs. Margie Cooper, Mrs. Catherine Young, Mrs. Tittle, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Joe Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cooper and daughter, Janice, who have been visiting her sister-in-law on Mills Road. Every one enjoyed the day and were wishing Mrs. Piper many more such happy occasions.

Claude Denton of Walton, called on his friend, Bob Mathis, one day last week.

Tobacco is weighing out very light this year but the quality is the best ever. It will have to bring top prices if the growers are to be compensated for their time.

Bobby Webster was involved in an auto accident last week in which extensive damage to his car resulted. Luckily he had insurance to cover.

Glad to hear that Harold Pitcher is getting along fine after his operation and will soon be back home.

A letter from Lt. Richard Dorsey, who is in Japan, states that the weather there, which is in the extreme north-eastern part of that country, is getting very cold and snow falls of three and four feet are common.

Stray cattle have just about taken possession of the roadside pasture of the Tower, as for the past week, four stray head have been loose on the road and in Mr. Howard's field. We don't know who they belong to but they are taking an awful chance of them being killed by speeders. If you can't take care of your stock, sell them and let someone who cares take care of them.

The writer has a bushel and one half of black walnuts he was thinking of shipping but if anyone wants them for $1.50 per bushel, let's hear from them.

Bro. Bob Brumback and family and Thomas Brumback of Independence were Sunday guests of relatives in the Tower. The Rice family on Harris Pike are moving to the Gross farm this week.

A group of women from Amity Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Henry Binkle to study the mission book, "World Within A World." Mrs. Frank Kuriger, who was very efficient, taught the book. Those present were: Mesdames Albert Simmons, Johnny Penick, E. J. Ryle, Bob Brumback, Gene Wallace, Charles Foley, D. K. Lamb, Rembert Meyer, N. B. Foley, Cliff Marshall, Henry Binkle and guests, Mrs. C. Schnitzler of Kenton, and Mrs. Arnold Perry of Piner. The ladies enjoyed the session very much and were high in their praise of Mrs. Kuriger.

Earl Kendig has never found his colie pup, which came up missing a couple of weeks ago.

William Brumback, head of a trucking company in Cleveland, Ohio, was a visitor in the Tower, Saturday.

The opening of the addition to the White Tower Service Center will take place in a few days. Watch for day and date of this opening.

Are you wondering what to buy that relative or friend for Christmas? Well, here is our advice, after 74 years of experience—get him or her something they can use the year around and don't buy the cheapest, as that will be to your disadvantage, but something they can point out to their friends with pride for the whole year.

All members of the Belfry Homemakers Club in Pike county ordered hot frames for covering, some of them more than one.

In Hopkins county, 203 homemakers grew at least 15 varieties of vegetables the past summer and canned a total of 5,816 quarts.

His Demands

Lesson for December 4, 1955

CHRISTIAN living is not a matter of vague general good will. A character in a movie remarked: "I'm not a mean man. If I heard that my neighbor's children had been eaten by wolves, I would feel some regret." Well, of course that didn't make him a Christian. (He turned out to be the villain, by the way.) But there seems to be a number of church members and others who think that being a Christian calls for nothing more than being generally at peace with the world.

Like a turnip. Being a Christian is Dr. Foreman a far more demanding thing. And the demands are Christ's demands. He is not a trademark, a portrait of a Founder beaming on us benevolently from the wall. He is the living Christ, Son of Man and Son of God. He makes demands on his disciples, and he has a right to make them.

Discipleship

Those who were closest to Jesus in Galilee, those with whom he took the greatest pains, were called Disciples. Now the least that "disciple" can mean is "learner." The first demand that Christ makes on us who would call ourselves Christians, the demand preliminary to all others, is that we learn of him. We never should assume that we know all about Jesus—his character, his teaching, his purpose. It is a sobering question: How much of our behavior, our attitudes, our thinking in various fields, our relationships with other people—how much of this did we learn from Jesus, and how much did we copy from other persons, and how much is our own invention?

Decision

Another demand Christ makes of us is decision. This in three ways: decision for him, decision about him, decision with him. It is especially these last two that are highlighted in this week's passages from Luke. The decision for Christ is the point at which one begins to be a disciple. But besides learning, the Christian disciple has to decide, and act accordingly, about some questions that affect him vitally. One is the decision about Christ which Jesus pushed on his disciples. "Who do you say that I am?" Jesus put this question only after they had been disciples for some time. (Why?) But it can be answered at any time, and it must be answered true to the name "Christian." How seriously do we take Jesus Christ? That depends on what answer we give to his question: What do we think of him? Who and what is he? The more fully we know his importance, the more seriously we shall take him. Is he a dreamer, a poet, an impractical idealist? Is he a child of his age, important then, but now such a man as we can safely neglect? Is he a noble thinker, a stirring leader of men? Or is he, as Peter dared to believe, the Son of the living God? Does he come to us with the authority of one man's opinion, or does he speak as an ancient sage, or does he speak with the wisdom of the Almighty? He demands a decision.

Denial of Self

Now if we have answered the first two demands, for discipleship and for decision, we may be ready for the third demand. (This is the decision with him, spoken of just now.) We shall pay very little attention to this if we have not rightly met the other two. If we are not true learners we shall not even hear this, or we shall misunderstand it. If we think less of Christ than we ought to think, then this demand will seem egoistic, unreasonable, suicidal. It is only the Son of God who has the right to make such a demand. It is for nothing less than denial of self. There is a cheap substitute for this which is sometimes mistaken for it. It is called "self-denial" and may mean "giving more than going without ice cream" or a while, doing without some luxuries or other. Denial of self is something different entirely. Jesus puts it in terms of a cross. To take up a cross was to be ready on the last mile. To deny the self means to cease being one's own center of interest. It means "have thyself as a means dying to oneself, as Paul put it, and live to God. It means, "Not I, but Christ, live in me."

Through the Centuries...

Through cold, snow-covered fields, underneath ice-encrusted trees, the river runs its course.

This brings to mind the Christian Church. It was founded upon the teachings of Jesus who lived His life and did His work unperturbed by the coldness of many of His fellowmen and of the ruling officials. He knew that His work would stand because it was founded upon truth. It not only stood, but has flowed steadily on for centuries. It is still going on today in His churches.

If you do not attend church services why not go this coming Sunday, and identify yourself with this steady flow of the best for which life stands?

There is always room in the river for one more drop of water. There is always room in the Church for one more worshiper.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Cats Trounce Dayton, Lose to Campbell Co.

This week has been a big event in basketball circles in this area with Simon Kenton winning two big ones, from Bracken County and smothering their arch rival Walton-Verona.

On the other hand the Bearcats had three games this past week, winning one from Dayton, 83 to 63 for one of their best games in this early season. They dropped two, one to Campbell County and the other to Simon Kenton.

The Pioneers look like a well-balanced ball club which will be hard to beat. The Bearcats are potent on offense, but their defense is weak and that was their downfall.

Simon Kenton 91, Walton-Verona 60

The Simon Kenton Pioneers registered a 91-60 victory over Walton-Verona High School, Tuesday night, at Walton. The Pioneers of the NKAC led throughout but had their toughest time in the second period when the losers rolled for an eight-point deficit. The scores at the quarter stops were: 23-13, 39-31 and 70-42, all in favor of the winners.

Simon Kenton: Ruelbel 6, Silvers 6, Martelli 24, Gosney 7, Bruckner 14, Elliott 6, Vaughan 8, Butler 12, and Plogeman 8.

Walton-Verona: Hinds 9, Menke 9, T. Poole 1, B. Poole 8, Simpson 5, Poore 17, Hon 2, Lunsford 6, Rouse 3. Simon Kenton won the reserve game 34 to 25.

Campbell County 65, Walton-Verona 47

The Campbell County Cats chalked up their second straight victory in as many games last Thursday night by defeating the Walton-Verona Bearcats 65 to 47 in a basketball game played on the winners' floor.

The Cats, behind Asere, were leading 18-15 at the end of the first quarter and then jumped 26 points in the second quarter to lead 44-22 at the half. Campbell County held a 52-34 margin at end of three quarters.

Asere had 19 points and was assisted by Reinhardt, who had 12 for the winners. Porter tallied 23 points for the losers.

The Campbell County reserves eked out a 24-22 victory in the preliminary game.

Walton-Verona 83, Dayton 63

Walton-Verona of the Pensacola Conference defeated the Dayton Greendevils in the NKAC, last Friday night at Walton, 83 to 63.

The locals jumped into a commanding 25-15 lead in the first quarter. The winners increased the lead to 44-32 at halftime. Dayton outscored the Cats in the second quarter to trail 44-22 at the half. Campbell County held a 52-34 margin at end of three quarters.

Walton-Verona—Hinds 26, Menke 8, Simpson 2, B. Poole 11, Poore 36. Dayton—Miller 2, Schory 6, Szymmunch 2, Kindred 8, Williams 31, Halstedler 12, Buckley 2.

The Walton-Verona reserves won the preliminary game 53-32.

Simon Kenton 67, Bracken County 60

Simon Kenton's Pioneers returned to the top column by noosing out the Polar Bears of Bracken County, 67-60, last Friday night at Independence. It was the fifth win in six games for the Kenton counties.

Shirley Elliott tossed in eight points in the first period as the Pioneers took over on 18-15 lead. Florer had 10 for the losers' points in the period. The home team, with Bruckner scoring five points, held a one-point advantage in the second period, 19-18, to lead 37-33 at the half.

The losers outscored the home team 17-14 in the third period to trail 51-50 as the final period got under way. Tally led the Bracken team in the third period with eight points. In the final quarter, the Cats engaged the Pioneers in a close battle and held it the remainder of the game.

Simon Kenton—Ruelbel 8, Silvers 5, Gosney 0, Bruckner 21, Elliott 14, Vaughan 4, Butler 15.

Bracken County—Lunsford 13, Poe 14, Tally 12, Minnao 6, Florer 19. Simon Kenton won the reserve game 31 to 25.

Sunday School Lesson
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

My Neighbor

Lesson for December 11, 1955

TWO cart-drivers in China were trying to get up a muddy hill. Each driver's cart was stuck in the mud, almost side by side. Each man was beating his own scrawny horse, but the wheels were stuck fast. Along came an American. "Why don't you unhitch one horse," he said, "and hitch him to the other cart? Then the two horses might get the cart out of the mud!" The carters were astonished. They had never thought of that. But they did as the stranger said, and sure enough they both got to the top of the hill. That true story, told by a missionary, shows two things at once. One is that in countries where Christianity has had a chance to get around, some simple Christian ideas get taken for granted, such as helping your neighbor when he is in trouble. The other is that where Christianity is unknown, even so simple a thing as getting together to pull out of the mud, comes as a strange new idea.

Who Is My Neighbor?

Now if those two Chinese carters had been father and son, or brother and brother, they might have thought of helping each other, for in China nothing is too good for members of your family. But we have no great right to make fun of the Chinese. All of us are inclined to draw pretty hard lines and to think—Outside those lines I have no neighbors. Inside the lines, yes, we understand pretty well what neighborliness is. "Love thy neighbor as thyself," is a commandment not too hard to understand, for we know what it is to love ourselves, that comes all too naturally. We like to get ahead, to cushion ourselves from danger and if possible from discomfort, we consult our own interests. Loving one's neighbor as oneself just means looking out for him in the same careful ways, thinking ahead for him, promoting him. We understand what neighborliness is, yes. We do not confuse it with being meddling. If you want to know as much about your neighbor as you do about yourself, you aren't being a neighbor but a nuisance. If you do for your neighbor what he can very well do, ought to do and maybe wants to do for himself, then you are not treating him like a neighbor.

Neighbors Out of Sight

Jesus' famous parable of the Good Samaritan shows that having neighbors is easy, in fact you can't help it; but that the important thing is being a neighbor. It means more than living in "peaceful co-existence" and not bothering each other, but active co-operation and help, of those who need help. Wherever there is a person in trouble whom we can help, there is a neighbor. In our time the world has grown closer together than it was in Jesus' time. If there had been a famine in India, the good Samaritan would never have known it, or if he had, he could have done nothing about it. Now if there is a famine in India we hear about it as soon as the Indians can, and we can do something about it too. When farmers in a church in Iowa, for instance, send a helper to a farmer in some out-of-the-way or devastated part of the world across a wide ocean, that is being a neighbor, modern-style for a modern world.

What We Haven't Figured Out

There are many problems we haven't worked out yet, in this business for acting as good neighbors. For example: What is the wisest way to be neighbor to people of different race from our own? How can a mill-worker be a neighbor to the stockholders, or how can the stockholders be neighborly to the workers? When a corporation, in the process of expansion, throws 500 persons out of work at one time, is there any way in which those who are employed by the corporation can be neighbors to those who have lost their positions? How can we be neighbors to people who resent us? How far can we go in helping people without turning them into "moochers" and beggars? How can Christians in one denomination be neighbors to those in another? And one more question: Is it possible for non-Christians to be as good neighbors, in Jesus' sense of the word, as Christians can be?

"SO WITH PRAYER..."

The sure and nimble touch of the hands of a great pianist is the result of hours of daily practice over a period of years. The great and thrilling music which he creates is the product of daily devotion to his art.

Every fine accomplishment in life requires the same daily devotion. If your house is neat as a pin, if you have a lovely garden, if your office is well-run and efficient, you know that it takes hours of daily care and devotion.

So with prayer. Prayer is one of the highest gifts a man has. But if it is to become more than a spasmodic and superstitious cry for help, it too requires daily care and devotion. It takes practice!

The Church stands ready to help you and your children know the great joy which comes to a man through daily prayer. And the best part of it is, the more you practice prayer, the greater the joy and happiness you will derive from it.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a powerhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) children's sake, (2) for his own sake, (3) for the sake of his community and nation, (4) for the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Farm Facts

by Wm. C. Johnstone

GREENER PASTURES. Kentucky's hills have been beautiful this fall. Ample rains and mild temperatures have produced an excellent cover of grass and small grain. On most farms there is adequate hay and feed crops are low thereby affecting to some extent the continued drop in farm prices. Those of us who have been interested in Kentucky's pastures are delighted with the results.

The 1955 alfalfa seed crop is reported the largest on record and it like fescue and some other important seeds, is expected to be relatively cheap. Next spring should be favorable for seeding hay and pasture crops.

was confined to a few acres on the Mendee county farms of William Suter and neighbors. Now it is furnishing low-cost feed to more Kentucky livestock than any other crop.

KENTUCKY'S OPPORTUNITIES. Last month as I crossed the eastern corn belt states of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and saw the vast level fields of corn, soybeans and small grain and the contrast with the hills of Kentucky, I again realized that most of Kentucky's farmers cannot compete with these areas in row-crop farming. Our opportunities lie in the development of more and better pastures 31 years ago this grass and their efficient use by cattle and sheep. Fortunately, livestock can be supplemented with tobacco, and in a few areas with fruit, vegetables and poultry, but by and large, Kentucky's farm economy will rest upon grazing types of livestock. These opportunities carry with them two old problems—small farms and inadequate capital because it takes larger than average farms and a lot of capital to "livestock" a farm.

DON'T WASTE SEED. Recent experiments confirm the fact that high rates of seeding are not necessary to get good stands of grass and legumes provided weather, fertility and seedbed preparation are satisfactory. At the New York Experiment Station no increase in yields was obtained by using more than six pounds of an adapted variety of alfalfa to the acre. Four pounds of timothy likewise produced greater yields than higher rates. Kentucky farmers can cut excessive seedings by giving more attention to proper seeding rates and higher fertility levels.

The 1955 alfalfa seed crop is reported the largest on record and it like fescue and some other important seeds, is expected to be relatively cheap. Next spring should be favorable for seeding hay and pasture crops.

ONE CYLINDER KNOCKS. America's economy has been likened to a multi-cylindered motor with labor, capital, transportation, agriculture, commerce, and so forth, each representing one of the cylinders or related mechanism. Like a motor, when one part goes wrong the smooth operation of the whole engine is affected. At this time many think they can hear a severe "knock" in one cylinder of the engine—that represented by agriculture. Although only 14% of our population are now classed as farmers many fear that their financial troubles may spread to other segments of our economy.

this plea, the Kentuckians are running into a strong fight from the delegates representing wealthier states.

However, the Kentuckians are pointing out at every opportunity that Federal aid is an absolute necessity. They also are saying that Kentucky, through the minimum foundation program, is doing its utmost to the solution of its own problem.

Where's The Money?

Before coming to Washington a group of Kentuckians surveyed possible sources of revenue for schools. They pointed to four—a general retail sales tax, special sales tax, a gross receipts tax, and the removal of the federal income tax deduction from the state returns.

No preference was indicated. Delegates just pointed out that some revenue sources remain.

What Others Say:

In pushing for federal aid, Kentuckians are running into two principal arguments. One, the states can levy the same taxes as the federal government levies. Two, high administrative costs and extravagance makes a federal aid program too expensive.

Of course, the old familiar argument will prevail—that federal aid to education would lead to federal control of education.

And so the argument goes at the White House Conference on Education.

ANTIBIOTICS GOOD FOR YOUNG CALVES

Since it has been established that adding small quantities of antibiotics to rations improves the growth of chickens and hogs, the Experiment Station of the University of Kentucky has conducted studies on the value of antibiotics in calf feeds. These studies have involved over 100 calves. Following is the statement on the results of the investigations.

"1. The antibiotics, aureomycin and terramycin, stimulate the growth rate of the calves for the first 12 weeks of life about 10 to 20 percent. There appears to be little difference between these antibiotics.

"2. These antibiotics increase the appetite of the calves, which makes them slightly more 'hardy' and increases their total consumption of feed.

"3. Calves fed antibiotics are slightly more efficient (feed required per pound of gain) than calves not fed antibiotics.

"4. Antibiotics tend to reduce the incidence of calf scours. In our studies, calf scours have rarely been a problem, but antibiotics did aid in scours prevention when scours was a problem. Research work at other stations indicates that antibiotics do reduce the incidence of calf scours.

On the basis of these results, as well as on considerable data obtained elsewhere, it appears that either aureomycin or terramycin should be included in all calf feeds that are to be fed to calves under 16 weeks of age. Beyond this age little benefit can be derived from the feeding of antibiotics.

Cooking Pork

Do you know how to cook pork? asks Mrs. Nancy Galt, Home Demonstration Agent of Boone county. To make the most of the plentiful pork supplies on the market, the U. S. Department of Agriculture suggests cooking aimed at tender texture, fine flavor, the least possible shrinkage and conserving all possible nutritive value.

Fresh pork needs to be cooked "dine" all the way through to bring out rich flavor and as a safety measure. But Department cookery specialists explain that thorough cooking doesn't mean overcooking or cooking at such high heat that the meat is dry and hard, thus unappetizing. Low cooking temperatures are recommended to help save nutrients and the juiciness that makes this meat such good eating. An important point to remember is that pork is safely done when all traces of pink color have disappeared. One check on doneness is to insert a fork deep into the thickest part of the piece and make sure that the juice it draws out has no trace of pink.

For roasting an oven temperature of 325 F. is recommended. Place the roast in an uncovered shallow pan, fat side up for self-basting. Add no water. Season either before or after cooking. Here's how long to allow for doneness: In an oven at 325 F. a small pork loin at 2 to 3 pounds takes about 1 1/2 to 2 hours; a 5 to 7 pound loin, 3 to 4 hours; a 6 to 8 pound fresh ham, 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours. If these cuts are bones and rolled, allow 10 minutes more a pound. Also allow more time if the meat is very cold. Braising and pan-frying are favorite ways of cooking such cuts as spareribs and porkchops. Here again the low temperature rule is recommended. In braising, first brown the meat in fat to improve flavor and add color. Then add a small amount of water, cover the pan, and cook slowly until the meat is thoroughly done. In pan frying, keep the temperature fairly low to moderate and cook long enough for thorough doneness. Cuts with a high percentage of fat like bacon, sausage and some chops need no extra fat for frying. Start these in a cold fry pan, cook slowly and fry in the fat from the meat.

TOBACCO

Tobacco seems to be the big subject now—in the store, on the street, and in the newspapers. The price is doing very well; the tobacco is light, and there is talk of a 15% cut next year. Everyone, so far, is well pleased with the price this year, but they can't all sell at once. Tobacco is our big crop and more money per acre than most anything you can raise, with the least effort. I remember when Dad sold 20,000 pounds for $1200 and we plowed it three times, hauled it twice and succeeded it twice, and we only got half, which was $600—same price!

A cold, snowy day and people hunting extra stores to help out their heating system. We sold several small gas heaters, three portable electric heaters, four wood heaters and six portable electric heaters. Bobby Slayback bought Jellied Magic paint for his new house. Brewster made several service calls, trying to keep everyone warm. John Wood and Andy Jarman were here after electric motors, belts and pipe fittings—when it gets cold the service men really get busy, because some people never get ready until it gets cold.

Brewster had to make two trips over to Miss Don's at Fiskburg, to get her oil heater corrected. Mrs. Rivard, over beyond Banklick, had to have him check over her oil heater. So many burn an oil heater on low so much that it carbons up and then when they turn it up higher they get no heat because it is full of carbon and generally the carbons have formed a hard crust over the fuel line. We sold out of our 9x12 linoleum rug. Harley Tippitt bought a 9x12 linoleum rug, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell who live first house on Banklick Road, bought enough hardware cloth to make a screen to go around the heating stove to keep the children from getting burned. Lillian Powell bought a clothes drying rack, clothes line and clothes pins—she is going to ski a washing. Mrs. Ben Snow bought an iron board, pad and cover, also a stove board. I sold several gifts today, such as aluminum ware, plastic pans, Kersey copper lantern pans, dishes, portable band mixer, electric clocks, iron board, pressure cooker, butcher knife, pin-up lamp, bird cage, clothes hamper, G.E. steam iron, G.E. radio, iron chicken fryer, and lots of small articles.

John Wood and Jess Callen came after a water system, pipe fittings and plastic pipe—they are putting water in Mrs. Viola Wright's place at Banklick. Ed Walton called for us to send him up a 2 horse sled and several lard cans. Bill Scroggin came over and had Brewster make him two large clevises for stretching. He also had him make a set of American fence stretchers. Harry Armstrong from White Tower, was over today. Elizabeth Matthews Samuels got an oil heater.

Brewster went to Lon Wilson's to check on their new coal heater they had just bought—OK. Then he went over to Vernon to Claude Sturgeon's to clean their portable oil heater. John Beck and son from Dutchman, were in, they bought an electric water heater to heat 100-gallon tank of water for the chickens. Also bought electric tape to wrap the water pipes to keep them from freezing. You spiral this tape around the pipe and plug it in, an electric socket. We have sold lots of this tape in the last three years—it works fine—it put on correctly.

Mrs. Margaret Smith from Beaver, was here and bought several hardware items. Brewster went over to see about Mrs. Ethel Sheppard's water heater—she thought she had a leak, but she didn't; then he went to Fiskburg to J. B. Spigall's to service his water pump but no one was home, and he could not get in. Boyd Courtney was in with a big smile—his tobacco averaged above 59 cents, clear. He said he saw three fellows with an average above 62 cents. Jack Rouse got a good price for the sixteenthths of an acre he raised. Several have already been in and paid their accounts.

I have always said when a farmer makes some money nearly everyone of them will pay their debts and buy something for the farm and home. Helen Stephenson and her mother, Mrs. Clifford Mann, were looking over the Christmas toys—we have a wonderful selection of good toys this year and not a lot of junk. Henry Gilvin over on Bowman Road, bought a small gas heater. Another fellow came in for a small wood heater and a buck saw—he said he was burning oil but needed a little more these cold days, so he was going to burn up some wood he had to help out his oil heater.

All you ladies who cook with gas and have a cold kitchen, get one of these cheap gas heaters to set right by your cook stove. Myra and Jean Crouch were in today—Myra had Brewster repair his water pump he had brought along Saturday, and we sold a lot of tops. Several were in paying their accounts and some were looking at heating stoves. Ray Houston at the Rice apartments bought a 9x12 linoleum rug. Harley Tippitt bought a 9x12 linoleum rug, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell who live first house on Banklick Road, bought enough hardware cloth to make a screen to go around the heating stove to keep the children from getting burned. TRAINING IN KANSAS

Army Private John W. Scott

Army Private John W. Scott, 18, son of Walton Scott, Walton, is training with the 1st Infantry Division at Fort Riley, Kansas. Scott has been in the Army since October of this year.

Verona Homemakers

Verona Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Iva Vest, with Mrs. Crowe as hostess, for the Christmas party. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Davis. After the business session, Mrs. Frances McCormick had the devotional and had the grace song. The meeting was then adjourned for dinner.

After dinner, Christmas carols were sung and games played. Mrs. McCormick read some of the old minutes of the club, when it first started, which was enjoyed by all. Then it was time for the exchange of gifts. Santa failed to appear this year, so Mr. Hamilton got on your sleigh and don't disappoint us any more. After the gifts and lots of well satisfied recipients of gifts, roll call was answered by the following:

Mrs. Pearl Lamb, Mrs. Lizzie Noel, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mrs. Stanley Davis, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Minnie Fooks, Mrs. Frances McCormick, Mrs. May Wilson, Miss Guilfoil, Mrs. Burdett, Mrs. Grove, Mrs. Iva Vest, and Mrs. Lillian Stephenson. Visitors were Vicky Leek and Mrs. Burchett's son. Mrs. Burchett was added as a new member. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Stanley Fooks. Members who were sick were missed. All members are urged to be present next month. Visitors are always welcome.

Cantata at Methodist Church

WHITES TOWER

For News—FL 7-5432

Mrs. Lou Ryle of the Tower, was in Covington, Wednesday shopping for her four children, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, which makes it quite a job.

Mrs. Floyd Smith of the Tower, has been taking treatments for a Covington physician for arthritis in the right arm and shoulder. We wish for her early recovery.

We hear that our old friend, Mr. Acra, of Acra Store, has purchased the Deities Market at 36th and Decoursey in Latonia, and will take over Jan. 1.

We understand the "P.O." Department is considering seriously a having a foot carrier for the Keeney subdivision which now has about the proper number of plots for a grant of that kind.

Natural gas will soon be extended to Latonia Lakes, we learn from a reliable source.

The Brumback family of Independence, was very disconsolate one day last week when their pet dog was killed by a speeding motorist, in front of the Post Office.

The stray cattle have disappeared from the Tower and have probably been properly attended to by their owner, for which everyone is thankful.

The Swindler funeral home was putting out their 1955 calendar in this vicinity Tuesday. These calendars are very informative for the farmers and they look forward to their distribution as they contain all the information and record keeping space for the farmer for the whole year. Thanks, T. M. and Company for your thoughtfulness.

Wanda Easby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Easby and Bobby Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Webster, all of the Tower, were married at Lawrenceburg, Ind., last Saturday. We wish them a long life and much happiness.

Mrs. Edna Crowder of Latonia Lakes has returned home from the hospital but will have to return there for an operation when she has gained some strength.

We extend our sympathy to Alf B. Hymer and wife in the death of the former's mother. Alf lost his father about six months ago. Rumor has it that a huge new shopping center will be underway near the Tower. Last week we noticed a huge number of bulldozers and graders between the Tower and Nicholson which surely adds credit to the news we had heard.

STAFFORDSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. George Fennell, Jr. are rejoicing over the arrival of an advance Christmas gift, in the form of a little son, born at 3 a. m., Sunday, Congratulation!

The sale of the effects of Mrs. Ida Hoffman, deceased, was very well attended and considered successful.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were very agreeably surprised by a visit on Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children, Louise and Lynn, visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. E. Hanna, for the past several days.

Sorry we can't report Miss Minnie Rapp as improved. However, Leslie Damon came Monday, C. Faulkner of Rapp Road was quite ill at St. Elizabeth Hospital. We wish them all a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Flo Summey entertained on Saturday evening at the church with a bridal shower for her nephew, Ronald Loeys, and his bride. Quite a number of friends came, bringing beautiful and useful gifts. After the gifts were unwrapped and admired, delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Hanna and Mrs. House assisted the hostess.

The Staffordsborg Homemakers Club will meet at the church on Tuesday for their lesson on cake decorating. The W.S.C. met on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett. The business meeting was followed by the program which consisted of a Christmas story—Gaspard, one of the wise men. Mrs. J. A. Keeney gave a talk on the Russian study book "South of the Himalayas." Next meeting with Mrs. Denver Ballinger. Had a good attendance at Sunday School. The basketball team seems to be having fine luck.

Man of Prayer

Lesson for December 18, 1955

SOME people will try to tell you that we can learn nothing from the fact that Jesus was a man of prayer. He was so different from us, they say, that we must no more try to imitate him than to imitate Einstein. This is not the way the New Testament looks at it, not the way Christian theology looks at it. Jesus "had to be made like his brethren in every respect," we are told in Hebrews 2:17. The church theologians call Christ "consubstantial with us according to his manhood," which is a way of saying that he is every bit as human as we are. Without sin, to be sure. The only prayer for forgiveness which he ever uttered was on behalf of others, not himself. If even the sinless Son of God was a man of prayer, surely we who are so imperfect and sinful need prayer even more, and we can learn about prayer from him.

The Motive of Prayer
One thing stands out: Jesus' motive or motives for praying must have been far stronger than the motive of most of us. Jesus would go without sleep or rest in order to pray. He, a man who had many friends and loved to have people around him, would withdraw from all human companions, would go far into the hills, would climb a high mountain, just in order to find a place where he could pray without interruption. In short, he took a great deal of trouble to pray. We take less trouble, because we don't feel the strong desire that he felt. But why? What was his motive? It is not so mysterious that we cannot give it a name, though it is too profound for us to fathom it to the depths. It was his heart's desire for close and closer sharing of heart and life with the heart and life of the heavenly Father. Jesus shows no sign of needing to "get right" with God. He was in full harmony to his life's end. But his prayers were an expression of that harmony. The piano tuner makes the strings of the instrument ring true; but the musician then brings out the beauty that is there when all is in tune.

The Manner of Prayer
Dr. W. D. Chamberlain has written a book for plain Christians called "The Manner of Prayer," based on the Lord's Prayer. This is no place to borrow many pages from that fine book. Yet a word should be said about the manner of Jesus' prayer in general. We know that he used to attend the synagogue meetings, and we know that in those meetings formal (what we would call "printed") prayers were used, in which no doubt Jesus would join. But we hear a great deal more about his private prayers, and we can be pretty sure that for these occasions he never took a prayer-book with him. His prayers were personal, individual, they were free, and many of them were fully private, strictly between himself and His Father. This much is clear for our own prayer-practice: whatever formal prayers we may use in church, or wherever may be praying there for us (and with us, if "leading" in prayer means anything), this can be no substitute for personal, private prayer. We must never be tied down to any formula, as if God were something like a bureaucrat who would not consider a communication not in proper form! God wants to know most of all not how we say it but how much we mean it.

The Matter of Prayer
What things is it right to pray for? We can be sure of this right at least: It is always right to pray for the kind of thing which is in harmony with the "Lord's Prayer." Incidentally, the fact that this prayer appears in more than one form in the Gospels shows that it can hardly be said to insist on one set form of words. Things no mentioned in that prayer, perhaps yes, are things out of line with it, no. For the reader consider which of the objects of prayer are in line with the Lord's prayer. A person in one's job? Greater spiritual strength? The cure of an afflicted loved one? Foreign missions? Unborn children? The President of the United States? The elimination of a rival in love or business?

INTO THE DULL ROUTINE

There was little excitement in a shepherd's life. Long, uneventful days beneath the hot sun on a grassy hillside. Long, lonely nights, still and shadowy as the moon rode slowly among the clouds. All the monotony of a million lives today. But into the dull routine of a shepherd's life came the vision that has captivated the imagination of man for two thousand years. An angelic voice saying, "Fear not." A heavenly host singing, "Glory to God and peace." The startling proclamation of the Savior's birth! The message still comes with brightness and joy to all whose lot it is to labor, to endure, to wait. And the Church, preaching the Truth of the One born that night in Bethlehem, calls men from the dreariness of worldly pursuits to see this Thing which has come to pass, which the Lord made known unto a band of bored shepherds centuries ago.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are 'lost souls' everywhere who every person should seek to win for Christ. They are (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and spiritual support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Growers of Burley To Vote On Quotas Thursday, Dec. 29

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has proclaimed marketing quotas for burley tobacco for the next three marketing years and let December 29 at the date for the required referendum among growers. Marketing quotas have been in effect for burley tobacco each year since 1939 but can be continued only if approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting December 29.

Under existing law, no price supports can be made available on any crop of tobacco for which growers disapprove marketing quotas.

The national burley tobacco marketing quota proclaimed for 1956 is 365 million pounds. When converted to acreage on the basis of average yields for the five years, 1950-54, the quota makes available about 263,350 acres for farm acreage allotments. This means that most farm acreage allotments for 1956 will be about 15% smaller than in 1955, when the quota was 334 million pounds and the allotments totaled 310,000 acres.

Most producers already growing one-half acre or less will not be affected by the reduced quota requirements, since under the law no farm burley allotment can be reduced below 1 1/2 acre. On the other hand, (2) the allotment established the previous year, or (3) 10% of the cropland, whichever is smallest.

In Kenton county, approximately 1,000 growers are eligible to vote in the referendum, according to Russell Rector, chairman of the county ASC committee. Polling places will be located at the Independence Courthouse, Fishburg Hall, and Schuler's Store at Barlow. Polls will be open at 9:00 a. m. and close at 5:00 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

Citizenship Is Topic Of Guest Speaker at Kenton F.H.A. Meet

On December 8, the Simon Kenton F.H.A. Chapter met and had as guest speaker, H. B. Noel, Social Science instructor at Simon Kenton High School. The topic of Mr. Noel's speech was, "A Citizen In A Democracy."

The following are highlights of his talk. A good citizen in a democracy wants to be informed, whereas a citizen in a country ruled by a dictator is not informed. Ways to be informed are through reading good books, good magazines, newspapers, attending lectures and sermons, and listening to the radio and watching television programs. A citizen knows where to draw the line between good and bad. He is honest in all dealings with his fellow man. Life is a game, played by rules of honesty, and if so played, is a successful life. A good citizen recognizes his rights, but along with every right there is a duty. With the right to vote comes the duty to vote, with the right to attend church comes the duty to attend church. These are just a few of our rights, but always remember that where there is a right to do something, there is always the duty to see that it is done. Happiness doesn't just happen—you must pursue it.

Girls of the chapter enjoyed the talk of Mr. Noel very much. He was presented with the flower of the organization, the American Beauty red rose, and a box of chocolate candy.

Eight demonstrations in milking strawberries were given by the county agent in Laurel county.

Raymond Perry of Latonia Lakes was a business visitor at the farm Saturday evening.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Johnny Conklin, an old neighbor of ours when we lived in Latonia.

Rev. Bob Brumback and family of Florence, have moved to Latonia Lakes, so as to be near Amity Baptist Church, of which he is pastor.

We had to buy a new heater, as the one we had was not large enough to heat only three rooms and we have five. So we have a first class heater for three rooms for $20 and this heater cost $75 and it is in good shape, with pipe, floor mat and everything. If you want it you will have to hurry as we are sacrificing because we have no room for storage. You can look it over on the front porch at Bide-A-Wee Farm this weekend.

Rev. Bob Brumback and family and his brother, Tommy, of Independence, were guests of the writer and wife, on Sunday.

Mildred L. Morgan or Riggs Road, was a visitor to the Tower, Sunday.

Members of the Stringtown Homemakers Club and their husbands enjoyed a gala Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roberts, Utz Drive, Florence, at 4:30 p. m., December 11. After a delicious buffet dinner, many varied and pretty gifts were exchanged around a brightly lighted Christmas tree. Jimmy Laffan took pictures of the couples as a remembrance of the happy occasion. A full schedule of games was enjoyed by all and the spirit of the holiday was present.

Two things that make for SAFER driving!

The first and most important thing is you—the driver. As the highway safety organizations and law enforcement agencies point out, the courtesy, care, and common sense you show count more than anything else. You can drive any car safely — or foolishly.

The second thing is the car itself. All cars are safer today. That's shown by the number of accidents in relation to the number of miles passenger cars are driven. The figure's been going down steadily and sharply.

Chevrolet engineers and designers have always made your safety a major consideration, introducing many such features as the all-steel top, safety plate glass all around, and windshield-wide defrosters into the low-price field. And this '56 Chevrolet is the safest one ever built.

Its lively new power means safer passing. Its special Ball-Race steering—the oversize brakes with Anti-Dive control—the Unisteel construction and safety door latches of its Fisher Body—the nailed-to-the-road stability that comes from outrigger rear springs, an advanced suspension system and better balance—the sweeping panoramic windshield — all these things add to your safety.

Seat belts with or without shoulder harness? Instrument panel padding? Of course, they're available at extra cost on your new Chevrolet. But the best protection of all is to keep out of accidents in the first place. And that depends mostly on you and the built-in safety of your car.

As your Chevrolet dealer, we'll be glad to show you the many safety features of the '56 Chevrolet.

Christmas Songs

Lesson for December 25, 1955

DID the angels sing when Christ was born? Some prosaic and unimaginative people say they didn't. True enough, Luke never says there was music. All he says is that the "multitude of the heavenly host" (he does not even say they were angels) were praising God and "saying, Glory to God in the high and lofty place." Surely Christian art and Christian story is not wrong in thinking of this as song, not mere recitation or speech-making. At any rate, if the angels did not sing such words, the church has sung them. All down through the Christian centuries Christmas has been a singing time. You cannot suggest all that Christmas means in simple spoken prose; you have to sing.

Dr. Foreman

Beauty in a Jangled World

Luke, who had an ear for such things, put into his gospel not less than four poems connected with the birth of Christ. Of these the "Glory in the highest" is the shortest. The others are the words of Mary (Luke 1:47-55), of Zechariah (1:67-79) and of Simeon (chap. 2:29-32). In the RSV these are printed as poetry, as they really are. (The reader will note other poetic passages, but these are the four most famous ones.) The church has set all these to music many times over, and in some churches they are sung every week. Mary's song like the others has been given a Latin name, from their first words in the Latin Bible: "Magnificat" for Mary's song, "Benedictus" for Zechariah's, "Gloria in excelsis" for the angels, and "Nunc Dimittis" for Simeon's. But modern churchgoers do not always realize that each of these poems was called forth in some way by the birth of Jesus. This is as it should be. What poetry is to language and to sound, the coming of Christ is to this world of humanity. In the midst of all the jangling, wrangling, maddening and often meaningless noise of the world, in the midst of all the stupid ordinary soon-forgotten outpouring of talk, talk, talk, a lovely poem comes bringing beauty and meaning like a rose to a junk yard. So in the midst of our jangling world Christ comes bringing meaning and joy and peace.

Some Will Not Listen

To some—too many—Christmas means nothing. "Midnight" is a tune to be tired of, nothing more. The angels might as well never have sung, the story never written. Readers of TIME magazine will recall that in the last July 18 about a writer who is typical of many men and women in these times. He knows there is such a thing as the way of Love, for every cross on every church proclaims it, and every Christmas carol sings it. But he will not accept it. He chooses the way of defiance and despair. To him, life is a wandering in the dark, with nothing but his own candle which will soon go out.

But Some Have Heard

On the other hand there are many, and among them some of mankind's best, who have found, in the Christian faith, something more than merely a story, a lovely legend, a song for little children, something which it would be pleasant, but impossible to believe. A good book to get for the new year is one called "This I Believe about Jesus Christ," edited by J. C. Monsma, Revell & Co., New York. It is a collection of testimonies to Jesus Christ, by an impressive variety of men and women. College presidents, executives of great business firms, scientists, poets, actors ought to read this book. Any one who thinks that Christ is attractive only to children might well read this book and learn better. The writers by their testimonies show that not alone for ancient and legend-loving times, not only for simple peasants in primitive lands, but for modern men, hard-boiled, highly educated, burdened with great responsibilities, Christ brings meaning and beauty as well as peace. Strong voices in every land join the heavenly host in praise to God who has given us his Son.

CHRISTMAS IN OUR HEARTS

"... And so in this way, my children, Christ was born in Bethlehem."

But Christmas is more than the celebration of this event which happened long ago and far away. It is a present reality.

Through the eyes of faith we see ourselves kneeling before the manger. We have come to adore our new-born King.

Through the wonder of faith, the Christmas story becomes alive. The Christ Child is born in our hearts. The angels speak to us:

"Behold I bring you tidings of great joy... For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord!"

Our Bethlehem today is our Church and Sunday School. Let us go and take our children to worship our new-born King.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs the moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Modern Traffic needs Concrete pavement

Traffic has increased steadily in weight and volume. Yet for more than a quarter of a century thousands of miles of concrete roads have rendered uninterrupted service while carrying most of the heaviest traffic.

Concrete meets every requirement of modern traffic. It is moderate in first cost. It has lower maintenance cost and at least twice the service life of other pavements. It is the safest pavement too. Its gritty surface grips tires firmly, permitting quicker stops in emergencies. Its light-colored surface allows maximum visibility at night. If you can't see you can't be safe.

Mr. Motorist, your license fees, gas and other taxes pay for building and maintaining roads. Insist on concrete to get the greatest pavement value for your money.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsberry

Last Report:

We promise that this will be the final report—for some time, at least—on the White House Conference on Education. But the meeting was so important to Kentucky that we must tell about it.

Six Kentuckians—including Ramsey Taylor, Dr. Lyman Ginger, Dr. Adron Doud, Dr. Robert Mills, Marvin Dodson, Dr. Robert Martin, Wendell Butler, and others—helped write the report on financial aid to the schools. All Kentuckians owe these men a debt for their hard work.

Some Findings:

Among the findings of the 1800 delegates of interest to our state was this paragraph in the final report:

"There should be a re-examination of the legal restrictions on borrowing and taxing for school purposes leading toward the easing of such restrictions but safeguarding the credit of the state and local communities."

Federal Aid:

The Kentucky delegation voted about 12 to 1 for Federal aid and the entire conference approved such help by a 2 to 1 vote. Here is conference summary in part:

The Federal government should increase its financial participation in education. Of these favoring such an increase, the overwhelming majority approved an increase in federal funds for school building construction.

Teachers' Salaries:

Kentucky school teachers will be pleased with the report on how to get and keep good teachers. Pay 'em more money, was the blunt proposal.

Others suggested that teachers get moral support from their administrators that they be relieved of a lot of jobs that have nothing to do with teaching, and that parents get in there and fight for school and employment improvements.

PLANS SHORT COURSE IN ANIMAL HUSBANDRY

A short course in Animal Husbandry has been planned for the benefit of young farmers who find it impossible to take the regular four-year course in agriculture, according to Dr. Dewey Steele, acting associate dean, of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The dates are from January 9 to 27.

The course will be directed to production and management problems in livestock in Kentucky. Young farmers, particularly high school graduates, are urged to consider the educational opportunities offered in such a course, said Dr. Steele.

Scholarships of $70 each, covering the cost of materials and supplies, will be awarded the first 30 applicants qualified to take the course. For further information, write to Dr. Dewey Steele, UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics, Lexington.

Where a heavy growth of weeds, broomsedge, straw, mature non-legume green-manure crop, or other such material is to be plowed under just ahead of the planting of a crop, additional fertilizer should be applied to prevent nitrogen deficiency that may occur while the organic material is decaying.

COVER HELPS CONSERVE LEAF STALK FERTILIZER

Following are some ways to conserve and make the best use of tobacco stalks as fertilizer, as suggested in the Farm and Home Development Manual of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics of the University of Kentucky.

Keep tobacco stalks under cover, use them for bedding, or spread them immediately on a growing crop. Tobacco stalks contain approximately 60 pounds of nitrogen, 15 pounds of phosphoric acid and 70 pounds of potash per ton, most of which is lost rapidly if the stalks are exposed to the rain. To lessen danger of spreading tobacco disease, they should not be applied on land to go in tobacco the following year.

Such materials as cornstalks and straw should not be burned. They

IT'S a winter's night, and an angel song . . . a giant star, and a tiny stable . . . a manger, and straw, and swaddling clothes.

Christmas is a chime . . . a boy soprano, and Silent Night . . . carolers, and The First Noël . . . the tinkle of a bell on a sleigh, of a coin in a cup.

Christmas is Dickens, and Scrooge, and Tiny Tim. It's holly on the door, a candle in the window . . . the scent of pine, and the sparkle of tinsel. Christmas is red and green, and blue and silver. Christmas is white.

Christmas is cards, and ribbon, and tissue paper. It's a trip home, an open latch, and a handclasp. It's giblets, and biscuits . . . cranberries, Christmas is cold and warmth . . . forgiveness, and a smile.
